Dan Robson will remove his family to St. Thomas next week, where he will act as G. T. R. freight brakeman. During his residence here he was brakeman between London and Port Stanley.

residence here he was brakeman between London and Port Stanley.

—The charges against two citizens of immoderate driving were withdrawn at the Police Court this morning. Edward Garner was let go on suspended sentence on a charge of disorderly conduct, and one drunk was remanded for a week.

—Miss Maggie McIvor, eldest daughter of Mr. McIvor, of Wales, Mich., and formerly of this city, and Mr. J. W. Zesbaugh, of Minneapolis, Minn., also formerly of London, were married at the residence of the bride's parents recently by Rev. J. W. McDiarmid. The happy couple left for Chicago on their wedding trip before going to their new home in Minneapolis.

-Certain boys in the city have recently —Certain boys in the city have recently made a practice of stealing tennis balls and other things from the Club House of the London Lawn Tennis Club on the Chapter House grounds, The boys are now known and it is only consideration for their parents and friends that prevents the club having them brought before the police magnistrate. Repetition of the offense will lead to their arrest.

istrate. Repetition of the offense will lead to their arrost.

—John Pellow, of Grand Rapids, Mich., and son of George Pellow of this city, has invented "a combination instantaneous water heater for baths or shower bath." It is said to be a wonder in its line and that it has never been cqualed. It was exhibited before a number of capitalists and business men a few days ago and was pronounced a most remarkable invention.

—Some mischievous urchins smashed the windows of a Chinaman's laundry shop on Richmond street yesterday. The Mongolian dropped his work and gave chase, but as a crowd of about 50 boys gathered round the pursuer was unable to identify the guilty ones. The mob added insult to injury by following the Chinamen back to his shop. Public sentiment is opposed to hoodlum element terrorizing anybody no matter what his nutionality. The police should discover who broke the glass and deal with them as justice demands.

Messrs. E. A. MacKenzie, B.A., and R. F. Cameron, students having performed the required exercises satisfactorily, were certified to the senates of the colleges of Montreal and Knox respectively.

Mr. E. A. McKenzie presented a written report of his labors in Langside during the summer. The report was received as very satisfactory. Langside is to be supplied by the Presbytery during fall and winter.

The temperance committee is instructed to memorialize the public school inspectors within the bounds to have a temperance manual systematically used in all the schools under their jurisdiction.

It was agreed that all sessions be enjoined to make arrangements for holding missionary meetings and report at the March meeting of Presbytery.

A communication from the home mission committee was presented. It asks for $1,100 for home missions and $500 for augmentation from this Presbytery. Congregations are commended to exercise liberality in behalf of these funds.

The Presbytery renewed its former application in behalf of aid-receiving congregations.

WORK AND WAGES.

MENOMINEE, Mich., Sept. 15.—All the mills are now running and the strike is practically over. A large number of the strikers went to work yesterday. The mill owners are picking their men and it is understood that all who are worth it will receive no less than $150 per day. Three more arrests of strikers, who were flourishing revolvers on the street, have been made and the rioters are in jail. Log sorting will be resumed as soon as there is room in the pockets and storage becoms.
