LIVERPOOL DAIRY REPORT, WEEK ENDING AUG. 4. [Hodgson Bros.' Letter.] [Hodgson Bros.' Letter.]
Cheese—The market was firmer at the early part of the week, and quotations were raised is to is 6d per cwt, and the demand was good. Later, however, under the influence of cables coming a little easier, there is some reaction from the highest point, and quotations are reduced, with some slackening of demand. We quote today: Finest Canadian, colored, 52s 6d to 53s 6d per cwt; do, white, 51s 6d to 52s 6d; medium grades, full creams, 44s 6d to 50s; lower qualities, scarce, nominally 36s to 42s.

nominally 36s to 42s.

Russian Outposts Fall Back Before Japanese Demonstration.

Godzyadani, Manchuria, Aug. 12.-The Japanese began to advance against the Russians at Yangda Pass and at Zoumoshou, in the Ouitsgou district, at 9:30 this morning. Their forces were not very numerous, there being only two battalions in each column. The movement had every appearance of a demonstration. The Russian outposts fell back in good order. The Chinese in this vicinity are again significantly leaving for the southward.

Trial of Toughs Alleged To Have Robbed Nets.

Vancouver, Aug. 14. — Charged with hold-ups and net-stealings, committed

The men are Fred Kline, R. Brechin, of Vancouver, and Harry Young, who hails from Seattle. They were nabbed in the fishing town early Thursday norning by Provincial Police Constables Monro and Wilkie.

Their latest crime is alleged to have been a bold hold-up which occurred Wednesday morning at 2 o'clock off the Fraser Sandheads. The story told by two Japanese was that the three men came on them with pointed revolvers and compelled them to hand over all they had. The bandits took the nets as well as the gear in the Japan-

Other information received by the police is to the effect that these three men have been carrying things in a very high-handed way ever since the fishing began. They are believed to be used guns on two white fishermen off Steveston last Sunday evening, but details of this charge have not yet been announced.

MONS. SBARETTI

Papal Delegate on Pleasure Tour of Province

After leaving the Soo, the papal delegate came to Owen Sound, and rom there to Killarney, an Indian settlement, where he was the guest of the Jesuit fathers. He visited the Indian missions, and while there a little incident occurred that pleased him very much. Monsignor Sparetti was at Killarney on Saturday, Aug. 5, and a deputation of the Indians waited on him and asked that he remain over Sunday with them. He consented, and when McGinnis has a market garden just south of the McClary works on Ade laide street. Unfortunately, he lives half a mile away, and so is unable to protect it from depredations. For many moons he has suffered severely from inroads by a gang of destructive youngsters. Not satisfied with taking just what fruit and vegetables they needed for their own use, the boys would root up and destroy many dollars' worth of green goods just for mere "cussedness. Tender peas, with their heads jus lifted above the grounds, and fit to eat, would be rooted up by the bunches. Green tomatoes which would fill a man's interior with all kinds of pains were torn from their plants and used as missiles in mimic battles. A special line of tender celery was destroyed befere it was fit to eat. Anyone who happened to take a look into that field after the boys had been spending part of the night there, would have thought that McGinnis, like his namesake it he story, owned an unruly pig.
