This became very sore and blood poisoning soon set in. For months after the children were quite well I was suffering from a shockingly bad finger. The scratch was caused originally by a pin, and in itself, was not at all serious. The consequences, however, of neglecting this scratch, were very serious to me.

The consequences, however, of neglecting this scratch, were very serious to me.

"When the blood-potenting set in I tried poultices and a salve I had in the house. These, however, did not have the desired effect. Quite on the contrary the finger became more and more swollen and discovered. It then began to fester, and I had to call in a dector. He lanced the finger to let out the pus, and you can imagine how painful the finger was! Despite his care, however, it again festered and the olutiments, liminents, and other preparations which the doctor gave me seemed absolutely unable to bring about any relief.

General Lake Says Decrease in Votes for Militia Has Had Bad Effect

Ottawa, April 25. — The annual report of the militia council, covering season of 1909, was presented to the Commons today. Out of a total establishment of 43,742, the number trained at district camps and local headfuarters last year was 36,224, of whom only 12,190 were trained at the district camps.

The report of Sir Percy Lake, the nspector-general, lays stress upon the effect of the reduction of the militia votes last year. He states; "The efficiency of the whole force suffered severely from the decrease in the votes upon which it depended for maintenance and drill. In the permanent force establishments had to be reduced below the limits of efficiency and recruiting had to be stopped."

Sir Percy takes the view that, bad as was the effect of this policy upon the active militia, it was even worse upon the permanent force, and he especially regrets the impossibility of having had all the permanent force mobilized at Petawawa for combined training. The barracks at Kingston are condemned as bad. The strike at Glace Bay is reported to have had a serious effect upon the condition of the barracks and fortresses As to the former it is said that resses. As to the former it is said that there is no station, with the possible exception of Esquimalt, where the barracks are up to the standard of modern requirements, while the bar-racks at Kingston, Toronto, St. Johns and Quebec are distinctly discreditable to the Dominion. They are old and out of date, often out of repair. The men are unhealthily crowded at the two former places, and the drainage is faulty. No time should be lost providing the new barracks contemplated in the neighborhood of Toronto and Kingston.

General Lake notes that too wide permission was given last year to the Royal Canadian Dragoons at Toronte in respect to taking part in musical rides at exhibitions. The training of the horses and men suffered thereby and he recommends that in future permission to take part in such exhibitions be given very sparingly.

He recommends the extension the terms of annual training for all branches of the force to sixteen days the additional expenditure involved being about $200,000.

General Lake's report concludes as follows: "The best loope for the future efficiency of the militia force, the army of the Dominion, lies, in my judgment, in the success of the çadet movement, an increased period of annual training, and, above all, in the adoption of suitable measures for creasing the supply of qualified of-ficers and non-commissioned offi-
