PECULIAR MOTOR

ACCIDENT TO ARTHUR
BELL OF CHATHAM

Chatham, N. B. Sept. 22—Arthur Bell, the popular accountant of the local branch of the Bank of Nova Scotia, son of Mr. Robert Bell, of Napam, met with a strange and severe accident while motor cycling on Sunday afternoon last. He was in the vicinity of Black River when, as far as ascertained, he was thrown from his machine and struck his head violently, affecting the brain so that for more than a day he altogether lost his memory and even yet cannot recall the event that led up to his accident. The blow did not render him unconscious and he wandered about in a dazed condition for over an hour before he was seen and taken to his father's home. Mr. Bell is recovering slowly though in a satisfactory manner.

CHAPLIN DRESSES FOR EFFORT IN "SUNNYSIDE"

In "Sunnyside," his third million dollar comedy, in which Charlie Chaplin will be seen at the Opera House on Friday and Saturday, the world famous comedian in tries to beat a Chesapeake Bay fisherman. Charlie is an uncouth farm hand who loves a pretty country maid. A city dandy comes to the hamlet and threatens to steal the affection of the girl. Then Charlie dresses up. Those who never miss a picture in which Chaplin is seen can guess the rest.

THEY ARE EXEMPTED.

A lawyer in a court room may call a man a liar, scoundrel, villain or thief, and no one makes complaint when court adjourns. If a newspaper prints such a reflection on a man's character there is a libel suit or a dead editor. This is owing to the fact that the people believe what an editor says.

KLARK-URBAN CO.
COMING TO OPERA HOUSE

"The 13th Chair," a mystery melodrama by Bayard Veiller, will be the seven night's bill of the Klark-Urban Co.'s engagement and will be presented at the Opera House on Oct. 2nd. The story tells of a young man, Will Crasby, a son of wealthy parents who is engaged to Helen O'Neill, a young woman of poor parentage, but who is accepted by the young man's parents.

"Philip Wason a friend, thinks that Helen is guilty of a murder that has been committed, and summons Madam Rosalie La Grange, a clairvoyant to be present at a party at the young man's home and try to fathom the mystery.

At the party Madame La Grange attempted to solve the mystery of the murder. Seated around her are a dozen people hanging on her words. A detective seeks the murderer, little thinking that he will be the next victim. Stricken down by unseen hands, a scream in the darkness, and another life has fled, that of the man in the 13th chair.

"Thrills, suspense follow closely, and no one can guess the solution until near the finish of the last act.

"Discharge that press agent immediately!" thundered the theatrical manager.

"But," protested the financial backer, "he has gotten some wonderful publicity."

"That's the point. If the actors read all he has written they will become so impressed with themselves that there will be no hope of meeting salary demands."
