Baldwin was in bed all day in custody of the United States deputy marshal. He positively refused to see reporters. Baldwin said to a friend, "I am guilty, and am willing to go to the penitentiary." In conversation with the district attorney he positively denied using any funds of the bank tively denied using any funds of the bank for private speculations, and said Nugent compelled him to give him money without security by threatening to tell the bank directors all about the crooked transac-tions. Sometimes Nugent paid back $50,000 a month, but always drew more than he paid. The State banking company, whose funds were nightly deposited with the Mechanics' bank, were somewhat embar-rassed by the failure, but drew from the bank $12,000 in bonds which had been de-posited by them elsewhere. The funds posited by them elsewhere. The funds were then secured to go on with the business. A quiet run was made on it, and one alderman drew out his entire deposit. The company, however, only had $7000 in the Mechanics and the officers have no fears for the safety of their bank. The Mutual Benefit life insurance company was a large depositor, but not to so great amount as some time ago. The Police Mutual Aid association had $5000 Police Mutual Aid association had $5000 deposited. The defalcation will reach $2,400,000. Nugent states the amount discounted for his firm was only about $160,000. Notwithstanding Baldwin's statement, it is believed he sunk large sums in stock speculation. It is now thought the depositors will get about fifty cents on the dollar.

Ballantine & Sens, Joseph Hensler and Cotfried Krueges, brewers, are smong the largest depositors.

Nugent effered this afternoon to confess a judgement for $200,000 on his indebtedness which the treasurer intended to draw this morning. The amount on deposit belonging to the water board was $127,000, but the board will be able to meet all claims. Baldwin entered the bank when a boy and became assistant cashier in 1852. His salary at the time of the failure was $7,000 a year. The bank paid an annual dividend of 14 per cent. The stockholders of the bank are liable for the full amount of the oldings-that is, each shareholder for $100 of stock must pay $100, besides losing the value of his stock. As far as is known no other banking institution is affected to on for a day or so, as there are a couple of civil cases to be first disposed of. A petilion has been received from Amelia, Duchess county, New York state, on behalf of Dunn who is a native of that place. Silas Currie has returned from Montreal, where he was bail.

It is now expected the bank will not pay depositors more than 40 per cent. Another report is that the assets will not be over 15 per cent. of the liabilities. The feeling Dunn on the charge of murder. against Baldwin is bitter. LATEST CABLE CHAT.

month till the totalwas increased to a ruinous amount. Nugent assured him he had a large property and a capital in business which would make all loans good. Nugent was well aware that he (Baldwin) was using the banks money and always promised to surrender his property in case of trouble. Under these circumstances the loans increased till it reached over $2,000,000.

Nugent would give drafts on friends in New York which would be gredited to him as cash, and Baldwin would use the bank's money to take up the drafts when due. The books were falshifed to show the accounts correct. Finally, however, the losses were placed in the account of the Mechanics' bank in New York, the agent of the Newark bank had claims for an estimate of the Newark bank had claims for an estimate of the Newark bank had claims for an estimate of the Newark bank had claims for an estimate of the Newark bank wows the New York bank, $200,000.
