An Old Settler Gone. Charles Robinson of Beaverton, tor many years reeve of the township of Thorah and ex-warden of the county of Ontario, died a week ago Saturday at his late residence in his 72d year. For over fifty years he had been a resident of the township and had seen all its pheses from the forest to its present prosperity. He was a prominent man in every movement for the improvement of the district, and gave much of his time to municipal affairs. He was a staunch liberal and for many years president of the North Ontario reform association. Among his family are C. Blackett Robinson, publisher, and J. G. Robinson, barrister, of Toronto, and Dr. Robinson, barrister, Hamilton. His tall and venerable figure was known to almost every one in the county. known to almost every one in the county, and as a consequence there was a large turn out at his funeral last Monday.

Fifty Years in Toronto. On Thursday evening last a few friends waited on Mr. H. Vander Smissen at his residence on Grosvenor street and Surrey place to present him with an address and a handsome gold-headed cane, on the occasion of the fiftieth anniversary of his arrival in this city. The address was read by Mr. C. Beeckh, sr., and the presentation made by Mr. J. P. Wagner. The recipient, although taken completely by surprise, replied at some length in feeling terms, contrasting the wretched hamlet, the Muddy Little York of 1835 with the thriving and populous metropolis, teeming with energy and enter-prize, which he had lived to see in 1883. Rev. E. Geuzmer also read another con-gratulatory address from the central conference of the Lutheran synod of Canada of which latter body Mr. Vander Smissen has been treasurer ever since it first sprang into existence about twenty years ago. Mr. Mulcahey and Mr Muldoon There is nothing exagerated in the droll numor of Barry and Fay, the happiest reresentatives of Irish character that have visited this city in many seasons. They ap-

Wherever they have been the town has gone with them. They force one to laugh, and although their comedy is not a pretentious literary product, it is admirably calculated to divert the multitude. Michael Mulhoahey are Irishmen as we often see them in realife and the force and fun of Barry and Fay's portraits are patent to every one who has
