

A VOICE FROM THE PULPIT

MR. SPURGEON SUPPORTS THE FALL GAZETTE.

Truth is mighty and must prevail - The forces of the wicked are arrayed against the exposure - Will Mr. Stead be prosecuted?

LONDON, July 13. - The Pall Mall Gazette this afternoon, in response to a request for its opinion as to the nature of the charges required in the present English criminal law, makes several important suggestions. The Gazette, in an editorial commenting on the result of its revelations, declares that its "trumpet blast has roused the world."

In the house of commons this evening Mr. Eastlake (conservative) asked the home department whether the Pall Mall Gazette's charges against the London police force in connection with that paper's revelations of infamy in the city were true. Sir Richard Cross replied that if the facts were as stated by the Gazette the inquiry would be made. He considered it his duty to endeavor to get to the bottom of the charges.

How the Exposures are Viewed. LONDON, July 13. - A Cambridge professor, who is also a member of parliament, says: "The simple fact is, Mr. Stead will be prosecuted, and he will bear it, for the consequence will be that he will be forced into the witness box."

It is now evident that the government will institute no proceedings against the paper. Of the editor only one contained a protest. Regarding the publication of the scandal, there is a strong feeling of indignation in the Pall Mall Gazette.
