

Provincial Parliament.

Mumps are quite prevalent in this place. Mrs. Prudence Chalk led the Young People's meeting Monday night.

A school reopened with a smaller number of scholars than usual owing to sickness.

A father's novel concert called "Centenarians" will be given by the old folks one week from Thursday.

Mr. Peter Wright had the misfortune to break his leg on Saturday, while cutting wood.

Alfred K. Foster, youngest son of Mr. and Mrs. Gifford Foster, is very ill; hopes are expressed that he may soon recover.

Mr. Henry A. Cross and Mr. Robert Newcomb are very sick; the latter has been confined to his room over seven weeks.

A Christmas concert in connection with the Sabbath school was given with much success the Sunday after Christmas; another concert under the auspices of the W. M. A. Society was much appreciated.

Rev. S. Langille is holding religious services in Lower Waterlock with good success. On New Year's night the good people of Waterlock made Rev. Mr. and Mrs. Langille a donation.

The ladies made a "Leap Year" party at Mr. William A. Sproule's on Tuesday night. Much fun was enjoyed in the selection of matches for the evening, as it entailed calling for them and seeing them safely home.

Spa Spring Chills. The night at residence of Capt. J. R. Hall, a little more snow and we will have sleighing.

Special school-meeting called for Thursday evening.

Mr. Austin Woodbury called for Thursday evening.

Our teacher, Miss Messenger, is again at her post. Seals all filled.

Our little town is progressing. A new building is in course of erection.

We were startled when it was announced that Sheriff Moore had passed away.

Some of our farmers are hauling apples to Middleton for shipment to the English market.

Mrs. Ruby Gates has returned from a pleasant visit among friends and relatives at Bear River.

Israel Miller of Bridgetown was the guest of his daughter, Mrs. J. P. Finney, for a few days last week.

H. O. Dodge, who is photographing at Berwick, spent Sunday with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. A. Dodge.

Mrs. Elizabeth Dodge received on Saturday the insurance on the life of her deceased husband, G. P. Dodge.

Lawrence town. Some sleighing on Monday.

Mr. Robert FitzRandolph is confined to his bed and is quite seriously ill.

Mr. W. R. Morse returned to Wolfville on Monday.

Miss Graham, of Halifax, was the guest of Mrs. Oswald on Sunday.

Miss Jefferson, who has been ill the past two weeks, is improving.

Servitors for Sunday, 19th: Baptist 11 a. m.; Methodist 11 a. m.; Episcopal 3 p. m.

Mrs. Sidney Stuart, of Portland, Me., is the guest of her mother, Mrs. Charles Elliott.

Mr. Silas Margrove, who is very sick, is very low, and hope of his recovery is dim.

The many friends of the late Sheriff Moore were pained to hear of his death last Friday.

His relatives have the fullest sympathy of the community.

Rev. Dr. H. H. Huggins, of Halifax, will deliver an address on Missions in the Episcopal church this (Wednesday) evening, at 7.30. All are invited.

On Friday, while chopping in the woods, Mr. Geo. Page cut his foot.

Miss Croker, of Fredericton, who has been visiting Miss Annie Messenger, returned home on Thursday.

Mrs. Milner, who has been visiting her sister, Mr. Armstrong, returned to Bridgetown on Thursday.

The Misses Messenger and brother Verden, who have been spending the holidays with their parents, returned to Annapolis on Thursday.

Mr. Valentine Wilson returned on Tuesday evening from the Victoria Hospital, where he was under an operation. We are sorry to state that "Tyne" is still in a critical state.

On New Year's night Mrs. T. T. Messenger gave a party to her many friends. The evening was very enjoyable and the party broke up in the "wee sma' hours."

Lower Granville Notes. The death of Sheriff Moore was received in this neighborhood with deep regret.

A clam spring in Circle Hill on Saturday evening yielded 800 bushels of clams. The attendance was large and a good time generally was spent.

On Monday evening a large company assembled at Mr. Gilbert Shaffner's to celebrate the fifteenth anniversary of Mr. Shaffner's marriage. The evening was enjoyed by all.

Mr. J. C. Grim has opened a store near the railway station.

Mr. Lemuel Soddard returned from his trip to the States.

Mr. Freeman, of Middleton, was seen on a visit to his parents.

Mr. Charles Marshall and Mr. Dinrook Starratt started on Thursday morning on a mouse hunt. The mouse must have been taking his family there for the winter.

Flashlight Division is still to the front. Five more joined us on Saturday evening, and yet there is room for more.

Mr. Reuben Chute is home from sea; Mr. Charles Parks, Mr. Borge Armstrong and Mr. Leland Brown, of Port George, were a few days with friends at Hampton; Miss Rappita Chute spent a few days last week with friends at Bridgetown and Ingleville; Mr. Leonard M. Whitman spent Sunday at the home of J. E. Charney; Mr. and Mrs. Joseph S. Snow returned to their home in Cliffside on Saturday last; Miss Edith Parker has returned to her school at Hampton.

Port Lorne. Wilyoughby Anthony has gone to Fredericton, N. B., to attend military school for the winter.

Capt. John Anthony has succeeded in recovering a small quantity of his goods that were stolen. They were found in a house on Gater Mountain, occupied by a man by the name of Colwell.

North Williamson Hall. On Sunday evening last this neat, commodious hall was opened for religious services.

Rev. J. Brown of New Brunswick, Rev. J. H. Toole of Lawrence town, and Rev. R. D. Porter of Middleton addressed the large audience which packed the hall to overflowing.

The residents of this sparsely settled community deserve the highest praise for their pluck, perseverance and liberality in erecting such a building for religious and secular purposes.

The hall is 38x22 feet, with arched ceiling, finished in spruce, with a neat wainscot of the same. The trimming, painted white, gives the structure a neat, airy appearance. It is heated with stoves. The land was presented to the section by Mr. Ois Woodman. The people, old and young, have worked with a will, and as freely offered their services and substance as those of old for the building of a greater temple. The work reflects much credit upon the contractor, Mr. Holmes Baker.

At the section a fairly good collection was taken in aid of defraying the debt on the hall, which is very small, and to do with the same. The debt was $100. The debt was paid by members of the Brooklyn and Lawrence town churches, with Mrs. D. Jarvis as organist.

Between 1880 and 1890 no less than 100,000 men and women were added to the population. We in the Maritime Provinces and in Canada generally, ought to bear this fact in mind.

Some Octogenarians of Bridgetown and Vicinity.

William Young Foster, in the seventh generation, from Scotland, Foster of the Mass. Born May 22nd, 1806; married Minnie, daughter of Seth Leonard, 1835, and had five children. He has held many important offices. Lives in Bridgetown, and is yet quite hale and hearty. His wife is over 90.

Thomas Woodbury, eighth generation, son of John Woodbury, of Somersetshire, Eng., who came over to Cape Ann, Mass., in 1633; married Anna Maria Morton, April 7th, 1807; married Anna Maria Morton, April 7th, 1807; married Anna Maria Morton, April 7th, 1807.

John Lightner, son of Philip, son of John, who was in the battle of Bonner Hill; born at Clements in 1818; married Florence Potter, and lived several years in Clements. She died in 1884 at the age of 75. He is now near Bridgetown, in quite well, except lame.

Nancy Jana, daughter of James and Patience-Helka Chesley, born in Clarence on April 30th, 1814; married Wm. Job, son of Wm. Rice, and had five sons. He was drowned at sea about 1832. She lives near Bridgetown, and has remarkably good health.

Charles Longley, married Elizabeth, daughter of Gilbert Fogler. Four children. Lives about a mile below Bridgetown, in Gravelly. Quite hale.

Jerusha, daughter of Isaac Foster, June, born April 7th, 1807; married Phineas Finney, had 10 children. She is now in the age of 88. She is yet quite hale and hearty.

Thomas Willard Chesley, Esq., barrister-at-law, born October, 1814; married Amelia Bishop and Rachel Clark. He is now in the age of 81, and is yet quite hale and hearty. He is a native of New Brunswick, and has spent much of his life in England.

Elizabeth, daughter of John and Hester-Riton Leighton, born in England, Nov. 1798; came to Gravelly in 1816; married Wm. Job, son of Wm. Rice, and had five children. He died in 1866, aged 65. She is yet quite hale and hearty.

Margaret, daughter of Abner, born 1818; married Charles, son of Wm. Job; had four children. He died about 1880, aged 70. She still lives in Gravelly.

Sarah Jane, daughter of John Longmire, born in Thomson, Eng., Aug. 22nd, 1812; married Wm. Job, son of Wm. Rice, and had five children. He died in 1866, aged 65. She is yet quite hale and hearty.

Elizabeth, daughter of John and Hester-Riton Leighton, born in England, Nov. 1798; came to Gravelly in 1816; married Wm. Job, son of Wm. Rice, and had five children. He died in 1866, aged 65. She is yet quite hale and hearty.

Robert Best, son of Ebenezer, son of John, born at Belleisle, Oct. 18th, 1810; married Theresa Church, daughter of Arch. Bishop. Had six children and two sons. She died Jan. 19th, 1885, aged 81. He died at York in 1868, aged 58.

Frederick, daughter of William and Mary-Margaret Chute, born near York, N.S., Dec. 23rd, 1810. Married Joseph Milberry, near Black Rock; had eight children. He died in 1868, aged 81. She lives at York's Cove.

Doa. Harris Miller Foster, Esq., born at Hampton, June 28th, 1816; married Martha Chute, daughter of Arch. Bishop. Had six children. He died in 1880, aged 64.

Lord Salisbury has decided not to wait for a meeting of parliament, but will publish as soon as he gets ready all the documents in his possession bearing upon the disputed boundary between British Guiana and Venezuela. The attitude of the people of the United States during the past week has materially influenced the prime minister's decision, just as it quickened the feeling of friendship entertained by Englishmen for those who speak their tongue and share their literature on the other side of the ocean.

The maintenance of friendly relations with the United States must always be a consideration of first importance for Great Britain. The exact nature of the changes is not yet known, but it is probable that Hon. Mr. Daly will take the department of justice and that Sir Charles Tupper will take the interior, the other six ministers being changed round, and under the law cannot take their old portfolio.

The work of the session will be proceeded with as expeditiously as possible, and when the seasonal programme is finished dissolution will take place.

It is fully expected, however, that Sir McKenzie Bowell will not go to the country premier. He will remain the first minister to the old war horse of Cumberland. It is not yet settled whether Sir Charles Tupper will take the vacant Nova Scotia senatorship or run for the commons.

"Industrial Canada." We have just received the first copy of a new journal called Industrial Canada, published in Toronto. The new project strikes out in a direction, which despite the nature of trade journals published, does not seem as if it has been covered. As the title suggests, it deals with industrial and manufacturing topics, as articles on the agricultural and the Canadian lumber industry, commercial treaties with foreign countries, the bicycle industry, electric progress, the telephone in Canada, etc. It pays more than ordinary attention to Canadian industries and has a department unique in class journals in Canada, headed Industrial Trade reviews, containing interesting character sketches and portraits of frontier and industrial leaders.

The monthly is 24 pages, introduced by McKenzie Bowell, and generously illustrated with views of lumbering, agriculture and other Canadian scenes. The subscription price $1.00 per year. Address, 124 Adelaide St., West, Toronto.

Correspondence.

We do not hold ourselves responsible for the opinions expressed in the following.

1. I have pleasure in welcoming you to your re-assembling for the discharge of your legislative duties, and I feel assured that you will be successful in all your efforts.

2. Although the year just closed has not been one of marked prosperity, there has been a fair degree of progress in our province. It is to be regretted that our fishing industry in some quarters failed to yield satisfactory returns.

3. Mining operations were carried on with considerable vigor, but owing to the limited demand for our coal the output was somewhat less than that of the previous year. Happily the labor of the husbandmen, the largest class of our people, were rewarded by an abundant harvest, which had a very beneficial effect on the business of the province.

4. We have observed with much satisfaction the successful organization of the Provincial Farmers' Association under an act passed last year's session. I anticipate favorable results from the organization of this body, which affords our farmers a large opportunity for the promotion of the interests of agriculture.

5. I am happy to be able to report the vigorous prosecution of work on the new line of Railway from Yarmouth eastward. In the case of the other railway enterprises which have recently received encouragement under our legislation, no substantial progress has been made.

6. A special inquiry has been made into the cause, history and effects of the fire, the coal seams of Pictou county. A report of this inquiry has been published, and you are invited to peruse it.

7. The continued good work of the Victoria General Hospital is a source of much satisfaction to those who are interested in the treatment of the sick. I have noticed with pleasure several movements for extending the hospital accommodations of the province by the establishment of local institutions. I invite you to consider the feasibility of giving these local hospitals some recognition and assistance.

8. In continuance of the policy of last session, respecting the revision of the most important general statutes, a bill will be submitted to you for the consolidation of the laws in respect to the probate courts.

9. The Public Accounts for the past fiscal year will be submitted to you. You will be glad to see that the revenue for the year was in excess of the expenditure chargeable against it.

10. The estimates for the public service of the current year, which will be prepared with due regard to economy and efficiency, will be laid before you.

11. Mr. Speaker and Honourable Gentlemen of the Legislative Council.

12. Mr. Speaker and Gentlemen of the House of Assembly.

13. I invite your careful attention to these and all other matters that may be brought before you, with the fullest confidence that your labors will be conducive to the advancement of the best interests of the province.

England and United States Come Together. BERTIE PELLER IN ENGLAND ON THE VENEZUELA QUESTION.

London, Jan. 13.—The Daily News says that Lord Salisbury refused to agree to the arbitration of the Ontario boundary dispute on the terms proposed by Venezuela and has declined to receive the report of the United States to trace the boundary, but if the American commission deems what in their opinion the terms should be, and if a European power will then act as arbitrator, all interests will be satisfied. The Standard announces that the foreign office is busily engaged in completing papers relating to the Venezuelan dispute. These papers will be published with as much despatch as is consistent with the satisfactory execution of the abortive task.

In an editorial the Standard says the communication is published in relation to the attitude of Germany and the Transvaal, and the publication of the papers on the Venezuelan difficulty is all authoritative. It adds: "Urged by friendly public opinion in the United States to place before the world the British case as regards the controversy with Venezuela, the cabinet on Saturday decided to publish the material documents in its possession bearing thereon. Of far more interest to the English people than the material documents is the feeling of friendship entertained by Englishmen for those who speak their tongue and share their literature on the other side of the ocean. The maintenance of friendly relations with the United States must always be a consideration of first importance for Great Britain. The exact nature of the changes is not yet known, but it is probable that Hon. Mr. Daly will take the department of justice and that Sir Charles Tupper will take the interior, the other six ministers being changed round, and under the law cannot take their old portfolio.

The work of the session will be proceeded with as expeditiously as possible, and when the seasonal programme is finished dissolution will take place.

It is fully expected, however, that Sir McKenzie Bowell will not go to the country premier. He will remain the first minister to the old war horse of Cumberland. It is not yet settled whether Sir Charles Tupper will take the vacant Nova Scotia senatorship or run for the commons.

"Industrial Canada." We have just received the first copy of a new journal called Industrial Canada, published in Toronto. The new project strikes out in a direction, which despite the nature of trade journals published, does not seem as if it has been covered. As the title suggests, it deals with industrial and manufacturing topics, as articles on the agricultural and the Canadian lumber industry, commercial treaties with foreign countries, the bicycle industry, electric progress, the telephone in Canada, etc. It pays more than ordinary attention to Canadian industries and has a department unique in class journals in Canada, headed Industrial Trade reviews, containing interesting character sketches and portraits of frontier and industrial leaders.

The monthly is 24 pages, introduced by McKenzie Bowell, and generously illustrated with views of lumbering, agriculture and other Canadian scenes. The subscription price $1.00 per year. Address, 124 Adelaide St., West, Toronto.

Frozen to Death.

On Wednesday last a young man named Watson Allen of Nicholville, Kings Co., left the residence of Mr. James Johnson in that place to visit the lumber camp of Mr. A. M. McKee, taking some clothes to his brother who was employed there. He reached the camp and had dinner there. About three miles from camp, and only a few hundred yards from the place where the body of James Wiggins, who was lost from the same camp, was found a few weeks before. An inquest was held by Coroner Balcom and a verdict of "Death from exposure" was found.

On Wednesday last a young man named Watson Allen of Nicholville, Kings Co., left the residence of Mr. James Johnson in that place to visit the lumber camp of Mr. A. M. McKee, taking some clothes to his brother who was employed there. He reached the camp and had dinner there. About three miles from camp, and only a few hundred yards from the place where the body of James Wiggins, who was lost from the same camp, was found a few weeks before. An inquest was held by Coroner Balcom and a verdict of "Death from exposure" was found.

On Wednesday last a young man named Watson Allen of Nicholville, Kings Co., left the residence of Mr. James Johnson in that place to visit the lumber camp of Mr. A. M. McKee, taking some clothes to his brother who was employed there. He reached the camp and had dinner there. About three miles from camp, and only a few hundred yards from the place where the body of James Wiggins, who was lost from the same camp, was found a few weeks before. An inquest was held by Coroner Balcom and a verdict of "Death from exposure" was found.

On Wednesday last a young man named Watson Allen of Nicholville, Kings Co., left the residence of Mr. James Johnson in that place to visit the lumber camp of Mr. A. M. McKee, taking some clothes to his brother who was employed there. He reached the camp and had dinner there. About three miles from camp, and only a few hundred yards from the place where the body of James Wiggins, who was lost from the same camp, was found a few weeks before. An inquest was held by Coroner Balcom and a verdict of "Death from exposure" was found.

On Wednesday last a young man named Watson Allen of Nicholville, Kings Co., left the residence of Mr. James Johnson in that place to visit the lumber camp of Mr. A. M. McKee, taking some clothes to his brother who was employed there. He reached the camp and had dinner there. About three miles from camp, and only a few hundred yards from the place where the body of James Wiggins, who was lost from the same camp, was found a few weeks before. An inquest was held by Coroner Balcom and a verdict of "Death from exposure" was found.

On Wednesday last a young man named Watson Allen of Nicholville, Kings Co., left the residence of Mr. James Johnson in that place to visit the lumber camp of Mr. A. M. McKee, taking some clothes to his brother who was employed there. He reached the camp and had dinner there. About three miles from camp, and only a few hundred yards from the place where the body of James Wiggins, who was lost from the same camp, was found a few weeks before. An inquest was held by Coroner Balcom and a verdict of "Death from exposure" was found.

On Wednesday last a young man named Watson Allen of Nicholville, Kings Co., left the residence of Mr. James Johnson in that place to visit the lumber camp of Mr. A. M. McKee, taking some clothes to his brother who was employed there. He reached the camp and had dinner there. About three miles from camp, and only a few hundred yards from the place where the body of James Wiggins, who was lost from the same camp, was found a few weeks before. An inquest was held by Coroner Balcom and a verdict of "Death from exposure" was found.

On Wednesday last a young man named Watson Allen of Nicholville, Kings Co., left the residence of Mr. James Johnson in that place to visit the lumber camp of Mr. A. M. McKee, taking some clothes to his brother who was employed there. He reached the camp and had dinner there. About three miles from camp, and only a few hundred yards from the place where the body of James Wiggins, who was lost from the same camp, was found a few weeks before. An inquest was held by Coroner Balcom and a verdict of "Death from exposure" was found.

On Wednesday last a young man named Watson Allen of Nicholville, Kings Co., left the residence of Mr. James Johnson in that place to visit the lumber camp of Mr. A. M. McKee, taking some clothes to his brother who was employed there. He reached the camp and had dinner there. About three miles from camp, and only a few hundred yards from the place where the body of James Wiggins, who was lost from the same camp, was found a few weeks before. An inquest was held by Coroner Balcom and a verdict of "Death from exposure" was found.

On Wednesday last a young man named Watson Allen of Nicholville, Kings Co., left the residence of Mr. James Johnson in that place to visit the lumber camp of Mr. A. M. McKee, taking some clothes to his brother who was employed there. He reached the camp and had dinner there. About three miles from camp, and only a few hundred yards from the place where the body of James Wiggins, who was lost from the same camp, was found a few weeks before. An inquest was held by Coroner Balcom and a verdict of "Death from exposure" was found.

On Wednesday last a young man named Watson Allen of Nicholville, Kings Co., left the residence of Mr. James Johnson in that place to visit the lumber camp of Mr. A. M. McKee, taking some clothes to his brother who was employed there. He reached the camp and had dinner there. About three miles from camp, and only a few hundred yards from the place where the body of James Wiggins, who was lost from the same camp, was found a few weeks before. An inquest was held by Coroner Balcom and a verdict of "Death from exposure" was found.

On Wednesday last a young man named Watson Allen of Nicholville, Kings Co., left the residence of Mr. James Johnson in that place to visit the lumber camp of Mr. A. M. McKee, taking some clothes to his brother who was employed there. He reached the camp and had dinner there. About three miles from camp, and only a few hundred yards from the place where the body of James Wiggins, who was lost from the same camp, was found a few weeks before. An inquest was held by Coroner Balcom and a verdict of "Death from exposure" was found.

On Wednesday last a young man named Watson Allen of Nicholville, Kings Co., left the residence of Mr. James Johnson in that place to visit the lumber camp of Mr. A. M. McKee, taking some clothes to his brother who was employed there. He reached the camp and had dinner there. About three miles from camp, and only a few hundred yards from the place where the body of James Wiggins, who was lost from the same camp, was found a few weeks before. An inquest was held by Coroner Balcom and a verdict of "Death from exposure" was found.

On Wednesday last a young man named Watson Allen of Nicholville, Kings Co., left the residence of Mr. James Johnson in that place to visit the lumber camp of Mr. A. M. McKee, taking some clothes to his brother who was employed there. He reached the camp and had dinner there. About three miles from camp, and only a few hundred yards from the place where the body of James Wiggins, who was lost from the same camp, was found a few weeks before. An inquest was held by Coroner Balcom and a verdict of "Death from exposure" was found.

On Wednesday last a young man named Watson Allen of Nicholville, Kings Co., left the residence of Mr. James Johnson in that place to visit the lumber camp of Mr. A. M. McKee, taking some clothes to his brother who was employed there. He reached the camp and had dinner there. About three miles from camp, and only a few hundred yards from the place where the body of James Wiggins, who was lost from the same camp, was found a few weeks before. An inquest was held by Coroner Balcom and a verdict of "Death from exposure" was found.

On Wednesday last a young man named Watson Allen of Nicholville, Kings Co., left the residence of Mr. James Johnson in that place to visit the lumber camp of Mr. A. M. McKee, taking some clothes to his brother who was employed there. He reached the camp and had dinner there. About three miles from camp, and only a few hundred yards from the place where the body of James Wiggins, who was lost from the same camp, was found a few weeks before. An inquest was held by Coroner Balcom and a verdict of "Death from exposure" was found.

On Wednesday last a young man named Watson Allen of Nicholville, Kings Co., left the residence of Mr. James Johnson in that place to visit the lumber camp of Mr. A. M. McKee, taking some clothes to his brother who was employed there. He reached the camp and had dinner there. About three miles from camp, and only a few hundred yards from the place where the body of James Wiggins, who was lost from the same camp, was found a few weeks before. An inquest was held by Coroner Balcom and a verdict of "Death from exposure" was found.

On Wednesday last a young man named Watson Allen of Nicholville, Kings Co., left the residence of Mr. James Johnson in that place to visit the lumber camp of Mr. A. M. McKee, taking some clothes to his brother who was employed there. He reached the camp and had dinner there. About three miles from camp, and only a few hundred yards from the place where the body of James Wiggins, who was lost from the same camp, was found a few weeks before. An inquest was held by Coroner Balcom and a verdict of "Death from exposure" was found.

On Wednesday last a young man named Watson Allen of Nicholville, Kings Co., left the residence of Mr. James Johnson in that place to visit the lumber camp of Mr. A. M. McKee, taking some clothes to his brother who was employed there. He reached the camp and had dinner there. About three miles from camp, and only a few hundred yards from the place where the body of James Wiggins, who was lost from the same camp, was found a few weeks before. An inquest was held by Coroner Balcom and a verdict of "Death from exposure" was found.

On Wednesday last a young man named Watson Allen of Nicholville, Kings Co., left the residence of Mr. James Johnson in that place to visit the lumber camp of Mr. A. M. McKee, taking some clothes to his brother who was employed there. He reached the camp and had dinner there. About three miles from camp, and only a few hundred yards from the place where the body of James Wiggins, who was lost from the same camp, was found a few weeks before. An inquest was held by Coroner Balcom and a verdict of "Death from exposure" was found.

On Wednesday last a young man named Watson Allen of Nicholville, Kings Co., left the residence of Mr. James Johnson in that place to visit the lumber camp of Mr. A. M. McKee, taking some clothes to his brother who was employed there. He reached the camp and had dinner there. About three miles from camp, and only a few hundred yards from the place where the body of James Wiggins, who was lost from the same camp, was found a few weeks before. An inquest was held by Coroner Balcom and a verdict of "Death from exposure" was found.

On Wednesday last a young man named Watson Allen of Nicholville, Kings Co., left the residence of Mr. James Johnson in that place to visit the lumber camp of Mr. A. M. McKee, taking some clothes to his brother who was employed there. He reached the camp and had dinner there. About three miles from camp, and only a few hundred yards from the place where the body of James Wiggins, who was lost from the same camp, was found a few weeks before. An inquest was held by Coroner Balcom and a verdict of "Death from exposure" was found.

On Wednesday last a young man named Watson Allen of Nicholville, Kings Co., left the residence of Mr. James Johnson in that place to visit the lumber camp of Mr. A. M. McKee, taking some clothes to his brother who was employed there. He reached the camp and had dinner there. About three miles from camp, and only a few hundred yards from the place where the body of James Wiggins, who was lost from the same camp, was found a few weeks before. An inquest was held by Coroner Balcom and a verdict of "Death from exposure" was found.

On Wednesday last a young man named Watson Allen of Nicholville, Kings Co., left the residence of Mr. James Johnson in that place to visit the lumber camp of Mr. A. M. McKee, taking some clothes to his brother who was employed there. He reached the camp and had dinner there. About three miles from camp, and only a few hundred yards from the place where the body of James Wiggins, who was lost from the same camp, was found a few weeks before. An inquest was held by Coroner Balcom and a verdict of "Death from exposure" was found.

On Wednesday last a young man named Watson Allen of Nicholville, Kings Co., left the residence of Mr. James Johnson in that place to visit the lumber camp of Mr. A. M. McKee, taking some clothes to his brother who was employed there. He reached the camp and had dinner there. About three miles from camp, and only a few hundred yards from the place where the body of James Wiggins, who was lost from the same camp, was found a few weeks before. An inquest was held by Coroner Balcom and a verdict of "Death from exposure" was found.

On Wednesday last a young man named Watson Allen of Nicholville, Kings Co., left the residence of Mr. James Johnson in that place to visit the lumber camp of Mr. A. M. McKee, taking some clothes to his brother who was employed there. He reached the camp and had dinner there. About three miles from camp, and only a few hundred yards from the place where the body of James Wiggins, who was lost from the same camp, was found a few weeks before. An inquest was held by Coroner Balcom and a verdict of "Death from exposure" was found.

On Wednesday last a young man named Watson Allen of Nicholville, Kings Co., left the residence of Mr. James Johnson in that place to visit the lumber camp of Mr. A. M. McKee, taking some clothes to his brother who was employed there. He reached the camp and had dinner there. About three miles from camp, and only a few hundred yards from the place where the body of James Wiggins, who was lost from the same camp, was found a few weeks before. An inquest was held by Coroner Balcom and a verdict of "Death from exposure" was found.

On Wednesday last a young man named Watson Allen of Nicholville, Kings Co., left the residence of Mr. James Johnson in that place to visit the lumber camp of Mr. A. M. McKee, taking some clothes to his brother who was employed there. He reached the camp and had dinner there. About three miles from camp, and only a few hundred yards from the place where the body of James Wiggins, who was lost from the same camp, was found a few weeks before. An inquest was held by Coroner Balcom and a verdict of "Death from exposure" was found.

On Wednesday last a young man named Watson Allen of Nicholville, Kings Co., left the residence of Mr. James Johnson in that place to visit the lumber camp of Mr. A. M. McKee, taking some clothes to his brother who was employed there. He reached the camp and had dinner there. About three miles from camp, and only a few hundred yards from the place where the body of James Wiggins, who was lost from the same camp, was found a few weeks before. An inquest was held by Coroner Balcom and a verdict of "Death from exposure" was found.

On Wednesday last a young man named Watson Allen of Nicholville, Kings Co., left the residence of Mr. James Johnson in that place to visit the lumber camp of Mr. A. M. McKee, taking some clothes to his brother who was employed there. He reached the camp and had dinner there. About three miles from camp, and only a few hundred yards from the place where the body of James Wiggins, who was lost from the same camp, was found a few weeks before. An inquest was held by Coroner Balcom and a verdict of "Death from exposure" was found.

On Wednesday last a young man named Watson Allen of Nicholville, Kings Co., left the residence of Mr. James Johnson in that place to visit the lumber camp of Mr. A. M. McKee, taking some clothes to his brother who was employed there. He reached the camp and had dinner there. About three miles from camp, and only a few hundred yards from the place where the body of James Wiggins, who was lost from the same camp, was found a few weeks before. An inquest was held by Coroner Balcom and a verdict of "Death from exposure" was found.

&lt;