

CHAPTER XXVII.

Hieroglyphical Painting Seen on Bluff Rocks, in Caves, and Secluded Places.—Their Probable Origin and Design. PAGE 226

CHAPTER XXVIII.

Earth-Works of Ohio.—Their Resemblance to those Found Far West and North.—Royal Cemeteries on the Scioto River, &c. 239

CHAPTER XXIX.

Ohio Earth-Works Continued.—Ruling Prophet's Resident Circle.—Holy City.—Festival Circles.—Royal Union.—Prophet's Metropolis.—Sacrificial Temples.—Unfinished Sanctuaries, &c. 247

CHAPTER XXX.

Egyptian Sanctuary in Indiana containing painted Emblems of Theological Import.—The Great Extent of Earthen Walls in Ohio.—Unfinished Stone Work on Fort Hill, in Highland County.—Mounds of Migration, &c. 262

CHAPTER XXXI.

The Ancient American Fish-Trap in Ohio and Nebraska.—The Traditions of De-coo-dah relative to its Origin and Use.—Its Adaptation to its Traditional Design. 288

CHAPTER XXXII.

The Deposits of Metals in the Mounds.—Their Form and Probable Design.—Of European Origin, &c. 290

CHAPTER XXXIII.

Modern and Ancient Pipes.—Their Various Forms.—The Antique Pipe.—Its Origin with the Mound-Builders, &c. 298

CHAPTER XXXIV.

Evidences of an Exceedingly Ancient Population in Kentucky, and Other Parts of the North American Continent. 307

CHAPTER XXXV.

Probable Causes of the Final Extinction of the Mound-Builders. .. 312

CHAPTER XXXVI.

National Degeneration.—Its Origin and Effects. 323