

God, the Great Architect of Heaven and Earth, to dedicate the Hall to Freemasonry, to virtue and to Universal Benevolence.

This ceremony over M.W. Bro. W. R. White, Grand Master of the Grand Lodge of Canada in Ontario was presented to Grand Lodge. He received an enthusiastic welcome from the brethren, which he acknowledged in suitable terms.

The following choir rendered the musical portion of the proceedings in an admirable manner: W. Bro. C. W. Hagar, and Bros. J. Venables, E. M. Renouf, G. A. Irwin, R. C. Verner, Wm. Miller, Jas. Johnson, F. G. Payne, J. T. Barlow and J. C. Poole. Bro. P. J. Illsloy, organist.

The Grand Lodge Officers and brethren were subsequently entertained at a banquet by the directors of the Montreal Temple Company, at which R.W. Bro. B. Tooke, P.D.D.G.M., presided. The toast list included "The Queen and the Craft," "The Grand Lodge of Quebec," "The Grand Lodge of Canada in Ontario," and "Past Grand Masters and Grand Lodge officers." All the speeches in response breathed a spirit of congratulation to the promoters of the Temple Building, which reflected credit not only upon the Montreal Masons, but upon the entire fraternity in the Province of Quebec. Those who responded were: M.W. Bros. Fred Massey, W. R. White (Pembroke, Ont), John P. Noyes, Acting Chief Justice Tait, and R.W. Bros. S. P. Franchot and the Rev. R. Hewton. The speeches were interspersed with singing and recitations.

During the evening M.W. Bro. Massey presented M.W. Bro. John P. Noyes, the immediate Past Grand Master, with two large copies of the Anniversary photographs of the Grand Lodge Officers and Members, handsomely framed, which M.W. Bro. Noyes suitably acknowledged.

Great credit is due to R.W. Bro. W. H. Whyte, Secretary of the Temple Company, for the admirable manner
