It is found that cotton, better than anything else that has been tried, absorbs the heat from above, and at the same time transmits the moisture rising from the head...

The late John Prince Wetherhill, of Philadelphia, left one million dollars, and no will. He was President of the Select Councils, a practical chemist, and the author of a work on white lead.

SALERATUS.—The Baltimore Sun says Saleratus destroys thousands of children, and some adults every year. It consists of salts of lye and carbonic acid gas...

An essay might be written upon the injurious and deleterious qualities of Sal Eratus. It is a slow poison but one of the surest and most deadly. The bad health of the people of this continent is entirely attributable to its continual use...

The remarks of the Baltimore Sun and Kingston Whig denunciatory of Saleratus, (the word needs no capital E for it, means simply arated salt), are wholly uncalled for. In rare instances house-keepers use an excess of this salt potash...

It is injurious to health to take too much potash or any other alkali into the system, as it is to swallow acids, or any other chemical elements. Nature, however, places seven or eight times more of potash in the seeds of wheat...

THE GRAND DIVISION PRINTING.—We have often thought the plan of leaving the management of the printing to the Grand Scribe a bad one. It seems to us that the printing of the Order costs too much every year...

THE EFFECT OF JUDGE ROBINSON'S DECISION is tremendous all over the country. All the township, town and city municipalities have suddenly repealed their by-laws preventing the Sunday traffic in liquors...

PLENDID TEMPERANCE TALE!

JOHN P. JEWETT & Co.

HAVE in press and will publish about the first of September, one of the most thrilling TEMPERANCE TALES which has been published since the memorable series by SARGENT. It is said to be written by a Clergyman of New York—entirely.

THE MYSTERIOUS PARCHMENT,

SATANIC LICENSE.

It will be a 12mo volume, of about 300 pages, bound in cloth. It is written with great power and beauty, and depicts, as with living fire, the dreadful evils which follow in the train of distilling, trading and drinking ardent spirits, and the absolute necessity of prohibitory laws to prevent its sale and use. The contents of this thrilling work, which is destined to cause a commotion in the world, are as follows:

- CHAPTER I. Urges of Society—Effects. II.—Shocking Results. III.—Entering the Vortex. IV.—The Villa. V.—The Lowly Cot. VI.—The Board of Excise. VII.—The Satanic License—Horrible Dream. VIII.—The Temperance Meeting. IX.—The Change. X.—Resuming the Work of Death. XI.—The Petition. XII.—The Issue. XIII.—The Experience Meeting. XIV.—Villainy Developed. XV.—A Pocket Argument. XVII.—Force of Public Sentiment. XVIII.—Legitimate Fruits. XIX.—The Closing Scene.

We bespeak the co-operation of Temperance Organizations, individual friends of Temperance, in a vigorous circulation of the work. Place a copy in every family in the land, and drinking will soon cease.

Early orders are solicited by the publishers, JOHN P. JEWETT & Co., 17 and 19, Cornhill, Boston.
