The amounts allocated by Presbyteries to congregations within their bounds do not come under the jurisdiction of the Board.

In all £407 15s; and adding £78 11s for outfit and passage money of missionaries, we have a total of $2431 50 expended on us for the year by the C. C., as against $3619 in 1870; and as against $6542 in 1869.

APPENDIX D.

Report on Young Men's Bursary Scheme.

In submitting their Annual Report, your Committee do so with mingled sorrow, gratitude and pleasure,—1st, with sorrow for the loss by death of their able, efficient and respected Convener, the late Dr. Donald; 2ndly, with unfeigned gratitude to the Great Head of the Church, who continues to smile upon our feeble efforts for the building up of the waste places of our Zion; and 3rdly, with much pleasure because of the greatly-increasing success of the Young Men's Bursary Scheme.

During the past year, the appeals both to congregations to increase their liberality, and to young men to give themselves for the work of the ministry, have been so heartily responded to, that your Committee have reason to thank God and take courage.
