Loretto Academy, Bond Street.

The closing exercises at Bond street Academy on Saturday afternoon, took the form of a pretty operetta, present ed by the pupils, entitled "The Mountain Nymphs." There were two acts. In the first the fairies were surprised by a merry crowd of school girls, and in the second the girls were satonished by the spirits. This complication of circumstances was terminated by the performance of an unselfish act. The little play affurded an excellent opportunity to the juntor and senior divisions of the school to demonstrate their attainments in music, recitation and deportment. Fasher Ryan presided and praised the performance.

Stratford Items.

The initiative step has already been taken for the purchase fo the Perth Flax Mill, of whoch Aid. John Hogarth, is the proprietor. At a meeting of many of our prominent business men held here recently it was decided to form a joint stock company to build and operate a flax mill. The company is to be styled and known as The Perth Flax and Cordage Co (Ltd.) of Stratford, and all the shareholders are tobe residents of Stratford. The above company intends purchasing the flax mill now owned and controlled by Mr. Hogarth and will erect in more suitable quarters additional buildings and greatly extend the scope of the present business. The next meeting held was purely for organization purposes. The following prominent citizens were chosen provisionial directors: John Hogarth, Jos. Walsh, John Henry, E. T. Dutton, Otto Fluschaner, A. J. McPherson and Frank Richardson. A heautiful site of 4 acres was selected on Bruns wick street, near the Wiarton track. Plans are prepared for a brick cordage factory, a frame flax mill and a rope walk.

MR. The directors subsequently met and The directors subsequently met and elected the following provisional officers: Jos. Walsh, president; Otto Fluschaner, vice-president; John Hogarth, manager; John Henry, treasurer; and W. Miller, secretary as soon as the charter is secured these officers will be elected permanently. The above men are all up to date business men and will no doubt a worthy success of the enterprise.
