THE WANDERING JEW.

FROM THE FRENCH OF BYRON.

CHRISTIAN, a cup of water give
The way-worn man beside thy door,
—whom the whirlwind never leaves—
The Jew—who wanders o'eremore,
Ne'er growing old through weary days,
But one dream—to the end of time,
Hoping to see the sun's last rays,
But o'eremore the sun still shines,
Forevermore, forevermore,
With this weary soul the world doth roll,
Forevermore.

For eighteen hundred years, alas!
The whirlwind's breath hath hurled me on
Above the wreck of myriad states,
The ashes of old Greece and Rome.
I've seen calamity o'erwhelm
The nations which strove to thrive,
Wish to succeed those ancient realms
From out the waves two worlds arise,
Forevermore, forevermore,
With this weary soul the world doth roll,
Forevermore.

God changed my fate for punishment,
I give my love to all that dies,
But quickly from on high is sent
The sudden storm that with me flies,
And if some poor old man implore
The little coin which I can lend,
He hath no time to press the hand
I love, in passing to extend,—
Forevermore, forevermore,
With this weary soul the world doth roll,
Forevermore.

Alone reclined by shrubs or flowers
Upon the turf or by the wave,
If I repose my weary powers,
I hear the furious whirlwind rave.
Ah, what doth cause the angry sky
One moment pass'd beneath the shade,
Can less than an eternity
Give rest when such a life is paid?
Forevermore, forevermore,
With this weary soul the world doth roll,
Forevermore.

Many a laughing, joyous child
Recalls the image of my own,
But if I turn to fast my eyes
Deep shadows in the whirlwind's tone.
Old man, what a dare for any wile
To envy me this long career,
These children upon whom I smile,
My foot shall tread their ashes here.
Forevermore, forevermore,
With this weary soul the world doth roll,
Forevermore.

I yet can find one little trace
Of those old walls where I was born,
And striving but to see the place,
The whirlwind cries: 'Pass on, pass on!
'Pass on!' and more the voice doth cry,
'Rest thou—'till earth is clothed in gloom—
Thou mayest not with thy fathers lie,
They kept no place within their tomb.'
Forevermore, forevermore,
With this weary soul the world doth roll,
Forevermore.

'Twas I reviled with fardish laugh
The Man-God in his agony—
But 'neath my feet doth fly the path—
Farewell, the whirlwind urgeth me:
Whoe'er thou art lacks charity,
Tremble at my just doom; and strange,
It was not his divinity,
The human life did God avenge,
Forevermore, forevermore,
With his weary soul the world doth roll,
Forevermore.

THE FAR-FAMED MEDICINE

HOLLOWAY'S PILLS.

SURPRISING CURE OF A CONFIRMED ASTHMA, AFTER FIVE YEARS' SUFFERING.

The following testimonial has been sent to Professor Holloway, by a Gentleman named Middleton, of Scotland Road, Liverpool.

SIR.—Your Pills have been the means, under Providence of restoring me to sound health after five years of severe affliction. During the whole of that period, I suffered the most dreadful attacks of Asthma, frequently of several weeks' duration, attended with a violent cough, and continual spitting of phlegm intermixed with blood. This so shook my constitution that I was unfitted for any of the active duties of life. I was attended by some of the most eminent medical men of this town, but they failed to give me the slightest relief. As a last remedy I tried your Pills, and in about three months they effected a perfect cure of the disease, totally eradicated the cough, and restored tone and vigour to the chest and digestive organs. I am, Sir, your obedient Servant,

A PERMANENT CURE OF A DISEASED LIVER OF MANY YEARS' STANDING.

Copy of a Letter from Mr. Gamis, Chemist, Yeovil, to Professor Holloway.

DEAR SIR—In this district your Pills command a more extensive sale than any other proprietary medicine before the public. As a proof of their efficacy in Liver and Bilious Complaints, I may mention the following case. A lady of this town with whom I am personally acquainted, for years was a severe sufferer from disease of the Liver and digestive organs; her medical attendant assured her that he could do nothing to relieve her sufferings, and it was not likely she could survive many months. This announcement naturally caused great alarm among her friends and relations, and they induced her to make a trial of your Pills, which so improved her general health that she was induced to continue them until she received a perfect cure. This is twelve months ago, and she has not experienced any symptoms of relapse, and often declares that your Pills have been the means of saving her life. I remain, Dear Sir, yours truly,
(Signed) J. GAMIS.

AN ASTONISHING CURE OF CHRONIC RHEUMATISM AFTER BEING DISCHARGED FROM THE HOSPITAL INCURABLE.

Copy of a Letter from W. Moon, of the Square, Winchester.

TO PROFESSOR HOLLOWAY,
SIR,—I beg to inform you that for years I was a sufferer from Chronic Rheumatism, and was often laid up for weeks together by its severe and painful attacks. I tried every thing that was recommended, and was attended by one of the most eminent Surgeons in this town; but obtained no relief whatever, and fearing that my health would be entirely broken up, I was induced to go into our County Hospital, where I had the best medical treatment the Institution afforded, all of which proved of no avail, and I came out no better than when I went in. I was then advised to try your Pills, and by persevering with them was perfectly cured, and enabled to resume my occupation, and although a considerable period has elapsed, I have felt no return whatever of the complaint. I am, Sir, your obliged Servant,
(Signed) W. MOON.

AN EXTRAORDINARY CURE OF DROPSY, AFTER SUFFERING FOR EIGHTEEN MONTHS.

Copy of a Letter from Mr. G. Briggs, Chemist, Goole, dated February 14th, 1853.

TO PROFESSOR HOLLOWAY,
SIR,—I have much pleasure in informing you of a most surprising cure of Dropsy, recently effected by your valuable medicines. CAPTAIN JACKSON, of this place, was afflicted with Dropsy for upwards of eighteen months, to such an extent that it caused his body and limbs to be much swollen, and water oozed as it were from his skin, so that a daily change of apparel came necessary, notwithstanding the various remedies tried, and the different medical men consulted, all was of no avail, until he commenced using your Pills, by which, and a strict attention to the printed directions, he was effectually cured, and his health perfectly re-established. If you deem this worthy of publicity, you are at liberty to use it. I am, Sir, yours respectfully,
(Signed) G. BRIGGS.

These celebrated Pills are wonderfully efficacious in the following complaints.
