

Sunday Afternoon BIBLE CLASS

SHAFTESBURY HALL, 3 O'CLOCK.

YOU ARE CORDIALLY INVITED.

LECTURE COURSE.

THE third evening of our course (Tuesday last), was filled by M. Eleanor Georgen the Elocutionary Artiste. This was Mad. Georgen's first appearance in Toronto and the reception accorded her was gratifying in the broadest sense of the word. The Hall was completely filled, ground floor and both galleries, about 1000 persons being present. The lady fully maintained the reputation which had preceded her and the fact that a programme of over two hours duration was listened to with attention and manifest satisfaction, is a proof that her elocutionary attainments are great. The applause which greeted the announcement that she purposed paying another visit to Toronto at an early date, was sufficient proof that Mad. Georgen had in this her first appearance won the approbation of these present.

CLASSES.

THE several classes opened last week under very gratifying circumstances. The attendance was good and will doubtless be increased this week. No new members will be admitted after Monday 5th inst.

GOSPEL AND SONG SERVICE

Every Sunday Evening, at 8.30.

ALL INVITED.

CHRISTMAS CARDS.

OUR members and friends who desire to send out these tokens of friendship, would do well to call on Mr. Briggs, at the Willard Tract Depository, whose stock of Scripture Christmas cards is not only large but very choice.

FAITH.

FAITH and its object are so suited to each other, that in whatever way the one is represented, the other has a name suitable to the representation.

If Christ is the Brazen Serpent, Faith is the eye to behold Him.

If Christ speaks, Faith is the ear to hear Him.

If He is the Bread of Life, Faith feeds upon Him.

If He is the city of Refuge, Faith flies to Him.

If He is a gift, Faith is the hand to receive Him.

If He is a garment, Faith puts Him on. If he is a way, Faith walks in Him.

If He is the Truth, Faith is the knowledge of Him.

If He is the Life, Faith lives upon Him.

If He is a prophet, Faith sits at His feet, and learns.

If He is a priest, Faith relies on His sacrifice.

If He is our Lord, Faith submits to His authority.

In a word, it accepts the whole and every part of Christ, in His nature, offices, relations, and names. Wherever Christ is, there would Faith be; it follows Him as the needle would the loadstone.

Young Men's Meeting
