

Christmas Books

The Benefactress

By the Author of "Elizabeth and Her German Garden"

Cloth, $1.25

It is a little triumph in that peculiarly feminine way of Elizabeth's, which is a blending of humor, simplicity, shrewdness, warm-heartedness and philosophy.—New York Tribune.

Marietta : A Maid of Venice

By F. Marion Crawford

Author of "In the Palace of the King."

Cloth, $1.25

A charming story of Venice in the fifteenth century, written in the matchless Crawford style. The romantic episode is historically true.

The Road to Frontenac

By Samuel Merevin

Illustrated

Cloth, $1.25

It is a lively, realistic story of Canada during the French occupation. The studies of Indian character are good. There is an evening or two's thorough enjoyment in the tale.—Bookseller and Stationer.

The Cavalier

By George W. Cable

Illustrations by Howard Chandler Christy

Cloth, $1.25

We are most grateful for a romance which in interest and literary quality is one of the best things he has ever produced. A vivid picture of Confederate camp life.—New York Tribune.
