

FOREIGN INTELLIGENCE.

FRANCE.

A despatch from Versailles says the Prussians have agreed to stop the revictualing of Paris by way of St. Denis.

Bismarck, in a note to the Versailles Government, admits the right of Marshal MacMahon to occupy with fresh troops the ground around Paris made neutral by the stipulations of the preliminary treaty of peace.

NEW YORK, April 20.—A despatch dated Paris, Tuesday night, says in the affair at Asnieres yesterday the 22d battalion of National Guards retreated inside the Porte, crying "all is lost." The people charged the Nationals with cowardice, and a hot fight ensued between the civil and military adherents of the Commune.

An Englishman in a restaurant near the Invalides was grossly insulted for not bearing arms.

LONDON, April 20th.—A despatch to the Telegraph says the Arch of Triumph has been destroyed by the fire of the batteries of the Versailles army.

Reinforcements of twenty thousand men from the army of the Assembly under command of General Ducrot, are expected at Asnieres.

VERSAILLES, April 20th.—A circular issued by M. Thiers announcing the capture of Asnieres, asserts that it is the key to Courtevois, M. Thiers also says the insurgent's losses in the fight at Asnieres were very heavy.

The Times has a despatch from Paris, stating that it is reported in that city that Prussia will intervene in the affairs of France, in case the commune should be victorious over the Versailles government.

Cholera is expected to add shortly to the troubles of the wretched Parisians. Other epidemics of a kindred nature have already appeared.

The indemnity of 500,000,000 francs due from France to Germany on April the 1st, still remains unpaid.

General David, with a body of Garibaldians, has "purified the Pantheon," by driving out the priests, sawing off the arms of the cross over the front portico, and hoisting the red flag on the upright portion of the crown.

A special from Versailles on Tuesday afternoon says forty thousand Government troops are in the wood at St. Cloud, and ten thousand are quartered at Bougival. The Communists are firing on Puteaux, and doing great damage.

A bloody combat has been raging at Neuilly since morning. The Commandant of 261st battalion of Nationals was killed. The Commandant of artillery was denounced and arrested as a traitor.

THE ARREST OF THE PRIESTS IN PARIS.—The men who arrested the Archbishop of Paris threatened with pistols in their hands. During the night his residence was pillaged. The property contained in it, both private and public, church ornaments and plate were thrown into carts pel-mele.

VERSAILLES, April 20.—The Assembly rejected the motion to treat with the Paris insurgents.

President Thiers, in a circular to the Prefect of Departments, announcing the capture of Asnieres, declares that the end of criminal resistance to the Government is fast approaching.

PARIS, April 20.—The Commune have issued a manifesto, saying: Paris, once more laboring and suffering for the regeneration of France, demands local autonomy and encouragement of producers.

THE document pronounces a compromise with the Versailles government impossible, and closes with an appeal to France to disarm the troops now threatening the capital.

WE are compelled to believe what we see; yet we can scarcely conceive how the momentary paralysis of the constituted authority should have been sufficient so to undermine the basis of society so at once to turn the most polished community into an unredeemed Pandemonium. The evil hitherto done in Paris has been, indeed, neither immeasurable nor irreparable; that undefinable restraint which the moral sense even of the worst multitude exercises on individual crime has not yet given way; but the "evil quarter of an hour" is only too sure to come—the moment in which the last bond even of thieves' law is broken, and every wild beast with a human countenance is thrown upon its unbridled instincts.

THE 17 CONSTITUTIONS OF FRANCE.—Three removes they say (in private life) are as bad as a fire; what must 17 Revolutions in 82 years be for a country? What might France now be, if, during those years, she had enjoyed a stable Government instead of being distracted by the 17 great organic upheavals of her political fabric.

ITALY.—The Bavarian Minister at Florence has demanded of the Italian Government all the arrears of pay due to the Bavarian soldiers lately in the Pontifical employ.

UNEASINESS IN ITALY.—Our correspondent writes from Florence:—Most assuredly our rulers do not feel too much at their ease. We are told that they are in that unquiet state which usually precedes disease; they do not feel well, and not feeling well, do not know what is the matter with them. In short, they are possessed with a vague fear.

But, you will ask me, what are causes of the general discontent and apprehensions I have told you of? They are the recall of M. d'Armin, above all; the delay in the sending of an ambassador from France; the attitude of the belligerent Powers towards Italy, with regard to the preliminaries of peace; the woeful state of affairs in Spain—so much for external influences.

There is no reason whatever for discouragement, and if anyone doubts it let him read the following article on the "Crusade" from a Parisian correspondent of the Italia Nuova on the movement in France:—"I feel bound to give you a strange piece of news. Secret enrollments are making in Paris. The fact is certain, and till I knew it was so I hesitated to speak of it."

ROME.—In spite of all his troubles, the Pope is reported to be in very excellent health. The applications of Romans of all classes for admission to his audiences are exceedingly numerous. The Count de Roth-Schomberg, a Saxon nobleman has abjured Protestantism at Rome, and received First Communion at the hands of his Holiness.

MURRAY & LANMAN'S FLORIDA WATER.—The day has passed when ingenious advertising could force an inferior article into popularity. The coarse and pungent scents manufactured from cheap oils are now universally rejected, despite of printed inducements.

Beware of counterfeits; always ask for the legitimate Murray & Lanman's Florida Water, prepared only by Lanman & Kemp, New York.

Over-Exertion, either of body or mind produces debility and disease. The usual remedy is to take some stimulant, the effect of which is the same as giving a tired horse the whip instead of oats.

Terrible disfigurements arise from external diseases unless the disordered blood which causes them is purged of its poison by the use of Bristol's Sarsaparilla—the most potent of all detergents.

CLAYVILLE, Washington Co., Pa., } October 29, 1870.

Dr. J. Ball & Co., Gentlemen.—I have now thoroughly tested and proved the Patent Eye Cups.

I have in the last few days entirely cured several cases both of Acute and what is called Chronic Inflammation. These had tried every known and available species of treatment without the slightest benefit.

My mother, an old lady of 64 years, is an enthusiastic devotee of the Cups. Three months ago she could not read a letter or letters as large as her thumb, as she sometimes expresses herself.

The business is beginning to assume something like form and shape. Have inquiries from all directions, and often great distances, in regard to the nature of Cups and plan of treatment.

Yours respectfully, HORACE B. DURANT, M.D.

CLEAR CREEK, N.C., Oct. 21, 1870.

Dr. J. Ball & Co., Gentlemen.—I have been making experiments with the Patent Eye Cups I received, and found they are just what you represented them to be.

I am yours gratefully, REV. A. MARTELL.

HONESTY THE BEST POLICY. Daily Experience confirms the truth of the pithy OLD ADAGE, Honesty the Best Policy.

The golden rule claims for itself universal application; and scarcely does it know an exception. By far the best is an HONEST POLICY in all Business transactions. Could it be more infused into the COMMERCIAL ELEMENT of the present day, we might soon triumph over the absence of that TRICKERY AND DISSIMULATION which are so deplorably characteristic of this our progressive age, and which militate so much against our TRADING INTERESTS.

J. G. KENNEDY, 31 St. Lawrence Street, In all his transactions, takes this as his Motto, "HONESTY THE BEST POLICY," and from the great success resulting from his efforts to establish a Business on RIGHT PRINCIPLES, the most convincing proof is not wanting that a discerning Public is ever ready to recognize and support HONEST UPRIGHT POLICY, combined with Prices that will stand the test of the FIERCEST COMPETITION!

A Trial will Prove the Fact. JUST RECEIVED EX "PRUSSIAN" A splendid assortment of NEW GOODS, which will be made to measure at our usual LOW CHARGES. All desiring GOOD FITTING Clothing go to J. G. KENNEDY & CO., PRACTICAL TAILORS AND OUTFITTERS, 31 ST. LAWRENCE STREET.
