

TWO MONTHS TO LIVE.
THAT WAS WHAT A DOCTOR TOLD MR. DAVID MOORE.
 THE REMARKABLE EXPERIENCE OF ONE WHO WAS AN INVALID FOR YEARS—SIX DOCTORS TREATED HIM WITHOUT BENEFIT—HE OWES HIS RENEWED HEALTH TO FOLLOWING A FRIEND'S ADVICE.

From the Ottawa Journal.
 Mr. David Moore is a well known and much esteemed farmer living in the county of Carleton, some six miles from the village of Richmond. Mr. Moore has been an invalid for some years, and has been an invalid for some years, and his physicians failed to agree as to his ailment. Not only this but their treatment failed to restore him to health. Mr. Moore gives the following account of his illness and eventual restoration to health. He says:—

"My first sickness came on me when I was 63 years of age. Prior to that I had always been a strong healthy man. I had a bad cough and was growing weak and in bad health generally. I went to North Gower to consult a doctor, who, after examining me, said: 'Mr. Moore I am very sorry to tell you that your case is very serious, so much so that I doubt if you can live two months. He said my trouble was a combination of asthma and bronchitis, and he gave me some medicine and some leaves to smoke which he said might relieve me. I took neither because I felt sure I had neither trouble he said, and that he did not understand my case. Two days later I went to Ottawa and consulted one of the most prominent physicians there. He gave me a thorough examination and pronounced my ailment heart trouble, and said I was liable in my present condition to drop dead at any moment. I decided to remain in the city for some time and undergo his treatment. He wrote a few lines on a piece of paper giving my name and place of residence and trouble, to carry in my pocket in case I should die suddenly. I did not seem to be getting any better under the treatment and finally left the city determined to consult a doctor nearer home. I was again examined and the idea that I had heart disease was scouted, the doctor saying there was many a man following the plow whose heart was in a worse shape than mine. I remained under the treatment of this doctor for a long time, but got no better. Then my case was made worse by an attack of la grippe, which left behind it a terrible pain in my neck and shoulders. This became so severe that I could not raise my head from my pillow without putting my hand to it and lifting it up. I doctored on until I was trying my sixth doctor, and instead of getting better was getting worse. The last doctor I had advised me to wait until the heat of summer was over when he would blister me for the pains in my neck and shoulders, which he felt sure would relieve it. I was on my way to Richmond to undergo this blistering when I met Mr. Geo. Angue, of North Gower, who told me of the wonderful cure Dr. Williams' Pink Pills had wrought in him, and advised me strongly to try them. I went on to Richmond, but instead of going to the doctor's I bought some Pink Pills and returned home and began using them. Before I had finished my second box there was no room to doubt that they were helping me. I kept on taking the Pink Pills, and my malady, which the doctors had failed to successfully diagnose, was rapidly leaving me. The pain also left my neck and shoulders, and after a couple of months treatment I became strong and healthy. I am now in my 77th year and thank God that I am able to go about with a feeling of good health. I still continue taking the pills occasionally, feeling sure that for a person of my age they are an excellent tonic. After the failure of so much medical treatment I feel sure that nothing else than Pink Pills could have restored me to my present condition."

Dr. Williams' Pink Pills create new blood, build up the nerves, and thus drive disease from the system. In hundreds of cases they have cured after all other medicines have failed, thus establishing the claim that they are a marvel among the triumphs of modern medical science. The genuine Pink Pills are sold only in boxes, bearing the full trade mark, "Dr. Williams' Pink Pills for Pale People." Protect yourself from imposition by refusing any pill that does not bear the registered trade mark around the box.

A Comical Scene.
 I was married in India, writes Phil Robinson, the author and traveller. I engaged for our honeymoon a little house—sixteen miles or so from any other habitation of white man—that stood on the steep white cliff of the Ne-budda river, which here flows through a canyon of pure white marble. Close beside our house was a little hut, where a holy man lived in charge of an adjoining shrine, earning money for himself and for the shrine by polishing little pieces of marble as mementoes for visitors. It was a wonderful place altogether, and while my wife went in to change her dress, the servants laid breakfast on the veranda overlooking the river. At the first clatter of the plates there began to come down from the big tree that overshadowed the house, and up the trees that grew in the ravine behind it, from the house roof itself, from everywhere, a multitude of solemn monkeys. They came up singly and in couples and in families, and took their places without noise or fuss on the veranda, and sat there, like an audience waiting for an entertainment to commence. And when everything was ready, the breakfast all laid, the monkeys all seated—I went in to call my wife.
 "Breakfast is ready and they are all waiting," I said.
 "Who are waiting?" she asked in dismay. "I thought we were going to be alone, and I was just coming out in my dressing gown."
 "Never mind," I said, "the people about here are not very fashionably dressed themselves. They wear pretty much the same things all the year round."
 And so my wife came out. Imagine, then, her astonishment. In the middle of the veranda stood her breakfast table, and all the rest of the space, as well as the railings and the steps, was covered with monkeys, as grave as possible and as motionless and silent as if they were stuffed. Only their eyes kept blinking and their little round ears kept twitching. Laughing heartily—at which the monkeys only looked all the graver—my wife sat down.

 "Will they eat anything?" asked she.
 "Try them," I said.
 So she picked up a biscuit and threw it among the company. And the result! About three hundred monkeys jumped up in the air like one, and just for one instant there was a riot that defies description. The next instant every monkey was sitting in its place as solemn and serious as if it had never moved. Only their eyes winked and their ears twitched.
 My wife threw them another biscuit, and again the riot, and then another and another and another. But at length we had given all that we had to give and got up to go. The monkeys at once one, every monkey on the veranda, and advancing gravely to the steps, walked down them in a solemn procession, old and young together, and dispersed for the day's occupations.

Hood's Sarsaparilla is known to be an honest medicine, and it actually cures when all others fail. Take it now.
NO QUARANTINE.
 DETROIT, Mich., February 18.—The recent raising of the quarantine on cattle exported from Canada to this country, and vice versa, has already had an appreciable effect upon the international trade between Canada and the United States. Several large consignments of cattle and sheep have recently passed through the local customs office and the exportation of similar stock to Canada is also increasing.
 Deputy Collector Smith, of the Detroit Customs office, says that the reciprocal business in both live stock and meats between the United States and Canada promises to greatly increase because of the raising of the quarantine.

What is the article that removes dandruff, keeps the scalp cool, clean, and pure, changes grey hair to its original color and gives all kinds of hair a charming gloss and brightness? Luby's Parisian Hair Renewer it is now confessed is the great remedy. Try it and prove it. Sold by all chemists at 5¢ per bottle.
 Clear Enough.—Which side of the street do you live on, Mrs. Murphy? asked a counsel, cross-examining a witness. "On either side, sir. If you go one way it's on the right side, and if you go the other it's on the left."

Scene. Band Promenade.—Mother (to invalid daughter): Which part of the musical programme did you like the best, dear? Daughter: The change of air.
 Married Man: Why don't you get married, Miss Perkins; you're getting to look like a back number. You will soon be an old maid.
 Miss Perkins: If I was as easy to please as your wife was, I should have been married long ago.
