

FOREIGN INTELLIGENCE.

FRANCE.

PARIS, Oct. 13.—It may not be forgotten that some time back the Constitutionnel surprised and amused the public by an article on what it called the 'Suppression of the Irish People,' purporting to prove that the British Government acted now and then in a most despotic manner towards the press, and that French journals really possessed a freedom which would lose nothing, by comparison with that of their contemporaries in the United Kingdom...

PARIS, FRIDAY, Oct. 20.—The intelligence of the death of Lord Palmerston has been received in Paris with, I may venture to say, sincere and general regret. Some of the evening papers allude to it. La France speaks of him as 'one of the greatest personages of our epoch who has disappeared from the political stage.'

The manifestations in honour of General Lamoriciere are not yet over. Besides the commemorative service in the Cathedral of Nantes on Tuesday, like that which took place some days back in Paris in the Church of St. Thomas d'Aquin, a few days back his funeral oration was pronounced by no less a personage than M. de Falloux, Bishop of Orleans, whom his admirers are wont to call 'the Bessuet of the 19th century.'

PARIS, Oct. 21.—The Gazette de France of this evening says:—We learn that the Pope has resolved to establish in England a second Archbishopric, of which the see will be either at Liverpool or Birmingham.

PARIS, Oct. 21.—The medical papers state that the epidemic remains stationary. The Emperor, wishing to satisfy himself of the care which is taken of cholera patients in the hospitals, privately visited the Hotel Dieu yesterday. The visit lasted one hour, and on leaving the hospital His Majesty was loudly cheered.

Catherine de Medici was picked up beneath the Pont Neuf, and near the Ile de la Cite was found a large hatched of black polished stone of a singular make. The most curious discovery was, however, a small copper case containing a portrait of Mlle. de la Valiere, painted in oil on metal.

The Moniteur du Soir mentions the death at Orthez, near Tarbes, of an old artillery soldier named Pierre Gaubert, at the age of 113. He was in most of the battles of the republic and the empire, and fired his last cannon shot at the battle of Toulouse.

A universal sentiment regarding the progress of Catholicity in America as developed by the war, is expressed by those who are crowding over here at the present moment. It is made a matter of question amongst certain French writers; but it is not qualified in the attestations of those who have personally witnessed it. The Count de Montalembert, in his famous letter congratulating the adherents to the North on the result of the earlier history of the Church, His words are 'C'est un progres comme on n'en a vu nulle part ailleurs, depuis les premiers siecles de l'Eglise.'

ITALY. PIEMONTE.—Florence, Oct. 25.—The results of 65 elections to the Chamber of Deputies are now known. Upwards of 50 of them are favourable to the Government.

Garibaldi has declined the nomination to the Italian Parliament offered to him by Turin, and has recommended Signor Bottero to the electors. The Nazione of Florence has been presenting its readers with another wonderful correspondence from Rome dated on the 3rd inst. Should your British journals repeat it, as I suspect they will eagerly do, you may inform them that besides being incredible, the particulars it gives have also the advantage of being impossible.

According to the New Free Press of Vienna, M. von Hubner will immediately return to his post at Rome, taking with him a memorandum relating to a revision of the Concordat. This memorandum was drawn up two years ago by order of M. von Schmerling.

ROME, Oct. 18.—It is asserted that Monsignor de Merode has not tendered his resignation, but that the Pope has granted him leave of absence for three months.

RUSSIA. PROPOSED EXTERMINATION OF POLISH NOBLES AND CATHOLICS.—The Invalide Russe, the semi-official authority of which is well known, has just published an article which could not pass without producing a certain sensation. The article simply asks for the extermination of the Polish nobility, and of Latin fanaticism, otherwise called Catholicism.

ENGLAND.—England began the present century with four acres of land for every person within her borders. When the century was half through, there were but two acres per inhabitant; and now we are upon a descending scale of fractions between two acres and one acre to each person.

THE HOLY CITY is certainly a place where strange sights are to be seen. A few days ago I happened to be wandering over the Church of Santa Marie Magiore, when my companion drew my attention to a gentleman who was hearing Mass most devoutly at one of the side altars.

My friend says fit to criticise my Show, speak your mind freely. I do not object to criticism. Tell the public in a candid and graceful article, that my Show abounds in moral and startling curiosities, any one of whom is worth double the price of admission.

I have thus far spoke of myself exclusively as an exhibitor. I was born in the State of Maine of parents. An infant I attracted a great deal of attention. The nannies would stand over my cradle for hours and say, 'How bright that little face looks! How much it nose!' The young ladies would carry me round in their arms saying I was muzzie's buzzy darlin' and a sweet 'eety little ting. It was nice, tho' I wasn't old enuff to properly appreciate it. I'm a healthy old darlin now.

I have allers sustained a moral character. I was never a railroad conductor in my life. Altho' in early life I did not invariably confine myself to truth in my small bills, I have bin gradually growin' respectabler and respectabler every year. I luv my children, and never mistake another man's wife for my own. I'm not a member of any meetin'-house, but I beleave in meeting-houses, and shouldn't feel safe to take a dose of laudanum and lay down in the streets of a village that hadn't any, with a $1,000 bill in my vest pocket.

My temperment is bilious, altho' I don't own a dollar in the world. I am an early riser, my wife is a Presbyterian — I may add I'm also bald-headed. I keep two cows. I live in Baldenville, Indiana. My next door nabor is old Steve Billins. I'll tell you a little story about Old Steve that will make you laif. He jined the Church last Spring, and the minister said, 'You must go home now Brother Billins, and erect a family altar in your house,' whereupon the eggegrijis old nabor went home and built a reg'lar Pulpit in his sittin' room. He had jiners in his house four days.

I am (56) years of age. Time with his relentless scythe, is ever busy. The Old Sixx'n gathers them in, he gathers them in. I keep a pig this year. I don't think of more, Mr. Editor. If you should give my portrait in connection with my Bogry, please have me engraved in a languishin' attitude, leavin' on a marble pillar, leavin my back hair as it is now.

Truely yours, ARTEMUS WARD.

THE CURED TO THE SUFFERING, LIVER COMPLAINT.—Some most remarkable facts in relation to the unparalleled efficacy of BRISTOL'S SUGAR COATED PILLS in Liver complaints have recently come to light. Adoniram Sedgwick, Esq., of Hartford, announces that they cured him of congestion of the liver (preventing jaundice) in three days. Richard M. Phelps, the well-known machinist of Pittsburgh, Ohio, writes: 'The physicians considered me a hopeless case when I commenced taking Bristol's invaluable Antibilious and Alterative Pills. They called my complaint degeneration of the liver, and I suffered great pain in the right side, which was swelled, accompanied with severe constipation and utter loss of appetite. A course of the pills has made me a well man, and I recommend them to all who suffer from similar complaints.' Miss Sarah Deming, of Jersey City, concludes a letter to Dr. Bristol thus: 'To your medicine (BRISTOL'S SUGAR COATED PILLS) alone, I owe the re-establishment of my health, after having suffered most severely from bilious remittent fever for more than three months.' These authentic statements the sick should consider as addressed directly to themselves, and act accordingly.

They are put up in glass vials, and will keep in any climate. In all cases arising from, or aggravated by impure blood, BRISTOL'S SARSAPARILLA should be used in connection with the Pills.

REMARKABLE STATEMENT OF AN AGENT OF THE GRAND TRUNK RAILROAD CANADA.

Read the following letter, received by Mr. James Hawkes, Druggist, Brockville: BROCKVILLE, LYN. C. W., June 13, 1864. James Hawkes, Esq., Brockville: Dear Sir—Allow me to make a statement in favor of BRISTOL'S SARSAPARILLA, which ought to be known by everybody far and wide.

In March, 1860, a Tumor appeared on the left side of my head, which had grown so large by December of that year that it affected my eating very much, and the Doctors thought it best to have it removed, which was done at that time. It partially healed up, and the rest remained a running sore for three years and a half. I had tried several Physicians, who all came to the conclusion that it could not be healed, and I was told to square up my books for the last time. After using several kinds of SARSAPARILLAS, I was induced to try BRISTOL'S, from your establishment. Before I had used five bottles, I felt it was doing me good, and, as you know, I have continued to use it for the past fourteen months, and the result, after using between thirty-five and forty bottles, (which has brought away several pieces of the skull-bone, one of them measuring two, by one and three-eighths inches,) I am a well man.

Yours truly, GRO. WEBSTER, Agent, G. T. R. Co. Agents for Montreal, Devins & Bolton, Lamplough & Campbell, Davidson & Co., K. Campbell & Co., J. Gardner, J. A. Harte, Picault & Son, J. Goulden, R. S. Latham and all Dealers in Medicine.

MURRAY & LANMAN'S FLORIDA WATER.—It is a pleasant thing to afford a new and refined enjoyment to the gentler sex. Lanman & Kemp have certainly accomplished that object in introducing Murray & Lanman's Florida Water, (for twenty years a favorite toilet article throughout Spanish America), to the notice of the ladies of this country. Not so the ladies alone indulged to that enterprising firm; for if the article imparts to the embroidered mouchoir an exhilarating and refreshing fragrance, and to the complexion a softer bloom, it is equally efficacious in taking the sting out of the operation of shaving and relieving the breath from the fumes of tobacco. For all these purposes, however, it is necessary to have Murray & Lanman's Florida Water, and none other.
