the murderous weapons of modern war-

The initiation of a Court of Arbitration Affecting Armaments would probably prove a step in the direction of a higher and greater representative court which in the exercise of its power for peace and amity among the peoples, would not only bring men nearer a golden age by ending war, but help the world nearer the court of the One Eternal King.

FIFTH CONVOCATION OF WESTMINSTER HALL

In every way the best yet! That must have been the general conclusion When those concerned noted the interest shown in the function by the large attendance in Chalmers' Church, no less than in reviewing the scholarship, standing, and attainments of the students of the session generally and of the graduating class of 1912 particu-

The presentations for the scholarships were made in due form by Messrs. Burch, Beveridge, Logan, Henry, Drs. Wright and Taylor respectively.

The scholarship winners were:

(Third Year)—1, The James Sinclair MacDougal, $100, Mr. J. T. McNeill, M. A.; 2, The John F. Langan, $50, Mr. R. C. Eakin, B.A.; (Second Year) 1, The Price Ellison, $100; 2, The Lo-San, $50, divided between Mr. A. M. O'Donnell, B. A. and Mr. Alver Mackay; (First Year)—1, the David Morrice, $100, Mr. William Scott, B.A.; 2, The Logan, $50, Mr. F. S. MacKenzia

The Valedictory address was delivered by Mr. John T. McNeill, M.A.

The address to the graduating class Was delivered by Rev. J. W. Woodside, M.A., and after the "Statement by the Principal", the oratorical part of the programme was closed by a speech in every way happy and brimful indeed of good humor and appropriate references, by Rev. Dr. Bryce of Manitoba College, Winnipeg.

Mr. Woodside's address was memorable for its reference to the subject of "the practice of the presence of God" and particularly to the little book bearing that name by "Brother Lawrence."

Statement by Principal MacKay

"The older any institution gets, the less interesting it becomes to a large section of the community," remarked Principal Mackay, after he had thanked the friends who had supported the College. "Yet if the College is to be what it ought to be, the interest must increase, not decrease. Our expenditure has been largely increased, and we have not vet been able to increase our income to a corresponding degree. Because of the financial scheme launched by the Church, there was some difficulty in adjusting conditions."

Continuing, he said: "We want to thank those who have manifested their interest in the College by coming to us from other institutions of learning, and taking part in the work of the session. We are peculiarly fortunate in having our session in the summer months so that we can avail ourselves of the best teaching talent that can be got in the world. This year we have had four regular professors taking part
