

interim actions to deal with the problem pending conclusion of an agreement. These include rigorous application of existing regulations, advance notification and consultation, and cooperation in research. Five Canada/U.S. Work Groups are preparing the technical groundwork for an agreement.