

5. If circumstances beyond its control prevent a Contracting State from surrendering or removing the person to be extradited it shall notify the other Contracting State. The Contracting States shall decide upon a new date of surrender and the provisions of paragraph 4 of this Article shall apply.

ARTICLE 13

Postponed or Temporary Surrender

1. When the person sought is being proceeded against or is serving a sentence in the Requested State for an offence other than that for which extradition is requested, the Requested State may surrender the person sought or postpone surrender until the conclusion of the proceedings or the service of the whole or any part of the sentence imposed. The Requested State shall inform the Requesting State of any postponement.
2. To the extent permitted by its law, where a person has been found extraditable the Requested State may temporarily surrender the person sought for the purposes of prosecution to the Requesting State in accordance with conditions to be determined between the Contracting States. A person who is returned to the Requested State following a temporary surrender may be finally surrendered to serve any sentence imposed, in accordance with the provisions of this Treaty.
