Dear Gen Currie / You must please forgive my not writing before to tell you that I got the job of Inspector of Indian Agencies, and to sincerely thank you for your kind assistance in this matter. I am sure your letter must have had a lot of influence with the members of the Civil Service Commission, and you can be sure I shall not forget your generous help.

Since my appointment at the end of June I have hardly had a moment to spare, and have been travelling practically all the time.
When I tell you that my territory embraces the whole of the interior of B.C. from the coast range west, and from the boundary to the Yukon you can guess that it takes
