

- Washington, George, arrival of re-enforcements, iii. 61.
 advising the sinking of the American vessels, iii. 61.
 reconnoitres Philadelphia, iii. 62.
 opportunity for a brilliant blow, iii. 63.
 council of war, iii. 63.
 on the promotion of Lafayette, iii. 65.
 camp menaced by Howe, iii. 66.
 skirmishes, iii. 67.
 encourages his troops, iii. 67.
 the enemy retire, iii. 67.
 to Congress on threatened attack, iii. 68.
 approach of winter, iii. 68.
 winter-quarters, iii. 68.
 arrival at Valley Forge, iii. 69.
 destitution of troops, iii. 70.
 in vindication, iii. 71.
 exercises his authority, iii. 73.
 to Congress on the consequences, iii. 73.
 retrospect of 1777, iii. 73.
 to Gates on the Conway letter, iii. 77.
 to Laurens on the conduct of his enemies, iii. 79.
 correspondence with Gates, iii. 80.
 scarce 'ing reply to Gates's explanation, iii. 84.
 closing note to Gates, iii. 86.
 forged letters, iii. 86.
 to General Henry Lee on the forged letters, iii. 86.
 to Landon Carter on the same, iii. 87.
 introduction to forged letters (note), iii. 87.
 Canada expedition, iii. 87.
 to Lafayette, consoling, iii. 89.
 to Patrick Henry on the cabal, iii. 94.
 party opposed to Washington (note), iii. 95.
 reforms in the army, iii. 96.
 destitution in camp, iii. 97.
 situation described, iii. 97.
 to Captain Lee on his exploit, iii. 98.
 recommends Captain Lee for promotion, iii. 99.
 to General Lee on his exchange, iii. 99. arrival of Mrs. Washington, iii. 100. better times, iii. 100.
 arrival of Bryan Fairfax, iii. 100.
 to Bryan Fairfax on their friendship, iii. 101.
 arrival of Baron Steuben, iii. 101.
 promotion of Greene, iii. 105.
 project to capture Sir Henry Clinton, iii. 106.
 circular on plan of next campaign, iii. 107.
 to Congress on forming a system, iii. 108.
 downfall of Conway, iii. 109.
 sends Lord North's bills to Congress, iii. 110.
 to Governor Tryon enclosing resolutions of Congress, iii. 111.
 rejoicings at Valley Forge, iii. 112. council of war determines on defensive measures, iii. 112.
 American force, iii. 114.
 solicitude for Lafayette, iii. 116.
 to Congress on Ethan Allen, iii. 117.
 prepares to decamp, iii. 117.
- Washington, George, sends Sir Henry Clinton's letter to Congress, iii. 119.
 amount of force under, iii. 122.
 to Lee, admonitory, iii. 122.
 council of war, iii. 122.
 Philadelphia evacuated, iii. 123.
 pursues the enemy, iii. 123.
 crosses the Delaware at Coryell's Ferry, iii. 124.
 council opposed to a general action, iii. 124.
 determines to attack the army, iii. 125.
 perplexed to satisfy Lee, iii. 126.
 resolves upon an attack, iii. 127.
 orders Lee to watch the enemy, iii. 127.
 orders Lee to attack, iii. 127.
 sets forward to the attack, iii. 128.
 retreat of American troops, iii. 128.
 meets Colonel Shreve and Major Howard retreating, iii. 128.
 angry meeting with Lee, iii. 129.
 checks the retreat, iii. 129.
 dispositions for battle, iii. 130.
 battle of Monmouth Court House, iii. 130.
 retreat of the enemy, iii. 130.
 march to Brunswick, iii. 133.
 halts at Paramus, iii. 134.
 correspondence with General Lee, iii. 134.
 puts Lee under arrest, iii. 136.
 conduct in relation to Lee, iii. 136.
 on Lee's abuse, iii. 138.
 magnanimity in regard to Lee, iii. 140.
 arrival of French fleet, iii. 141.
 correspondence with Count D'E'taing, iii. 142.
 plan of operations, iii. 142.
 encamps at White Plains, iii. 142.
 orders Sullivan to prepare for a descent upon Rhode Island, iii. 143.
 to John Augustine on the failure of the expedition against Rhode Island, iii. 151.
 anxiety as to its effects, iii. 151.
 to D'E'taing on his failure, iii. 152.
 watching enemy's movements, iii. 155.
 strengthens the Highlands, iii. 156.
 moves his camp to Fredericksburg, iii. 156.
 moves to Fishkill, iii. 156.
 distribution of troops, iii. 162.
 headquarters near Middlebrook, iii. 162.
 plan of alarm signals, iii. 162.
 opposes Lafayette's Canada scheme, iii. 163.
 in Philadelphia, iii. 164.
 on the deterioration of Congress, iii. 165.
 to Colonel Harrison on the decline of public spirit, iii. 165.
 disgust at the neglect of Congress, iii. 166.
 policy of the next campaign, iii. 166.
 retaliation on the Indians, iii. 166.
 discontent of Jersey troops, iii. 167.
 acts as a mediator, iii. 167.
 address to the officers, iii. 168.
 reply of the officers, iii. 168.
 to General Maxwell on the determination of his officers, iii. 169.
 apprehends an expedition against the Highlands, iii. 171.
 measures for the protection of West Point, iii. 172.