

our daily bread, and that being fully persuaded that whatever blessing we receive at Thy hands is designed for our trial as well as for our comfort, we may impart a share of Thy bounty, in dutiful accordance with Thy holy will, to the afflicted and indigent, the widow, the orphan, and the aged, and thus obtain for ourselves that mercy which Thou in Thy word hast promised to the merciful; through our Lord and Saviour Jesus Christ. Amen.

¶ Then shall follow the Collect for Quinquagesima Sunday, and the Second and Third Collects at Morning Prayer, and the Litany.

¶ After the Collect We humbly beseech Thee, O Father, &c., shall be said the Prayer of Thanksgiving for Plenty, and so to the end of Morning Prayer as usual.
