

LETTER ON PRISON DISCIPLINE—Continued.	Page.
Christianity the great power in reforming criminals	391
Central board needed to secure good officers.....	391
The principle of reward should be extended	391
Influence of the contract system deleterious.....	391
Revision of penal code necessary.....	392
Life sentences should be abolished, so that all may feel the inspiring influence of hope	392
III. THREE LETTERS FROM MRS. SARAH PETER ON THE FEMALE CITY PRISON OF CINCINNATI.....	393-398
Idea on which it is founded borrowed from foreign lands.....	393
Labors of the Sisters of the Good Shepherd among female convicts.....	393
Services of these sisters much employed and very successful in this department.....	393
Always observant of the laws and usages of the locality.....	393
No change made, in this respect, in Cincinnati	394
The most stubborn yield to their firm but gentle rule.....	394
Their only punishment solitary confinement in a small but comfortable room..	394
Trades introduced into female prisons in Europe under the sisterhood.....	394
Efforts of Mrs. Peter to have this system introduced into city prison of Cincinnati.....	394
Discouragements and ultimate success.....	395
Change wrought in three years.....	395
Stipend of the sisters $100 each a year.....	395
Prison open to religious instruction of all denominations..	396
The religious principle lies at the bottom of the whole work	396
The system tested by its fruits.....	396
A wise and efficient administration all-important.....	397
The confidence of prisoners must be won	398
Rewards attendant on good behavior	398
Purified affections the great source of power over criminals.....	398
IV. JUVENILE REFORMATORIES.....	399-457
Names of gentlemen responding to our interrogatories, and of the institutions for which they respond.....	399
Dates at which the several institutions were established.....	399
By what authority and with what funds founded	400
Whence the funds for their support obtained	400
Extent of grounds belonging to them	401
Their buildings, arrangements and uses	402
Number of inmates which each can accommodate	406
Total cost of each.....	407
Government of the several institutions.....	408
Powers and duties of the governing board	409
Officers composing the staff of each	410
Whether both sexes are received.....	411
Between what ages children are admissible	411
For what causes committed.....	412
By what authority committed.....	412
Whether committed for specified time, or indefinitely.....	413
When the right of guardianship expires.....	414
Governing board clothed with the right to discharge.....	414
Modes of release.....	414
Whether the institution is to be regarded as a prison or a school.....	415
Character of the discipline.....	415
Rules and regulations.....	416
Proceedings of a day.....	416
Proceedings of a Sabbath.....	421