

64 Pages, Crown 8vo, Paper Cover, Price 6d.

Day Preaching in Ireland, and the New Gospel.

A TRACT FOR THE TIMES. THIRD THOUSAND. 1865.

"We have read this very able and seasonable tract with great satisfaction. It is a thorough exposure and complete refutation of those subtle doctrinal errors, which, under the designation of the Plymouth Faith, were well known amongst us some years ago; and which have recently, in the sister island, been revived and propagated by certain erratic and enthusiastic evangelists. We are not surprised that errors, so flattering to human pride, and so adverse to practical godliness, should have numerous abettors; but, if we have not utterly misunderstood and misinterpreted the New Testament, this new Gospel is 'another gospel.' Mr Crook has done good service to the interests of Christianity by his calm, vigorous, and triumphant defence of the old Gospel."—Wesleyan Methodist Magazine.

"This 'Tract for the Times' is from the pen of the able and vigorous Editor of the IRISH EVANGELIST. Mr Crook is an acute controversialist, and dialectician. He exposes the theological contradictions and inconsistencies, and the practical mischiefs of Plymouth-Brethrenism, with unsparing severity and withering sarcasm. With the skill of a practised logician, he places his finger at once upon a fallacy, however subtle its disguise. The style is caustic and incisive, cutting to the very quick. Wherever the insidious mischief of Plymouthism is felt, whether in England or Ireland, we commend this seasonable and powerful pamphlet as an effectual antidote."—Methodist Recorder.

"It has told upon the New Gospel in this neighbourhood like a shot from a mortar."—V. W., Esq.

"I have long wished that some public notice would be taken of the rank antinomianism which has become so popular in our day, and am right glad to see this powerful pamphlet."—Rev. John Nelson.

"I greatly like the spirit, point, plan, distinctive character, and conclusiveness of this Tract."—Rev. Daniel Macafee.

"A well timed, and an exceedingly able pamphlet. It is quite an exposé of the principles of the advocates of the New Gospel, and one which no sophistry will enable them to answer."—Rev. Wallace M'Mullen.

"Admirable alike for its strength of thought, force of logic, simplicity and pungency of style, and Christian temper."—Rev. David Hay, Manchester.