

Guard lock at end of canal not essential, 235

In proceeding with the work, company was acting in contravention of section 11 of P.C. 422, 236

Always thought that whole flow of St. Lawrence was hoped for, 238, 265

Believes whole flow could be accommodated and navigation carried on properly, 238

Approves of scheme as part of navigation in St. Lawrence, 238

Wharf sites, 239

Width of canal, 242, 265

Approves moving canal entrance 3,000 feet north, and considers new entrance safe, 248

Report, 13th November, 1930, to Deputy Minister, 259

Beauharnois engineers, from time to time, suggest amendments to plans, 267

North shore and south shore proposed routes compared, 295

Examples of diversion of navigable waters, 299, 1010

Beauharnois company has not complied, as requested, with departmental regulations, 1018

CANTIN, JEAN M., MONTREAL, QUE.

Respecting services rendered to him by Mr. Lacroix, Barrister, Quebec, 118

CANTIN, NARCISSE M., MONTREAL, QUE.

Never asked Mr. Sweezy for a personal loan, 761

Mr. Sweezy was once employed with Transportation and Power Company, 761

Took option to buy out Robert heirs as result of receiving letter, September 2, 1913, from Mr. Sweezy, 765

Confederation Canal and Power Company plans were filed with Department of Public Works and Department of Railways and Canals prior to application of Sterling Industrial Corporation, 767

Receipt of Confederation Canal and Power Company plans not acknowledged yet by Department of Railways and Canals, 767

COTE, LOUIS, CHIEF ENGINEER, DEPARTMENT OF MARINE, OTTAWA, ONT.

Report of committee of engineers, 310

COUTLEE, C. R., ENGINEER, DEPARTMENT OF PUBLIC WORKS, OTTAWA, ONT.

Current at entrance to canal, 325

Ice conditions, 328

D

DODD, ROBERT, ROBERT DODD AND COMPANY, INVESTMENT BROKERS, ROYAL BANK BUILDING, MONTREAL, QUE.

Statements contained in prospectus were supplied by Mr. Sweezy, 799

Land adjacent to canal location should become valuable, 802

Earning power on common stock should be over $4, 802

Sixty dollars a conservative value to put on shares of common stock, 802

Common stock might be worth $200 ten years hence, 804

DROUIN, JOSEPH A., RECORDS OFFICE, DEPARTMENT OF PUBLIC WORKS, OTTAWA, ONT.

Produced Department of Public Works File No. 804, together with 12 plans, all respecting Beauharnois Light, Heat and Power Company, 55

DUBUC, ARTHUR E., CHIEF ENGINEER, DEPARTMENT OF RAILWAYS AND CANALS, OTTAWA, ONT.

Did not know anything about P.C. 422 until this inquiry commenced, 708

Company will pay rental to Dominion Government and to Government of Province of Quebec for water power, 710

Does not know if Mr. Henry, as Deputy Minister, was consulted about application of Beauharnois Light, Heat and Power Co., 711

Does not recollect discussing Beauharnois application with Mr. Henry, 712

Has known of Orders in Council being put through without Deputy Minister being consulted, 712

E

EBBS, JOHN P., HAYDON AND EBBS, BARRISTERS, OTTAWA, ONT.

Beauharnois Power Syndicate units purchased for and delivered to Senator McDougald, 715

Expense accounts and legal fees, 716, 727

Sterling Industrial Corporation, Limited, incorporation, 718

Senator McDougald paid for Sterling application, 718