

- appointments, 1, 217; The Strathgogie case, 1, 217; "The Claim of Right," 1, 217; "The Great Disruption of 1843," 1, 218; "The Secession Church," 1, 218; The Free Church born, 1, 219; Missionary revival, 1, 221; The United Presbyterian Church, 1, 226; Presbyterianism in England, 1, 226; Presbyterianism in Ireland, 1, 227; Presbyterianism in the United States, 1, 228; Presbyterianism in Canada, 1, 229; Pan-Presbyterian Synods, 1, 230.
- Church, The Roman Catholic, Largest of the three great divisions of Christendom, 1, 289; Civil and religious disabilities in the United Kingdom, 1, 289; Strenuous organized effort for Catholic emancipation begun in Ireland 1, 289; Daniel O'Connell elected to British House of Commons, 1, 289; The Catholic Emancipation Bill of 1829, 1, 290; The Sovereign Pontiffs of the Century, 1, 290; Pius VI, a prisoner of Napoleon, dies at Dijon, 1, 291; Rome a Republic, 1, 291; Pius VII, 1, 291; Napoleon seizes estates of the Church, in 1809, 1, 291; The Pontiff restored in 1813, 1, 291; Leo XII. promotes education, 1, 291; Brigandage and pauperism suppressed, 1, 292; Pius VIII. a pontiff for only 20 months, 1, 292; Gregory XVI. and Catholic disabilities in Prussia and Russia, 1, 292; The long pontificate of Pius IX., 1, 292; The revolutions of 1848, Mazzini and Garibaldi, 1, 293; The pontiff at Gaeta, 1, 293; Rome restored to Pius IX. by French army in 1850, 1, 293; Ecumenical Council in 1854, 1, 294; Integration of Italy, 1, 294; Rome the capital, 1, 294; Leo XIII. and his policy of conciliation, 1, 295; Sympathy with the working classes, 1, 296; Roman Catholic Church in the United States, 1, 296; Growth by Louisiana, Florida and Mexican cessions, 1, 297; Growth by immigration, 1, 297.
- Churches, Unitarian and Universalist, One of the first established in Great Britain in 1774, 1, 275; Dr. Priestley, an advanced liberal in politics and religion, 1, 275; Persecuted in England, he seeks liberty in America, 1, 275; Confirmed in possession of Dissenting Chapels in 1844, 1, 276; Rev. Dr. James Martineau, a leading exponent, 1, 276; Dr. Channing in 1819 gives the Unitarian Declaration of Independence, 1, 277; Origin of the Universalist denomination, 1, 277; Rev. Hosea Ballou, 1, 277.
- Cialdini, General, Capture of Palestro, xvii, 301; Watching passes of the Alps, xvii, 316; At Bologna, xvii, 380; Near Mirandola and Modena, xvii, 392; succeeds La Marmora, crosses Lower Po and occupies Udine, xvii, 393.
- City Missions, Formed by almost all religious denominations in all the large cities, 1, 416; Rev. Dr. Chalmers, a pioneer in the movement, 1, 417; About his work, 1, 417; Lord Shaftesbury devotes life to works of manifold philanthropy, 1, 420; Beneficent social and religious reforms he instituted, 1, 421; John Wanamaker and his enterprises in the United States, 1, 422; The Fred Victor Mission in Toronto, 1, 424; The Mission established in New York by Jerry McAuley, 1, 425; College and other Settlements among the poor, 1, 431; Other Missions, 1, 432.
- Clapperton, Lieut., Sent out in 1822 to explore course of the Niger, xiv, 251; Makes second journey in Africa, xiv, 254; His death, xiv, 255.
- Clarendon, One of the Ministers of Charles II., vii, 130; Suggests interdiction of coffee-houses, vii, 137; Understands that attempt to gag printed expression of public opinion must fail, vii, 138; History of the Rebellion of, vii, 173-174.
- Clarke, Major-General Alured, In 1795 is sent from England in command of a body of troops to seize the Cape Colony, x, 69; On the 4th of September of that year arrives in Simon's Bay, x, 71; On the 16th of September receives possession of the colony by capitulation, x, 71.
- Classicism, The Renaissance and the birth of Classicism, ii, 435; Confers valuable characteristics on European literature, ii, 7; Becomes narrow in its significance, ii, 8; Jean Jacques Rousseau rebels against it, ii, 8; Replaced by Romanticism, ii, 9; Classic spirit in literature runs its course in England, ii, 17.
- Clausel, Marshal, Succeeds Marmont and Böhnet at Salamanca, xvii, 192; Pursued by Wellington to Burgos, xvii, 194; Against guerilla hands in North Spain, xvii, 195; Wanted by King Joseph, xvii, 196; Arrives at Victoria, xvii, 197; Retreats into Catalonia, xvii, 197.
- Clay, Henry, Speaker of the Twelfth Congress in the United States, xx, 141; Secures Missouri Compromise, xx, 203, 204; v, 102; In Adam's cabinet, xx, 238-240; v, 115-119; Candidate for the presidency in 1824, v, 108-9, 116, 117; His description of office-