

Provincial Parliament Buildings

Are among the finest public buildings in Canada. Within these buildings are the Legislative Halls and State Departments of the Province of Quebec. The walls are native stone. The building is a perfect square, 300 feet on each side. The interior finish is very elaborate. The buildings were completed in 1887.