GEO. OTTY,
Clerk of Peace.

KING'S COUNTY GENERAL SESSIONS,
FEBRUARY TERM, 1875.

CATTLE REGULATIONS.

HAMPTON.

WHEREAS, an inadvertence has been made in the Regulations and Ordinances passed at the February Sessions, A. D. 1874, regarding the running at large of cattle in the Parish of Hampton, and only restricting the running at large of such cattle to within one-half mile of the Court House, and within one-half mile of the Bridge crossing the Kennebecasis at Hampton Ferry; therefore ORDERED, That cattle be restricted from running at large on the roads in the Parish of Hampton, and that the fine shall be levied under Section 11 of the Cattle Regulations, published in 1874, and the fine to be imposed for each head of neat cattle be 50 cents.

KINGSTON.

ORDERED, That no neat cattle be allowed to run or be at large within the Parish of Kingston, on any of the public highways, roads, streets, or places hereinafter mentioned, that is to say: between the points between Snider's upper line and the within one-half mile of the old Court House in Kingston Village.

ROTHESAY.

ORDERED, That Section 11 of Regulations regarding cattle running at large in the Parish of Rothesay, be amended so that a fine of one dollar be put on cows, heifers, oxen, steers, mares or geldings running at large contrary to such Regulations, and that such Regulations extend to the whole Parish of Rothesay.

SUSSEX.

ORDERED, That no neat cattle, horses, sheep, swine or geese, be allowed to run at large at any time on that part of the Lower Cove road in the Parish of Sussex, between lands owned by Daniel McLean and land owned by George Ellison,
