

cies of trade, they will at once be substituted, though the above (the Mexico especially) are fine vessels. The Northern Pacific Railroad Company has arranged that any of its agents in the East can secure accommodations for Alaska excursionists by telegraphing to the office at St. Paul; diagrams, berth-lists, etc., furnished, and state rooms secured.