

BUICK OIL TO PAY 4% DECEMBER 15th

$228,000 for the First Quarterly Dividend Earned By the "Best Well in California Today"

ANOTHER WELL COMING IN A THIRD TO FOLLOW IN 90 DAYS

MANY OTHERS TO BE DRILLED SOON

Over $47,000,000 Earned and Paid as Dividends, Within 20 Years, to Owners of California Oil Stock

I told you months ago to buy Buick Oil Stock and that you would profit greatly thereby. Many readers of this paper who were not blinded by prejudice did so and are decidedly better off to-day.

This stock is worth now about $1.50 per share, based upon the present earning power of the company, which should be doubled within a few weeks when the next well is brought in. This higher value should be further increased when a third well now under way is brought in, in about 90 days from date. Still greater values are likely, as additional wells are drilled and reach the producing stage.

I am a security merchant. I succeed by making money for others. The larger the profits I make for my clients the more quickly my business expands and the greater my success.

I Tell You Again—Buy Buick Oil Stock

This company has just begun to be what should soon become a gigantic money-maker for its shareholders. Until November 14th I will sell Buick Oil Stock at $1.00 per share. After that date its market value should be nearer $3.00.

The December 15th dividend of 4 per cent. will be paid only to stockholders of record upon November 14th—THERE'S NO TIME TO LOSE.

BENJAMIN FRANKLIN MOFFATT,

318-318 MCCORMICK BUILDING, CHICAGO, ILL.

The oil companies of California have paid to their stockholders over $47,000,000 to date in dividends. This has been done in about twenty years. WHAT OTHER INDUSTRY CAN MAKE AN EQUAL SHOWING?

I wish to appeal to the good sense of the careful investors of Canada by stating that what I say in this announcement can be easily verified and, such being the case, is it not to your advantage to realize this fact and take advantage of the opportunity offered? I do not believe you can possibly make money more quickly than by the immediate purchase of Buick Oil shares and while they advance in value enjoy the quarterly dividends as paid. I do not ask others to do what I am not willing to do personally. I shall retain a large block of this stock for my own account for the very same reasons that I recommend others to buy it, viz.: because I believe it will rapidly increase in worth and each time this stock doubles in value my profits increase in proportion. Also the quarterly dividend offers an income well worth having, and such special dividends as may be paid will add materially to the value of the stock and the satisfaction in owning same.

The Buick Oil Company's product is sold to the Standard Oil Company at 45 to 50 cents per barrel, which is from 15 cents to 20 cents above ruling prices, BECAUSE OF THE SUPERIOR QUALITY OF THE BUICK OIL, and also because the Standard Oil Company CAN DEPEND UPON REGULAR DAILY DELIVERIES into its pipe lines OF about 4,000 BARRELS.

What a Few of Many Investors and Newspapers Say About Buick Oil Stock:

From the Fortis (Ill.) Journal, October 24th issue.

"It is said that since the panic of 1907, when it was rumored that the Buick Oil Company, the Standard Oil Company and many others, is one of two fundamental elements—good management and ample capital. Those who supply the latter, become successful in proportion to the success achieved by the enterprise, in which they are involved, although individually each contributor of stockholder may not be publicly known, such credit usually going to the head or founder of the undertaking."

"Praise the Lord for honest men like Mr. B. F. Moffatt and Mr. D. D. Buick. I wish you all the good luck that one man could wish another and thank you for your interest in me and your good advice."

"I congratulate you on having so good a concern to submit to your friends."

Marvellous Relief for Corns, Bunions, Sore Foot Lumps

Five corns on five toes for five years. Was a champion bowler. One quarter spent on Putnam's Corn Extractor. I am sure relief to any old kind of a corn. His toes are in good condition and never fall. This is why Putnam's is superior to the cheap imitations that flood the dealer more profit. Use Putnam's Extractor.

They went and, judging by their last game, should be strictly in the running for the top of the league.
