WHEN JOHNNY CANUCK COMES HOME

Soldier Leads Will Not Be in Toronto Until the Beginning of Next Week.

The arrangements made for the city's reception to the returning soldiers from South Africa, who so far as can be ascertained, will not arrive here until the beginning of next week, are considered eminently satisfactory by the societies and other bodies that will take part in the giving celebration. It is considered that the arrangements to have the disembarkment at North Toronto station is a popular move. The World has urged upon the members of the sub-committee who were arranging the civic reception. So far no one can say what will be the exact date the boys will arrive, but whether it will be Monday, Tuesday or Wednesday, the train will be due at North Toronto station at 2:30 p.m.

Railroadists who are promoting the reception are satisfied that there will be the greatest turnout ever seen in Toronto. At the earliest calculation, the idea will not reach Halifax until Oct. 1. It is estimated that the citizens have had much experience in entertaining troops, and it is safe to say that the returned soldiers will be welcomed to death by the blue noses.

From Halifax they will proceed to Quebec, where there are thousands of eager patriots who will want to show their appreciation of the work of Canada's sons on the faraway front.

Then Montreal is to be considered, and the people there will be just as glad to see the soldiers as we will be in Toronto, and it will take another day in order that they will tell it properly. Therefore, it is probable that the boys will be in Toronto on Monday or Tuesday before the train will have a chance to get to the city and about "Hooley," but the flags may just as well be put out on Sunday, more than on Monday, and still more than on Tuesday.

SHORT CROP IN EAST SIBERIA

Grain is Forwarded to the Short Districts at Reduced Rates.

St. Petersburg, Oct. 27.—According to the Official Messenger, the grain shortage is not confined to the eastern provinces of Siberia. The provinces recently in the hands of the Bolsheviks are actually suffering on account of poor harvests. Grain is forwarded ahead of other larger at points heard from than in the general elections.

RUMPU AT JIM DALY'S

Doors Were Kept Locked and the Police Could Only Get a Look In.

There was plenty of excitement around James Dalry's restaurant at 121 York street early this morning, when a free fight took place. Constable Lamburn was summoned by some neighbors, but he could do nothing, as all the doors were kept locked, and none of the participants would come out. Once when the back door was opened, the policeman got a look in, and saw a man named Thomas Dwyer lying on the floor with two men leaning over him, who were dressing his wounds. Everything in the place was in a state of disorder. Constable Lamburn, who was called on by the neighbors, and when Dwyer came out, he was taken under arrest, on a charge of being drunk.

Received tax bills have recently been presented to Mr. S. N. Armstrong, an employee of the G.T.R. Co., was proceeding to his work at 7 o'clock Saturday evening, he was seized by the shoulders of a man, while a second man rifled his pockets, and after they had obtained some small change, the man disappeared amongst the cars standing in the yard. No one else was injured, and the case has been secured as yet.

The Davisville conservatories of Mr. W. Munton have been much enlarged since the past few weeks, and a large boiler was added to the heating plant on Saturday last.

Enslaved Toronto.

Among those who will leave the village on Tuesday for the deer-hunting ground of the north are J. Young, A. Monro, E. M. Cook, W. H. Blaylock, George Walters, P. Murray and J. E. Newman.

At a special meeting of the East Toronto Council, held at the Hotel Victoria on Saturday evening, Mr. P. Scanlon, an ex-G.T.R. Co. engineer, was the successful applicant for the position of engineer for the village's new electric works. A resolution was passed at this meeting, authorizing the council to notify the G.T.R. Co. of the impassable state of the approaches to the Main-street bridge.

LONDON RADICAL PAPERS CALL FOR STRICT MEASURES IN AFRICA

Call on Roberts to Take a Lesson From Caesar and Ruthlessly Suppress the Rebellion—Told to Be Merciless Now, the Truest Mercy.

London, Oct. 27.—With the exception of unexpected activity of the press, and the reappearance before the public of a statement supposed to be politically dead, nothing has occurred this week in England capable of disturbing the enthusiasm over the home-coming of the City Imperial Volunteers. The news of the gaudy successes in South Africa, which has been received during the last few days, has prompted some of the more serious publications to sound notes of alarm.

Call for Strict Measures.

The Saturday Review begs Lord Roberts to take a lesson from one who was a greater soldier than he himself, Caesar, and ruthlessly suppress the rebellion.

The truest mercy is the present case," says the Globe, "is to be merciless."

That fairly voices the average opinion of the Government organs, while a few outcast Radical organs scarcely conceal their satisfaction arising from their ability to say, "I told you so." In reference to the war being long-drawn-out and engendering racial hatred.

Will Kruger Meet Chamberlain?

An encounter as dramatic as any that marked the battlefields of South Africa may shortly occur at Marseilles. The plan of Mr. Joseph Chamberlain, the Secretary of State for the Colonies, to go to Marseilles to meet Mrs. Chamberlain, who is now at Aix-les-Bains, will more than probably be effected just about the time that Mr. Kruger arrives at the same port on the Dutch cruiser Gelderland, holding from the tone of French public opinion, the simultaneous arrival of these two leading figures in the late world drama would afford opportunities for demonstrations not too pleasant for Mr. Chamberlain, and which the transatlantic complications that would be hard to settle peacefully.

ALL LONDON WILL GO WILD OVER CITY IMPERIAL VOLUNTEERS

London, Oct. 27.—The preparations here to welcome to England, on their return from South Africa, the few hundred men who constitute the City Imperial Volunteers, have entirely monopolized England's attention this week, besides the notice matters of international import. At this half a regiment of young Londoners, brokers, clerks, and others, have been preparing very hectic feasts, thousands of people are pouring into London to witness their home-coming, and windows along the line of march have been set at prices almost equal to those demanded at the time of the Jubilee procession. In addition decorations and illuminations, costing many thousands of pounds, have been prepared, and business and other traffic will be suspended practically the whole day when they arrive, and the night will doubtless witness a repetition of the Marseilles carnival.

Others Are Going Broke.

It is pointed out that the intense patriotism which all this is supposed to signify would be better appreciated were the returning soldiers more representative of the forces in the field or if there were not hundreds of unemployed volunteers who have fought in South Africa, walking the streets of London, untrained, untaught, and unskilled. This circumstance has caused the reflection to be made that the Mother Country by the colonial sections in London, which has been a source of knowledge by several liberal-minded or "humanitarian" over the return of the troops should be secured by a small body of volunteers, which it is freely asserted cannot be expected to do the work of the regular army.

A Big Reception to Buller.

The next big celebration will probably occur Nov. 10, when Gen. Buller is due at the Victoria Hotel. He will be met by the Mayor of London, and will doubtless be the recipient of a triumphal procession. The recovery of the city will be accorded to Lord Roberts, who will be met by the Mayor of London, and will doubtless be the recipient of a triumphal procession.

Robert's Return.

Lord Roberts is expected in December, and the same month, a representative of the City Imperial Volunteers, who will be met by the Mayor of London, and will doubtless be the recipient of a triumphal procession.

What Kitchener Will Get.

It is asserted that Major-General Kitchener, the British Commissioner in Bechuanaland, will be made Governor of the Orange River colony. Gen. Buller is slated to remain commander of the Cape Colony, and will be eventually replaced by Major-General Lytton, who will be expected to arrive in the near future.

POSTPONED TILL MONDAY.

The Celebration of the Return of the City of London Volunteers—Streets Crowded.

London, Oct. 27.—The celebration upon the return of the City Imperial Volunteers has been postponed until Monday on account of the heavy rain, and the streets of London are crowded with the returning soldiers.

JAMES SPEERS WAS KILLED

Buried Beneath a Load of Lumber at the Toronto Casket Co.'s Yards.

While at work on Saturday, James Speers, a teamster employed by the Toronto Casket Company, lost his life on Saturday by being crushed underneath a wagon load of lumber, which fell on him. Speers was engaged in removing the contents of a freight car, which stood on the G.T.R. siding at the foot of Dufferin-street.
