Salutary Sequel to the United States Elections.

Now the Silver Question is Settled Business Revives.

Many Manufactories Resuming Opera tions and Thousands of Men Set to Work.

Chicago, Nov. 7 .- Now that the election has been decided the people of the country are turning their attention to business. For some time back merchants have refused to place orders, as is usual just before Presidential contests, and as a consequence stocks have run exceedingly low.

One of the first indications of the nouncement of the resumption of all kinds of works in all parts of the country. The railroads are already its effects in increased pas-Senger and freight business. The Illinois Steel Company will re sume operations in January. They employ 400 men. The Western Starch Company, at West Hammond, Ill., announces an increase in wages of 10 per cent, and that their force will be increased to 200 employes.

At Cleveland a number of institutions announce their intention of resuming business, furnishing work for several hundred men.

The King, Gilbert & Warner steel plant at Columbus, O., the Rarrig sions as follows, to act at the muni-machine works, and the Fish Pressed cipal elections in Japanese next Brick Company will start up at once. At Peoria, III., the Cutler & Proctor stove works announce that they will resume next Monday. The Peoria Rubber Company will start on the 15th, and severa! other concerns there will be running in a few weeks, altogether furnishing work for more than 1,500

A big skate factory at Worcester, Mass., will start on full time next week, and the Knowles loom works, of the same town, will do the same. At Buffalo, four institutions, employing about 1,000 men, started up yesterday. Others will start next week. Three thousand men now idle at Syracuse, N. Y., will find employment next week by the resumption of several big concerns. At Dayton, O., conditional orders enough are held by manufacturers to furnish employment to several thousand men for some time. The Ball Bros. Glass Factory Company, at Muncey, Ind., say they will build another mill at once, employing 500 more hands. The Indiana Iron Company, which has worked about one-tenth capacity for a year, is flooded with orders and will resume with 800 hands next Mon-

The Midland Steel Company reports an immense influx of orders.

The Muncie Iron Company put their men at work on double time vesterday. Five other factories report more orders than in any week for months

In interviews with the leading business men, wholesalers and manufacon promising prospects of a revival in The factories which have report large deposits of gold.

A number of the manufacturers of Dayton, Ohio, have already resumed work with a full force of workmen. All will be actively engaged for a long time in filling conditional orders. The Barney & Smith car works at once, with a force of 2,000 men. Detroit, Nov. 7 .- Reports are coming in which point to a return of more prosperous times. Factories which vere closed are preparing to start up. Large orders contingent upon the sult of the election will now be filled.

The American Blower Co. will put in a lot of plants that were delayed till after election. Vice-President A. E. F. White says he doesn't know whether the general improvement is due to the election of McKinley any more than to the fact that the election is over, but business has been at such a low ebb that the closing of the campaign could not help but improve it W. C. McMillan says there is no truth in a rumor that the Michigan-Peninsular car shops will start up Jan. 1 with a force of 6,000 men. The company has been turning out 40 cars a day for some time, but has no conditional orders. Some work will be started on Monday in the Michigan car shops.

John S. Gray, of Gray, Toynton & Fox, confectioners, said: "Commencing next Monday we shall employ a full force, for the first time since December, 1895, and work a day and a quarter every day.

Scores of other places report a resumption of business, and it is safe to say that many thousands who have been idle all summer will find employment, which will carry them through the winter.

Woonsocket, R. I., Nov. 6 .- The River Spinning Company's factory, after months of alternate periods of idleness and short time, started on Wednesday morning on full time. The large cotton mills at Slatersville will start on full time next Monday, and run to full capacity. The Glenark Knitting Company, said to be the largest knit goods plant in the country, expect to shortly begin to run all night. Industrial conditions generally are much improved over two months ago. Pittsburg, Pa., Nov. 7. - The Carnegie Steel Company yesterday decided to go forward at once with extensive improvements and additions to their plants, involving an expenditure of half a million dollars. The order includes the completion of two blast furnaces, work upon which stopped about three months since. St. Louis, Mo., Nov. 7.—Railroad ticket agents report that during the past 24 hours a greater number commercial travelers have left the city in the interest of their respective houses than at any time since last March. There is a general revival of business in all manufacturing concerns, and it is estimated that in the starting up of iron mills, factories and other establishments, which have been idle during the summer, at least 4,000 men have found employment.

Winsted, Conn., Nov. 7 .- Greenwood's mills in New Hartford, employing 600 hands, recently suspended. pending the result of elections, have resumed on full time.

IRREPARABLE LOSS.

The Office of British Columbia Governor Burned-Every Record Destroyed.

Ottawa, Nov. 7 .- The Governor-General's office, distant from his ranch in British Columbia about fifty yards, was destroyed by fire on the night of the 1st instant. The loss of the building itself is insignificant, but it is understood that every document, record and paper in the place was consumed This may make the loss serious, as dispatch books, letter books and other official paraphernalia taken from the Governor-General's office here were burned. > The Republican candidate has been heralded as the advance agent of prosperity. If his policies bring real prosperity to the American people those who opposed him will share in that prosperity. If, on the other hand, nis policies prove an injury to the people generally those of his supporters who do not belong to the office-holding class, or to the privileged class, will suffer in common with those who opposed him.

The friends of bimetalism have not been vanquished; they have simply been overcome. They believe that the gold standard is a conspiracy of the money-changers against the welfare of the human race, and until convinced of their error they will continue the warfare against it. The contest has been waged this year under great embarrassments and against great odds. For the first time during this generation public attention has been centered upon the money question as the paramount issue, and this has been done in spite of all attempts upon the part of our opponents to prevent it. The Republican convention held out the delusive hope of international bimetalism, while Republican leaders labored secretly for

The trusts and corporations have tried to excite a fear of lawlessness, while they have been defying the law, and American financiers have boasted that they were the custodians of national honor, while they were secretly bartering away the nation's financial independence.

But in spite of the efforts of the Administration and its supporters; in spite of the threats of money-loaners at home and abroad; in spite of the coercion practiced by corporations and employers; in spite of trusts and syndicates; in spite of an enormous Reof the influence of a hostile daily press, bimetalism has almost triimphed in its first great fight.

Business Across the Border,

The Victory for Sound Money Restores Confidence.

Early Revival of the Demand for Staples Assured.

New York, Nov. 7 .- A great revolution has been effected this week in the conditions which control business. It could not be, in any fair degree, reflected as vet in transactions or in records, but there is ample evidence already that a crushing weight has been lifted and rolled away, and the business world has begun to adjust tself to a state of freedom and security which it has not known for years. Records of the past week could not be expected to show improvements in the volume of business. So engrossed was the country with a political contest that Saturday was almost a holiday at many cities, as well as Tuesday, but the election immediately stiffened prices of pig iron, which reached $12 at Pittsburg for Bessemer, and the certainty that many large orders for buildings and bridges and other finished forms would now become operative justifies some advance. A slight advance in sheetings and print cloths is the only change which yet appears in the market for cotton goods, and practically no change has yet appeared in woolens, but the reported purchases of wool, including one of 1,000,000 pounds of territory, said to have been A magazine called the "Canadian made by a syndicate, amounted to 18,-561,000 pounds, against 5,621,350 last date of year, and 8,215,000 in 1892. The average of prices rose about half a cent in October, and since Sept. 1, 1.04. Quotations by Coates Bros. have risen from 12.16 to 12.93 cents, or 6.3 per cent. A growing disposition appears among farmers to hold wheat for better prices than are now realized, although at present any advance checks already seen in restricted purchases of boots and shoes, resulting from the Mary, Fulton, Ohio. small advance in prices, which has made no progress the past week, but was caused by a rise of 14 per cent in leather. Behind that is the speculative rise of over 40 per cent in hides since the first week in September, for which no valid excuse appears. The rise this week at Chicago extended to nearly all grades of packer and country hides. Bradstreet's report: The expected has happened in the success of the fight for sound money. One result is a return of confidence in the stability of values and in an early revival of demand for staples. Lower rates of interest and a willingness on the part of banks to make loans previously declined are additional evidences of the meaning of the maintenance of the gold standard. Manufacturers and jobbers are more inclined to purchase in advance, instead of for near-by wants only, and in a few lines, notably wool, cotton, iron and steel, a larger volume of purchases is reported. That merchants generally share the confidence in an early revival is indicated by hardening staple prices and the increase in quo tations in addition to those given in preceding weeks. The gold which had been withdrawn from savings and other banks by timid depositors, is flowing back into the banks must faster than it was drawn out, and advices from various financial centers are that wages and small checks are being paid freely in gold this week.
