Ran Into Subway Tube and Was Killed is by Train.

Ran Into Subway Tube and Was Killed by Train. NEW YORK, Aug. 15.—In an effort to escape paying five cents for a ride in the subway, a man believel to have been Edward J. Maher, was killed early to-day near Franklin-street, on the ex. press track of the underground road. According to the story told by the ticket agent, Maher darted past the ticket agent and hurried to the end of the platform and dashed thru the tube and disappeared in the darkness. Short-ly after both ticket agent and the chopper started on a search with lan-terns for the missing man. A short distance down the tube his mangled body was found. The ticket agent, Jas. Devine, was arrested.

Presentation to Ewan Cameron. The G.T.R. local freight office was file scene of a very pleasant event last evening when Mr. Ewan Cameron was made the recipient of a handsome gold prayer that this grace and fellowship watch from his fellow employes. Mr. Cameron is retiring to accept a posi-tion with another company and leaves with the best wishes of the entire staff.
