WIDOW GETS ESTATE. Judge So Decides Because Daughter, the Other Heir, is Dead.

Brown left two farms, 150 and 63 acres. His widow and a daughter, Susanna, had been given annuities from the homestead under the will, but Susanna pre-deceased her father, and now the widow gets the whole income from the one farm.

A daughter, Catherine Quantz, gets the second farm.

The opinion of the solicitor is that the local members, Dr. Godfrey, M.L.A. for West York, and Alex. McCowan, M.L.A. fon East York, should apply to have this clause put back to its former position, so that the two-acre limit will still apply. He also advised the Gardeners' Associa-tion to act on this suggestion at once.
