Baseball, Horse Races and Other Events of 1887—Nationals Take Two Games From Socials on Latters' Diamond

On Saturday, June 11, 1887, the base bill fans saw a great baseball match be tween the Nationals and the Maine Stat College. The result of the game was most pleasant surprise to the home fant Previous to the event betting had been strongly in favor of the Maine team and although the friends of the Nationals had anticipated an interesting game they had not ventured to hope for victory. At the very first, however, it was apparent that they could equal the visitors with the bat and could hold their own on the field and the result was that they won by 9 to 8.

In the first inning, the M. C. team went to bat and McNally, their centre fielder, managed to work around the bases. Mason was caught between the bags, Rodgers was thrown out at second and Elwell knocked a hot one to mingan, retiring the side. The Nationals failed to score.

In the second inning Page and Bird, first and third basemen for the visitors, popped flies. Bell, who covered first for the home team, muffed his chance, but Milligan, at second, retired the second better. Blackington, right fielder for the visitors, struck out and Page was caught stealing second. Again the Nationals failed to score although they succeeded in getting deForest as far as

Andrews, pitcher for the visitors, open ed the third inning for the Maine team by striking out. Vose knocked out if to Bell and Mason struck to White The Nationals went out in one, two three order. Neither team scored untit the sixth, when the locals jumped into the lead by getting two runs. Kennedy led off with a base hit. Robinson placed a ball safe in the outfield and Kennedy moved up to third. Bell sent another ball after Robinson's and Kennedy scored, but Robinson was out at third. Bell was retired on an infield grounder hit by White. Milligan sent at long fly into right field and White scored. DeForest hit to centre field and Milligan took second. O'Shaugnessy re-

Robinson was discomfited in the seenth inning when the visitors took kin by to his offerings and whaled in severans. Rodgers tapped the ball in from the plate. A wild throw to Bell a sisted the wily catcher to reach the second bag. Elwell, s.s., struck a ground which was fumbled by every man whad anything to do with it and Rodge secored, while Elwell went to third. Page

A Sad Game.

One of the worst games of ball ever seen in St. John was played on Tuesday afternoon, June 21, between the Nationals and Woodstock. The lamentable exhibition made by the Nationals was due to bad battery work, foolish base running and slow fielding. Barker and deForest were the only locals who could connect with the visiting slabsman. The alleged game lasted three hours and was then called on account of an accident to the umpire, Morton L. Harrison, who was struck with the ball and quite badld bodies of victims of the Lusitania were landed here tonight by a British torpedo boat and the tug Storm Cock. Among them was the body of a beautiful young woman, whose wedding ring showed that she had been married only two days before the Lusitania sailed. Letters found on her body indicated that her maiden name was Anna Hill, and that she resided at No. 18 Farnham ave., Toronto. Several of the bodies were identified, among them those of Commander J. Foster Stackhouse, the British explorer, and A. L. Hopkins, president of the Newyort News Shipbuilding Commander.
