Out of the Pages of Adventure A ROMANCE THE WHOLE WORLD KNOWS!

SEE
Robinson Crusoe and his faithful comrade Pegleg fight an uneven battle with the villainous pirates of the Spanish Main! Such scenes of adventure on the High Seas were never before filmed—and through it all, the most famous hero ever created.

SEE
Robinson Crusoe escape from the shipwreck of the pirate vessel, with food but for a few days, and with no companion but a dog! Thrill with him when he sees over the horizon the waving foliage of tropical palms—just as you read about it in the book.

SEE
Robinson Crusoe create from nothing but his inventiveness and a few clumsy tools a rude hut and other essentials of life upon his lonely island! Far away from all human companionship, in a strange land, surrounded by unknown dangers, Crusoe courageously starts a little world all his own.

"Robinson Crusoe" And His Crew Pegleg, One Eye Black Tom Friday.

SEE
The savage cannibals who attack Crusoe and the faithful Friday—the remarkable battle of gunpowder against native weapons—the fear and awe of the black savages of the "stick that splits fire and death"—and the narrow escape of Crusoe and Friday from a horrible end at the hands of the cannibals.

SEE
Robinson Crusoe find the "Lost City"—the mysterious disappearance of Friday and the portent of the strange city in which there seemed no life, no movement—nothing but deep mystery and a strange threat at the safety of the castaways—the happy ending of the greatest story of adventure on land and sea ever written.

SEE
Friday and Crusoe find the "Water Witch"—the building of the rude stockade against future attacks by cannibals—the loyalty and love of Friday, the black saved from death by Crusoe—the new dangers of the jungle encountered every day—the mystery and wit of the lonely castaway.

NOTE TO TEACHERS AND PARENTS—The adventures of Robinson Crusoe should be seen by every school child. It is a picture of this sort, being educational and enter-
