by the manner in which a piece of furniture polished the O-Cedar way, retains the bright, shining reflecting lustre that O-Cedar alone can give.

Picture your furniture and wood work as you first saw them, radiant and sparkling—and you will have some idea of how they will look when cleaned and polished the O-Cedar way. This is the Polish that "cleans as it polishes." Instead of just covering up the grime with a mere "surface polish," O-Cedar gets right at the grain of the wood, and so brings out its beauty and charm.

That is why the O-Cedar result is so permanent and lasting—a high dry lustre that lasts.

O-Cedar Polish, 25c to 50c a bottle; $1.25 to $3.00 a can.

Children and Music

FEW GROWN-UPS fully realize what music means to children—only a child holds the key to those elfin lands of delight—the fairy realm of a child's imagination, peopled by brave knights and proud princesses.

Good music is as necessary to children as healthy exercise. A little one dancing to a merry tune, or listening open-eyed to wonder music that brings with it its picture of fairies and silver castles, is an exquisite thing to see. Such music is provided by the
