OKLAHOMA FAVORS VOTES FOR WOMEN.
Oklahoma City, Okla., Feb. 26.—The Oklahoma house yesterday passed a joint resolution ratifying the federal women's suffrage amendment, by a vote of 74 to 14.

While being shown over some motor works in this city yesterday, D. S. Reid met with a painful accident, when his guide stepped on a board, the end of which flew up and struck him in the forehead, bruising and cutting him over the eye. The wound is not serious.

A dispatch from Halifax says that Nick Jacobson, foreman of the traffic department of the Halifax shipyards, and G. Butler, diver, were arrested in connection with the disappearance of scrap material. He was a member of the St. John police force in 1915 and 1916.

Wearing RUBBERS in Bad Weather

Rubbers are a wise economy. They protect the shoes as well as the health. They prevent the shoes from becoming saturated on wet days—make shoes wear longer and hold their shape better—and enable you to wear old shoes on stormy days, thus saving the new shoes for the fine days to come.

Dominion Rubber System Rubbers are made in styles and sizes to perfectly fit the shoes of every member of the family. And their sturdy quality assures long and comfortable wear. You can get dependable Rubbers by asking your dealer for any of the Dominion Rubber System brands.

The best dealers sell Dominion Rubber System Rubbers.

RECENT DEATHS

Mrs. Alice P. Miller, widow of James Miller of this city, died in Boston on Tuesday. The funeral will be held at 220 Oxford on Saturday afternoon from the residence of Harry Miller, 128 Douglas avenue, North End.

Edwin R., the six-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. Harry Bacon, died on Feb. 17 in Chipman. He leaves his father, mother, sister and a brother.

The death is announced at Avonmore, Kings county, February 17, of Stephen Huggard, one of the oldest men in the county. Mr. Huggard was in the ninety-sixth year of his age. He leaves a son, R. B. Huggard.

Malcolm Hannah died in Shediac, Saturday at an advanced age. He was employed as engineer in the lumber mill of R. C. Tait and was held in high esteem by all who knew him.

Miss Leah Gould, daughter of Oliver Gould, Lakeburn, died at her home Tuesday evening at the age of twenty-three years. She leaves her parents and five brothers.

Mary Johanna Granney, a prominent real estate holder in Lawrence, Mass., died at her home there yesterday afternoon. She was born in St. John fifty-one years ago and has many relatives in New Brunswick.

Mrs. Annette Wright, of Southampton, died at the Victoria Hospital Tuesday night following an operation. She leaves six sons and three daughters.

The death of Eugene Payson Whitcomb took place at his home in Gagetown, Friday evening, after a brief illness from pneumonia following influenza. He was seventy-four years old and in this city.

Ladies Let Cuticura Keep Your Skin Fresh and Young Cura Cuticura, London, St. Paul St., Montreal.

is survived by his wife and three sons, including Charles F., who was overseas, and is now employed with the C. P. R. in this city.

Miss Mary Sowerby died at her home in Shediac Saturday morning after a brief illness. She was sixty-nine years of age and leaves one sister.

Roy Frank Messer, Jr., three-year-old son of Mrs. Lillian R. Messer, died in Dorchester, Mass., yesterday morning.

His father, R. F. Messer, was killed in action during the war. Many friends of St. George, N. B., will sympathize with Mrs. Messer in her loss.

Of the late Dr. A. H. Hanington a eulogical letter of Feb. 21 says:—"The death of A. H. Hanington, D. D. S., occurred at his home, Durham street, on Monday, 16th inst. He was born at Shediac, N. B., fifty-eight years ago and was the son of William and Isabella Simpson Hanington. He attended Mt. Allison College, Sackville, and later the Philadelphia Dental College, from which he graduated in 1891. He carried on a lucrative practice in the city of Philadelphia, until five years ago, when owing to ill health he was compelled to give up his business. He removed in October, 1918, to Pugwash, where he had since made his home. Dr. Hanington was twice married. His first wife was Miss Susan Evans of Douglas, N. B., who died five years ago. From this union there is one son, Kenneth, who arrived from Philadelphia a few days before his father's death. His second wife, who was Mrs. M. Fitzgerald, survives him. He is also survived by three sisters—Margaret H. of St. John, Ida of New York and Jennie of Boston, and one brother, Bertram Hanington of Philadelphia."

JANE ADDAMS NOT GOING TO TORONTO

University Invitation to Give Address Cancelled — Attitude Towards Allies Questioned.

(Canadian Press.)

Toronto, Feb. 26.—Fearing a disturbance as the result of a campaign by a Toronto evening paper against Miss Jane Addams of Chicago being allowed to come to this city to address the social service department of the University of Toronto next month, the invitation has been cancelled by the university authorities.

Objection will be taken to Miss Addams because of her attitude toward the Allies during the war, particularly before the United States became involved in the war, and it has been said that she was not only a pacifist but showed a leaning towards the Germans.

NOVELTY SHOWER

Miss Vera Davis entertained girl friends on Monday evening at her home, Prince William street, at a novelty shower given in honor of Miss Dorothy Daye, who is to be a principal in a happy event in the near future. Miss Daye was the recipient of many beautiful gifts and expressions of good wishes. The shower was presented in a dainty and entertaining manner and a thoroughly enjoyable evening was spent by all present.
