This is the safest store from which to buy your HOSIERY

Nothing is more disappointing than a poor quality of hosiery, and there are few things in which it is so difficult for anyone but an expert to distinguish the worthy from the unworthy.

We protect the patrons of our hosiery department from dissatisfaction by handling only qualities that we know to be trustworthy. We buy from only reliable makers, and subject every purchase to a minute examination, rejecting every pair of stockings that does not come up to the high standard we've set for ourselves.

We have stockings for as little as 25c. and for as much as $1.50. Every pair from the lowest to the highest price is a thoroughly good quality which is certain to prove eminently satisfactory.

You'll find a complete stock of light and medium weights here, in all sizes.

AWAY TO CAMP
About twenty-four girls, members of the Junior Association of the Natural History Association left on the steamer May Queen this morning for their annual camp on the St. John river which will be on the Grand Lake district this year, but will not necessarily be at the same spot all through the three weeks of their outing. In spite of the wet weather the girls were in high spirits on leaving this morning and a very enjoyable time was looked for.

A TRIBUTE TO C. B. FOSTER
Good Words For C. P. R. New Brunswick Man Who Has Made Success
(Canadian Courier)

Among the high officials of the Canadian Pacific Railway, whose duties it is to look after the millions of passengers who travel on its thousands of trains and its fleet of eighty steamers, and who more popular than Charles Beverley Foster. He was recently made assistant passenger traffic manager, and later line for promotion to one of the executive offices—than which there is no greater honor in the transportation world.

"Charlie" Foster, as he is familiarly known to hundreds of travelers all the continent, is a New Brunswicker. He was born in Kingston, King's county, in 1871. When twenty years of age he became a stenographer in the passenger department of the Canadian Pacific at St. John, and in a short time rose to be district passenger agent at that point. In 1904 he was moved to Toronto, thence to Vancouver, and later to Winnipeg. Now he comes to the final resting place of the C. P. R.'s best men—the head office in Montreal.

Mr. Foster has a record of homes which quite outshines the best record of any other man in Canada except the man who moves to avoid paying rent. When he went to Winnipeg, in 1910, he had difficulty in finding a home. After moving about several times, he finally settled in a beautiful home. One day he and his wife found themselves nicely settled with the blinds and curtains and screens all complete. They sat down and talked over the possibility of their enjoying it for a few years and they had misgivings. Next day he got a telegram to meet a high official in Chicago, and he and Mrs. Foster were suspicious. The expected happened—he got moving orders to Montreal.

Mr. Foster is a master of detail and a maker of friends. These are the outstanding characteristics which have carried him so fast up the ladder of success.

THE RIVER SERVICE

August 2, 1913.
To the Editor of the Times:—
Sir:—Regarding the steamship service on the St. John river, as we are not all bank managers and lawyers, it is necessary for the majority of business men to be in town much earlier in the morning than is possible at present.

What is needed is a steamer for the suburban business only, and if a boat was provided that would carry passengers, say as far as Public Landing, leaving at a reasonable time in the evening and arriving in town not later than eight o'clock in the morning it would make it possible for more business men to get away to the country, and could, no doubt, be made to run on a paying basis, besides being an inducement for a great many to build cottages along the shores of the river, but the present service discourages any attempt of the kind.

A steamer on this route could make two, and perhaps three, trips daily, and give all classes an opportunity to get up river at almost any hour of the day, and would, no doubt, pick up a certain amount of excursion and tourist traffic.
CHAS. LILLEY.

IN A BAD FIX IF THERE IS STRIKE

Suburbanites on I. C. R. Becoming Worried Over It

PLANNING WHAT TO DO

Milk Supply of City Also Would Be Badly Affected if Train Service Should Be Suspended—Pictou Joins Outcry Against Increased Rates

As the possibility of a strike on the I. C. R. increases there has been considerable speculation regarding the effect such an event would have on the patrons of the road. If a strike is declared it is believed that the train service will be interrupted, if not wiped out, and this would be a serious matter to those living along the line of the government road.

Among those who are discussing the matter are the suburbanites who are dependent upon the I. C. R. for their daily trips to their places of business in the city and the return trip homeward. Many of those who are spending the summer in the country are holding themselves in readiness for a quick move to their winter quarters in the city if a strike is declared.

There are many others, however, who reside permanently in the suburbs, for whom this solution would not be available, and they are wondering what will happen if the trains stop. Those who have automobiles have no cause for worry, as even the owner of the humble bicycle is protected against isolation, if his home is not too far from the city. Co-operative bus service is being talked of by some of the suburbanites, and others are planning, if necessary, to board in the city until the trouble is over.

The Milk Supply
Another feature of immediate concern to a large proportion of the city's population would be the cutting off of the milk supply, the greater proportion of which comes from points along the I. C. R. Almost every other community can be brought to the city as easily over other lines of transportation, but the loss of the connection with the eastern end of Kings County, where the dairy business flourishes, would be a serious matter to the city.

There are other features of the situation which are causing some worry, and in my opinion in the right direction in the management of the I. C. R. management and the Ottawa government does not tend to allay the uneasiness.

Pictou Objects to Rates

Pictou, N. S., Aug. 1.—C. M. Hayes, the new traffic manager of the I. C. R., accompanied by Mr. Storey, freight agent, arrived here yesterday afternoon in a private car attached to the local train from Stellarton. The president and secretary of the board of trade had a talk with them as to the recent increase on the freight rate on coal from Stellarton to Pictou, which has been hoisted to fifty cents a ton, an increase made last February having been followed by another of the same amount on July 1.

The board of trade men pointed out that as other places had kicked successfully for a decrease they wanted similar consideration shown for Pictou. The result was a decrease to forty cents a ton, a concession to the consumer to wit the increase of about twenty per cent over what the rate was in January.

SUNDAY CONCERTS

To the Editor of the Times:—
Sir:—I notice that the commissioners, led by Mr. McLellan, have made a move, in my opinion in the right direction in re the bands playing in King Square some sacred music on Sunday afternoon for the benefit of those who wish to hear it. I think King Square is the most suitable place and the Salvation Army could fill the bill in Rockwood Park. The hours specified, from 3.30 to 5.30, are such that they would not conflict with church arrangements. So far so good. But, sir, I would humbly suggest that to make a little variety, and in order to give the bandmen time to pause and replenish their lungs with air, seats be provided and placed underneath the stand to accommodate a church choir, or an amalgamation of church choirs. I think there would be enough vocal untrials to lead in vocal music in hymns of a familiar nature, and give songs of praise attesting to the Almighty dispenser of all events, for the many mercies they have received, are daily receiving, and will receive in the promise of crops not only in the province but all over the great dominion of Canada. And I would also suggest that there could be one or more spirited speakers obtained to give short addresses on say: Sabbath Observance or any subject that would be suitable for the occasion, time limited, not to exceed ten minutes for the addresses; and that a conductor or chairman be appointed to have the affair conducted decently and in good order.
Yours,
KEEP OFF THE GRASS.

August 1, 1913.
To the Editor of the Times:—

Sir: In a recent issue of your valued paper I saw it is proposed to hold so called sacred concerts in King Square during the Sabbath afternoon, as a citizen I would like to strongly protest against this. We have in St. John beautiful churches and beautiful music is there to be heard, free for everyone. If those who are obliged to remain in the city wish for music on Sunday, surely the sacred quietness of the interior of a church is far better suited to their requirements than a crowded square, where I have always noticed the benches well filled with gentlemen whilst the ladies are left to stand.

Let us have a quiet day in the seven. Thanking you for publishing this letter.
Yours faithfully,
ONE AMONG SO MANY.

TWENTY-ONE DEATHS

There were twenty-one deaths in the city this week, from the following causes: Senility three, heart disease 2, infantile 2, premature birth 2, and apoplexy, meningitis, pneumonia, consumption, endocarditis, empyema, myocarditis, typhoid fever, chronic nephritis, cerebral thrombosis and osteomyelitis of femur each one.
