EVENING TECHNICAL

SCHOOL TO BE OPENED ON MONDAY DEC. 1

Central Building the Place, Wm. S. Vial and Rex. R. Cormier Instructors

The evening technical school, conducted last winter in the Centennial school building by the board of school trustees, will be reopened on Monday evening, December 2nd.

There will be a class in elementary mechanical drawing on Monday and Wednesday evenings and one in advanced work on Friday evenings. Both these classes will be under the direction of R. K. Cormier, principal of the King Edward School.

There will also be a class on Tuesday and Thursday evenings in commercial arithmetic under the direction of Rex. R. Cormier, principal of the King Edward School.

The classes will start at seven p. m. A registration fee of $2 will be required for each student on admission to class, returnable on the basis of attendance as follows:—

Whole fee returned for 100 per cent attendance.

Four-fifths for 90 to 99 per cent attendance.

Two-thirds for 80 to 89 per cent attendance.

Three-fifths for 70 to 79 per cent attendance.

Two-fifths for 60 to 69 per cent attendance.

The fee is charged to insure attendance and it will be seen that any student who makes full time obtains his tuition absolutely free. Those wishing to join the classes should call at Centennial School on the evenings mentioned.

It may be hoped that much larger classes than last year will be formed, and that more young men will realize the great opportunity offered them to make themselves more competent and therefore able to earn good wages.

ANOTHER TORY ROW

Affairs in Western Section of County Are in a Pretty Turmoil

One wing of the Conservative party in this county is in active revolt and if satisfaction is not obtained there probably will be some secessions from the ranks.

The election of district officers on Tuesday evening, which was the occasion for several fat-sided rows about the city, is also the cause of the trouble in the county.

The scene of the strife is the parish of Musquash where W. J. Dean has long been regarded as the favorite of the parish forces. There have been complaints that his rule was neither wise nor just and this year plans were made to wrest the power from his grasp.

It has always been the custom to hold the various political meetings at the village of Musquash where Mr. Dean resides, and it has been whispered that sometimes members of the party in other sections of the parish were not notified of the meeting if it was suspected that they were not in favor of the continuation of the existing regime. This year his opponents stole a march on Mr. Dean and by the petitioning of the electors secured a change from Musquash to Chance Harbor. This was duly advertised before Mr. Dean became aware of his betrayal and, although he had the sympathy and support of the machine at headquarters, it was too late to make another change.

Instead of fighting for supremacy on new ground Mr. Dean adopted the original course of calling a meeting of his own at Musquash. The meeting was held and he was re-elected chairman, with Fred Thompson as vice-chairman and George Anderson as secretary.

In the meantime the regular convention was held at Chance Harbor and the man who was Mr. Dean's choice for vice-chairman, Fred Thompson, was elected chairman by the regulars who also chose Fred Cliback as vice-chairman and Burton Wynn as secretary.

If Mr. Dean's convention and his own election are not recognized by the party it is said that he will leave the party. Instead of crossing to the opposition, however, it is said that it is his intention to organize an independent party of his own within the county and make things lively generally for the politicians who have gone back on him.

NEW CHAPTER OF DAUGHTERS OF EMPIRE IS ORGANIZED

A new chapter of the Daughters of the Empire was organized in this city yesterday at a meeting held for that purpose in the Opera House building. The election of officers took place and the organization was completed but no decisions were reached regarding the name of the new chapter nor the nature of the work which will be taken up. These matters will be dealt with at the next meeting. The officers elected were: Mrs. F. E. Sayre and Mrs. George K. McLeod, vice-regents.

Mrs. Simon Jones, secretary.

Mrs. Sherwood Skinner, treasurer.

Mrs. M. H. Edwards, standard bearer.

BROTHERHOOD SOCIAL

The brotherhood of the Charlotte street United Baptist church, West End, gave a social in the vestry of the church last evening which was much enjoyed by a large number of people. The programme consisted of readings by Mrs. Archibald, Mr. Wasson, and Miss Beacie Heine; dialogue by Mr. C. Campbell and Miss Campbell; piano solo, G. White; song in Telegu language by Miss Archibald and two solos by Mr. Lanyon. After games and refreshments the people dispersed feeling that the brotherhood had made a real hit in their first effort in this line.

SUBSIDIARY-MAYALL

An interesting wedding took place last evening at the Coronation House, Ben Lomond, when Miss Margaret Mayall, daughter of the proprietor, Charles Mayall, was united in marriage to Howard E. Sutcliffe. The bride was dressed in pale blue silk with an over-dress of lace. The ceremony was performed by Rev. Skinner Hoyt. After a short honeymoon trip Mr. and Mrs. Sutcliffe will reside at Ben Lomond. They received many presents from friends. The bride's traveling dress was of navy blue, tailor made.

KNIGHTS OF COLUMBUS

IN MARCH TO CATHEDRAL

Pontifical Mass Celebrated by His Lordship Bishop LeBlanc

MEN MADE NICE TURN-OUT

New Feature Presence of Fourth Degree Men Wearing insignia—Exemplification of Degrees This Afternoon and Evening

Ideal weather conditions favored the Knights of Columbus of St. John Council, 987, today in their parade to the Cathedral, where they attended pontifical high mass, celebrated by His Lordship Bishop LeBlanc. The knights presented a most creditable appearance as they marched along, the fourth degree members in the fore rank wearing their baldrics, then the general membership, and the officers of the council bringing up the rear. The City Cornet Band rendered several martial airs. The knights met in their headquarters in Coburg street and marched via Charlotte, north side King Square, Sydney and Waterloo streets.

Arrived at the Cathedral they found special pew reservations. In honor of the event, the altar was decorated with silken drapings in the colors of the Columbian order, the bishop's throne, and the pulpit also, and in addition to the colors, shields bearing the initials "K. of C." were in place, with "K. of C." crests about the feet of the altar. Assisting His Lordship were Rev. Wm. Duke, Rev. D. S. O'Keefe, Rev. M. O'Brien, and Rev. Miles Howley, while Rev. Father Donahue and Rev. Father Murphy, of Debuca, were in the sanctuary with Very Rev. W. E. Chapman, V. G., who preached.

Monsignor Chapman, who has been chaplain of the council in St. John since its inception, gave a forceful and appealing sermon, dwelling upon the objects of the order, its success, growth and future. He referred to the incorporation of a body of ten or twelve men by Rev. M. J. McElvany in New Haven, Conn., in 1882, as the start of the order, and then traced the growth to the present encouraging standing of some 800,000 members, scattered throughout Canada and the United States in all of the principal and other cities. The speaker compared the advance of the order with the sowing of the grain of mustard seed which grew to such large dimensions that it became a tree in the branches of which the birds of the air rested.

In stirring tones Father Chapman made reference to the chief objects of the order, dealing at some length upon the idea of fostering a strong spirit of Catholicity, spreading good example by conduct and speech, and practicing the great works of charity. Towards these objects as well as towards Catholic education he said the order had accomplished much. "Here in St. John," said the speaker, "we are just getting on our feet. We have established ourselves in a magnificent way, and now that we are justly proud, and now that we are so comfortably settled let us work to the benefit of our fellow citizens, good for others and endeavor to execute the objects for which we are organized. The church needs the help of the apostles of the laity. Let us show our wealth in numbers and example, even though our treasury is empty. Our example is the best sermon we can preach, so let us always endeavor to show by our conduct and word of mouth that we are valiant Knights of Columbus and in so doing help counteract the many heresies which are used to attack the church."

I expressed the hope that the Knights of Columbus would be the means of propagating true doctrines and defending the church without her enemies, from the onslaughts of socialism and other foes, as did Manning and Newman defend her manfully when she was assailed by the advocates of evolution. "Let us live good lives," said Father Chapman in his closing remarks, "and be ever ready to defend our religion, give good example by conduct and speech, and in so doing we shall be crowned with further blessings here below, and later receive the eternal blessing of the hereafter."

The chaplain was heard with close attention by the members present as well as by others who attended and his sermon was greatly enjoyed. Knight Arthur S. Godcoe presided at the organ and some members of the council augmented the choir.

After the mass the Knights again formed in line and returned to their rooms in Coburg street. There this afternoon at 2:30 o'clock the first degree was exemplified before a class of about twenty candidates, while at four o'clock with a class of about forty-five candidates, the second degree was exemplified. This evening at eight o'clock the third degree will be exemplified with a class of about sixty-five candidates. Many visiting knights from other councils are expected in the city this afternoon to be present at the degree.

WEDDING THIS MORNING

A very pretty wedding took place this morning at the Church of St. John the Baptist, Broad street, when Miss Kathleen B. Collins was united in marriage to Wm. T. Lagough. The ceremony was performed by Rev. Walter Donahue, in the presence of a large number of relatives and friends. The bride was given away by her brother, John Collins. She looked charming in a tailored suit of navy blue, with a pearl grey hat with ostrich plumes and carrying a white prayer book. She was attended by Miss Maud Reedy, who wore a suit of grey with a black paque velvet hat with white plumes. Angus Callaghan supported the groom.

Following the ceremony a wedding breakfast was served at the home of the groom's sister, Mrs. G. Thompson, 208 Charlotte street, after which Mr. and Mrs. Lagough left on the early train on a honeymoon trip to upper Canadian cities. On their return they will reside in Richibucto.

The groom's present to the bride was a handsome set of mink furs; and to the bride a pearl brooch and to the best man a set of gold cufflinks. Mr. and Mrs. Lagough were the recipients of many useful and costly presents of silver, glass and linen.

SURPRISE PARTY

Mr. and Mrs. Henry Baynton of 97 Brussels street were given a surprise party last evening. Some eighty friends gathered at their home and presented to them a handsome parlor lamp. Dancing and music and games were enjoyed, refreshments were served and all spent a most enjoyable evening.
