D BY PE-RU-NA

on, San Francisco n, Secretary of the of San Francisco, na an ideal tonic. uffered with neucatarrh), caused on to office work. worn out and I telt nd Peruna benei. It built up the de me feel like a e it is well worthy owed upon it."__

MPSON.

always gives fair oach, and can be the proper treatwn specks before fusion, fits of nersness, flashes of s, palpitation, irriany of these them should be ise of Peruna. Brookshire, from etter from Wash ends say, Peruna fe catarrh cure."_

a book written by nt The Hartman bject of the neruliar to summer. ss by The Peruna

He is now in the Laws:

The Church of to-day decided to lly hereafter in The next meetbec. There was ance, but no acops recom with a deceased deceased wife's cluded within the the lower house ion agreed, and of the church. of Quebec.

mentioned as suc or Jette of Que

9.-At to-day's into the tobacco ected by Hon. D. onsignee of the pany and Empire itted he signed a st whereby he dian manufac at made hy the goods whatever.

Sept. 9.-The or Buffalo from the water's edge wan, last night.

9.-The Grand d by fire about together with

ept. 9.—The body identified as of the lighthouse here this mornpalship 9.-A dark horse Principalship, me is favorably

Visit. en. Booth will week in Decemrgest Salvation ld in Western ded by officers acific and West ludes British est Territories ates of Wash-Montana and

OMPLETED. ' ultural Society ing Held tendance at the hall last evening eting the organiral Society. Ofows: President niere; vice-presi-oft, F. Barnard, felt and Jas. Billinghurst. inds, Major Du F. B. Pember en and Rebic, Newbury, Jas, iggins, Cochran, cuss the ques the shows and held later. MR. R. L. BORDEN WAS DISAPPOINTING

TOLD NOTHING NEW TO VICTORIA AUDIENCE

A Good Attendance at the Theatre, But Tory Speakers Failed to Arouse Any Enthusiasm.

If there was anybody in the Victoria were strangely familiar to those who ize this opening meeting of his tour "on ing on the tariff question.

with the audience than his leader, or have used Sir Hibbert as a drawing (Applause.) have used Sir Hibbert as a drawing card. As an entertaining, effective speaker, he has no equal among those with Mr. Borden last night. During orchestra was present of his supporters, he proceeded to deal complimentary words, followed.

Line of the complementary words, followed. with Mr. Borden last night. During the evening Finn's orchestra was present and played several selections. H. D. Helmeken, M. P. P., presided, and there were present: Messrs. R. L. Borden, K. C., M. P.; Major George Fowler, M. P. and the province in Canada. Could this be said of the Liberal party? He challenged Liberals to show from any of the land; A. A. Lefurgey, of Prince Edward Island; E. F. Clarke, M. P., Toronto; James Clancy, M. P., Bothwell; The selected as a split in the present administration by a new factors of the province of the chairman in a few was introduced by the chairman in a few omplimentary words, followed.

Mr. Clarke from the outset got in the best terms with his audience by an eloquent reference to the beauty of Victoria, the "Evergreen City," during the said that it was indeed well selected as the capital of this greatest province of the Dominion.

Mr. Borden last night. During the evening Finn's orchestra was present was present was present was present.

Mr. Clarke from the outset got in the best terms with his audience by an eloquent reference to the beauty of Victoria, the "Evergreen City," during the said that it was indeed well selected as the capital of this greatest province of the Dominion.

Like the previous speaker, Mr. Clarke as being hauled along the beach by the chairman in a few omplimentary words, followed.

Mr. Clarke from the outset got in the best terms with his audience by an eloquent reference to the beauty of Victoria, the "Evergreen City," during the said that it was indeed well should be states that the said that it was indeed well should be states that the said that it was indeed well should be states that the said that it was indeed well should be states that the said that it was indeed well should be states that the states that the said that it was introduced by the chairman in a few with his audience by Dr. T. S. Sproule, M. P., East Grey; W. H. Bennet, M. P., Simcoe East; Richard Blain, M. P., Peel, and W. B. guests of the evening: Col. the Hon. E. G. Prior, Hon. Senator Macdonald, T. Earle, M. P., Hon. D. H. Higgins, A. E. McPhillips, M. P. P., H. A. Mara, ex-M. P. P., D. H. McDowell, ex-M. P., Frank Moberly, D. R. Ker, John Black, Geo. Jay, Clive Phillips-Wolley, A. C.

eral others. The Chairman.

H. D. Helmcken, M. P. P., said that felt a special pleasure in presiding Hon, Mr. Sifton on the tariff to at the meeting, as it was the first time public meeting in British Columbia It. province. In spite of a little slip that Mr. Sifton and Hon. Mr. Tarte. recently occurred-(laughter)-Vicwould call upon Mr. Northrup to address the meeting. W. B. Northrup.

W. B. Northrup, M. P., said that he In his experience the ladies were the the men took the second place. He coneader of the Conservative party, the party which had created a united and rous Canada, and which declared to the province of British Columbia, ecause it was the Conservative party plause. that had secured the opening up of the Province by the construction of the Canadian Pacific railway. The gentlemen whom he was proud to accompany had come to this province to learn about mises they had made when in opposi- province with a permanent populationtion? The Liberals had promised pre-ferential trade with Great Britain, but had Sir Wilfrid Laurier ever done any-thing to carry out that promise? thing to carry out that promise? race. (Applause.)

W. H. Bennett. W. H. Bennett, M. P., said that like others who were accompanying Mr. Borden on the present trip, he was devoted with the Orientals. They could not be expected to attain the right standard of den on the present trip, he was devoted to his leader, who was acknowledged by every Conservative member of the House of Commons. He wanted to say that Mr. Borden was not in politics for theatre last night who expected to hear that Mr. Borden was not in politics for not say that the views of any particular theatre last night who expected to hear from the Conservative speakers an important pronouncement as to policy, he must have been keenly disappointed. Neither R. L. Borden, the Conservative of his life to the service of his country. British Columbia was a he was able to deal with the question he was able to deal with the question. leader, nor his lieutenants told the audi-ence anything new, and their arguments required capital to develop it. Develop-people of British Columbia, regardless were strangely familiar to those who followed the anti-administration speeches during the last federal bye-election in this constituency.

It was expected that they would boom in expenditure by the Liberal government.

The National Policy and tell "what it was the last of political parties."

Regarding the preferential tariff, he said the idea was originally advanced by the Liberal Conservative party in the House of Commons in 1892. But their vative party would insure that condition at the administration, and of course these expectations were realized. But something more was anticipated. It was thought that Mr. Borden would signalize this opening meeting of his tour "on in the Liberal cabinet, two members of which were at present disagreeing the condition of the other hand there were signs of change in the Liberal cabinet, two members of which were at present disagreeing the condition of the other hand there were signs of change in the Liberal cabinet, two members of which were at present disagreeing the condition of the c in this opening meeting of his tour on the shore needing, as one on the third question.

R. L. Borden. R. L. Borde

The promoters of the meeting should might tell the people of the East of the attention the Conservative leader relave used Sir Hibbert as a drawing wonderful development of the West.

a split in the present administration by quoting from speeches made last year, and this year, by Hon. J. I. Tarte anent the tariff. This minister, he said, was an ardent protectionist, and had advocated protection in the most extreme language in the very presence of his leader and colleagues at Toronto, despite

Geo. Jaw, Clive Phillips-Wolley, A. U.
Berry, D. B. Bogle, Hon. E. Dewdney,
Chas. Wilson, K. C., Capt. Michel, Ridgway Wilson, A. P. Luxton, C.
O'Brien, T. S. Futcher, J. P. Burgess, Hugh McDonald, Beaumont Boggs, A.
The reply was only prevented by the ostensibly to examine a dredge.

The speaker also quoted from the recent utterances of Hon. Mr. Tarte and the meeting, as it was the first time the divergency of views between the two, which Mr. Borden had addressed a and submitted that such a party could public meeting in British Columbia. It not have a policy calculated to aurantee the welfare of the country. If it was right that Canadian industries should be cambridge and decided to come over here for a few days. He spent several days in the city, that at the commencement of the cam- right that Canadian industries should be

The Conservative policy provided protoria had always been faithful to the tection to the manufacturer, farmer, principles of the Conservative party, miner and laborer. Such a policy he as the grandest part of the empire on cided to take a look at Mount Sicker, He ntry such as this, but it preserved for Canadians their own markets. It the policy of protection. Differences had been the policy of the party for anent the tariff must not exist in the years, and it was aimed to promote the government if there was to be industrial was glad to see so many ladies present. In his experience the ladies were the Possessing vast territory and great reproduce in the United States now than sources, it was necessary that this in 1896. As a matter of fact sidered that it was a favorable omen if the Americans were allowed to possess, 000,000, and selling forty or fifty mill country's industries should be protected. was buying from the United States $120,that at the outset of the campaign there should be so large an audience present to face the great American trusts—one Liberal-Conservative policy would give of which actually controlled four legislatures.

Canadians wanted to control their own an undying loyalty to the Imperial contheir own products, to develop their retheir own products, to develop their re-If there was one part of Canada that they, as Conservative politicians, could their population at home, and, in short, to accomplish the grand destiny of this Canada of theirs for themselves. (Ap-resources and its needs, and after government of anti-Oriental legislation travelling through the country he could by the local legislature, that there was only say that half the story of the a strong sentiment in the province on the wealth of British Columbia had not question. Sir Wilfrid Laurier, just be been told.

It was not necessary for him to speak ed to a gentleman in Vancouver that of all the principles of the party, as his the views of the Western Liberals of eader would speak later on, but there this question would prevail with him those which he might re- That pledge had not been redeemed. Why er to. He believed that if the Conser- was it that the views of the Western vative party could show the country good reason why it should be supported, the The subject was one which demanded ald support it. In the first the attention of the Federal government place the Conservative policy was one of pure, undiluted Canadianism—but a Canadianism that did not imply any considerable difference of opinion in Canada on the subject. There were many men in the

to the Pacific Canadians unanimously not believe the Imperial government sity of conserving Canadian markets for desired to remain British subjects. He would disallow the Natal Act here, believed that much of the greatness of when it had not done so in Australia, Great Britain was due to the fact that Great Britain was due to the fact that the Old Country government always lived up to its word. So with a former why should the Federal government do the National Policy.

A vote of thanks, moved by Senator why should the Federal government do the National Policy.

leader of the Conservative party, Sir John A. Macdonald, who had promised that the C. P. R. should be built, and people had said that that promise would never be fulfilled, but the road had been built. But he would ask whether the Liberal government had fulfilled the promises they had made when in onnosit.

least dead on Wednesday at McCourt's road-house on Wade creek, The deceased had just returned from Dawson in com-rounding a point of rocks where the

WAS NOT DISAPPOINTED.

Was Represented-Salmon

eral large quartz and gravel mines in visited the Tyee and half a dozen other properties, had long conversations with their owners and managers, and was simply astonished at what he saw. He has decided to send his own expert into the camp to make a thorough examination, and as he expressed it to Mr. Cuthbert, has not seen the last of the camp

But this is not all, he is more enthusiastic about our fishing than he is about our mines. "Why." he said. "I never had such sport in my life. I went out for a few hours at the head of Cowichan bay and enjoyed myself on that beautiful sheet of water hugely. I caught a fine

4-pounder with a 5-ounce rod, and I want to show you what I got with a heavier one end resting on the veranda, on which mount of capital and expert skill in

HONORARY MEMBERS

Yacht Club.

"Picturesque Victoria."

by any means.

If evidence were wanting of the value

WAS NOT EXPECTED

White labor couldn't exist on the wages paid Chinese, and in many lines Last Till October-The Amur Returns.

people of British Columbia, regardless

It was expected that they would boom the National Policy, and tell "what it had done for the country." It was expected also that the old charge of non-pected also that the ol

The speaker then submitted that this had taken credit for the renunciation of boundary was for an educational purpose, so that he and those with him opposed than to stay supinely by.

After thanking the audience for their

Like the previous speaker, Mr. Clarke to Moose creek in a small boat, which alluded to the party's visit as an educa- was being hauled along the beach by tional one, and they were prouder than Landau and Fletcher, while Simmons ever of their citizenship after what they remained in the boat to steer. When had seen.

had seen.

The leader of the Conservative party lucidly enunciated their policy, and in so doing was only following in the steps of the great leaders who had founded it.

Their party was not like that in powleader and colleagues at Toronto, despite the fact that their speeches preceding his had opposed that view.

Why, during the last session of parliament, while Sir Richard Cartwright was ment, while Sir Richard Cartwright was Such a condition did not conduce to the was not like that in power, one-half of whom were declaring in favor of free trade and the other pronouncing the shibboleth of protection.

Such a condition did not conduce to the was not like that in power, one-half of whom were declaring in favor of free trade and the other pronouncing the shibboleth of protection.

Such a condition did not conduce to the was not like that in power, one-half of whom were declaring in favor of free trade and the other pronouncing the shibboleth of protection. Their party was not like that in power, one-half of whom were declaring in reported to have been discovered two pared to reassert what they had predicted in 1896-that if the Liberal government had carried out its pledges the country would suffer, and the present the testimony of H. T. McPherson, of osperity in many places was due to San Francisco, given to H. Cuthbert, the fact that the government retreated travelling representative of the associa-

from their position, and were glad to accept the much maligned National est. Mr. McPherson happened to get protected, it should be on a proper basis, and not on a compromise between Hon. claim that fact than the Liberal-Conbut being the manager and owner of sevservative party. It was not their policy to decry the fair name of Canada, but California,

The wave of prosperity resulted from development of all industries, which, in stability. The Liberals had not opened reasonable protection to every industry in Canada would exclude the millions of dollars worth of foreign goods now industries, to keep their market for coming in, establish industries and give employment to thousands of our own ornate English, nicely rounded periods, and captivating phrases, Mr. Clarke fluently presented the Liberal-Conservative case, holding forth the usual honeyed assurances which failed to the preferential arrangement even more emphatically tuan his leader, and stigmatized it a pro-German, a pro-Boer preference. The workmen of Germany were the gainers, and those of Canada He would have no hesitation in casting his vote against a continuance of this preference He dealt with the Oriental immigration question in a manner similar to his leader, and said that the people of this province should compel their representatives to demand a fulfillment of the assurance given by Sir Wilfrid Laurier to Mr. Maxwell in 1896, and if they did not to elect those who would. The speaker also scored the Alien La bor Bill, which he said was unworkable

VOTERS' LEAGUE HELD INTERESTING SESSION

Navigation on the Yukon Will Probably But Found Question Too Much for One Meeting, So It Was Laid on the Table.

Arrivals from the north by the steamer Amur this morning, of whom there were three, report that the Yukon navigation weekly meeting in the council chambers quired. is still good; that the water in the river of the city hall last evening. The busiis higher than it was at this time a year ago, and that transportation comsupply of Victoria and how to economipanies are expecting to see the steamers running until the first of October at supply of Victoria and how to economically improve it. The resolutions on the matter, already published in these colling adjourned. The weather was fine, and although unms, were augmented by several others, there had been a few frosts a general freeze-up was not anticipated. Condi- Frederick Laughton. Much discussion PROMISING OUTLOOK freeze-up was not anticipated. Conditions of travel have assumed a normal state again. The cut rate war is at an end, and fares between Dawson and White Horse have been advanced to their former plane.

Frequence Laughton. Much discussion took place, great divergency of opinion on the part of those present was evidenced, and the meeting finally adjourned with nothing definite having been done. The curfew bell found the league line to widdle of a hearty debate at the league line to widdle of a hearty debate at the league line to widdle of a hearty debate at the league line to widdle of a hearty debate at the league line to widdle of a hearty debate at the league line to widdle of a hearty debate at the league line to wind the league line to w their former plane,
When the Amur reached Vancouver in the middle of a heated debate as to yesterday she had 40 passengers and a small consignment of gold. The gold shipments from Dawson during August disposal. This brought about the sugaggregate in round numbers $2,174,650. gestion that they be laid on the table The figures are from export certificate for consideration next week, which was records kept by the comptroller of the adopted.

the league that the chief commissioner, Hon, W. C. Wells, would be pleased to meet a committee of the Voters' League on the matter on Thursday next at 11 a. m. This was acknowledged and filed. The chairman of the arable lands committee var on t paper money.

laid over until next week.

Mr. Morley said he had seen C. H.
Dickie, M. P. P., in reference to this matter, and that gentleman had expressioned the opinion that if Victoria would take the initiative in having the survey made, Duncans and other points along the line would aid as much as possible, Mr. Dickie promised at least $100 from Duncans for a fund for the carrying out of the work. It was estimated the survey in fair will be as follows:

Mr. Boggs is not aware how this rumor got abroad.

Complimentary tickets have been received by Secretary Boggs for the Oregon state fair to be held from the 15th to the 20th of this month at Salem Ore, and to the Kamloops exhibition to take place from the 24th to the 26th.

Rules and regulations to govern employees of the association during the complete through the agencies of local members of this neculiar sect. To quote passages aid over until next week. of the work. It was estimated the survey would cost $1,000. The provincial ployees of the association during the company to the provincial prov Stranger Who Found Victoria As She

The water supply question was next evening. lealt with. Resolutions on the subject

The following resolution was then ead by Mr. Morley:

Resolved, That whereas it is clearly set forth in the report of the committee of the Voters' League on the water system that the said system is not so constructed and constituted as to serve the city with water in the most economical or efficient, manner possible, or to the best interests of all concerned;

water in the most economical or efficient manner possible, or to the best interests of all concerned:

Therefore, be it further resolved, That a full copy of the report be sent the municipal council and that they be requested to carefully consider the said report, its deductions and suggestions, and to lay before the ratepayers without delay a complete plan for placing the entire system on an efficient and economical basis, and prepare and submit a by-law for the carrying out of the same.

rod and spoon." Taking it from his wife he exhibited with the greatest delight a photograph of her holding a stick, with instal meters in the city. There were pairs to her were made, caused by the have been thrust. two objections to this proposal. The peo-ple, he thought, ought to be allowed to were a 45-pound salmon and a 28-pound salmon, the first measuring over 42 use as much water as they wanted as long as there was no unnecessary waste.

Ime. A delay of ten days was calculated to make the necessary repairs.

On board the steamer were three pas inches in length. The photograph was taken by C. H. Dickie, M. P. P. The installation of meters would entail a great deal of expense which the city was not able to stand at present. He had had a conversation with the water and P. A. Heege. B. J. Ackland is well-known in this city, having fived here some years ago. He was then see (Associated Press). And this gentleman gained all this in-ormation about our mines, which may result in bringing into the country a large commissioner recently, and that gentle-man had said that as a result of the change in the system of flushing the lar in athletics. Lately he has resided opening them up, and enjoyed his favor-ite sport, all through the influence of sewers 600,000 gallons of water were in Kobe, being engaged in commercial plans for a series of musical festivals material saving, and would in his opin- with the China Mutual Company at fore attempted. ion remedy the difficulty which had been Shanghai, and is bound for Texas to He will organize 20 or 24 choral soexperienced this summer.

The Kaiser and His Brother Will Probably Be Elected to New York ttempt to deal with the water question to enter college. New York, Sept. 9.-The Emperor of in detail. It should be done generally. Germany and Prince Henry have been thought the mains should be enlarged and the streets sprinkled with salt water. Ed. Bragg considered that the water nmissioner in his report covered the ground very thoroughly. He had pointed out that there were three distinct reent of the water system of Victoria: First, new mains; second, a meter system should be installed that would result in an equitable distribution of water; third, a reservoir for the high lands should be established. Mr. Bragg held that the report contained much that was In order to have Dr. Arnold's English. ood sound advice, and it ought to be up- Toxin Pills placed in the hands of all neld as far as possible.

Mr. Best referred to the size of the make the following most liberal offer:—

ments to Buildings-Meeting of Committee Friday.

records kept by the comptroller of the territory, through whose hands all gold must pass before being permitted to leave the country. The August shipments bring Dawson's export for the season up almost to $9,006,000, and the year's output will surely reach $11,000,000. The shipments from Dawson during the season are as follows: May $19.son, Walker, Donkin, McDonald, Laughing the season are as follows: May, $19.890; June, $3,550,324; July, $2,313,130;
August, $2,174,650.

The Amur left Skagway on Saturday night and made a very fast passage south, although coming in a day late. When she was at the Lynn canal port modation of stock improved so that exhi-

a. m. Th's was acknowledged and filed. The chairman of the arable lands committee was empowered to select a subcommittee to meet the chief commissioner of lands and works on behalf of the league.

J. Martin wrote asking for names and addresses of members of the league in order that he might send them copies of a bill now being prepared to be submitted to the Dominion government.

The chairman explained that the bill provided for the purchase of railways and public utilities with irredeemable paper money.

This communication precipitated quife the committee was employed putting the course in the best shape possible for the course in the best shape possible for the coming races. About ten or twelve horsemen have already paid their $5 for the privilege of using the track for training purposes, and the races promise to be one of the great attractions of the show.

Secretary Boggs states that there seems to be a feeling of doubt on the Mainland as to whether the Victoria show will be carried through this fall.

This communication precipitated quite a discussion and the opinion of Mr. Lugrin and some other members of the association was that the league should

A meeting of the association will be is allowed to enter this city through the already published were read by the sec- held on Friday evening to consider the mail. list and take up other business,

PING SUEY IN PORT.

Brings Back From Orient a Former Well-Known Local Athelete. The China Mutual liner Ping Suey ar-tons of mixed freight from the Orient. will be rare articles in this country. Included in this is a consignment from Singapore

the remaining cargo which he has on attacks upon board saved to the city daily. This was a very affairs. H. Glen Walker was connected Averienced this summer.

Shangian, and is bound for lexas to the will organize 20 or 24 choral servisit a brother. P. A. Heege comes from cieties from Halifax to Victoria to put Yokohama, and is on his way to Chicago on some of the best English choral music

W. F. Best thought the report on the The volcano on Stromboli Island is in pure, undiluted Canadianism—but a ference of opinion in Canada on the Canadianism that did not imply any break in loyalty to the throne. There was one doubt that from the Atlantic was no doubt that from the Atlantic was no doubt that from the Columbia to inaugurate his scheme.

The voicand on Stromboli Island is in Sir Alexander Mackenzie, principal of full evoicand on Stromboli Island is throwing and a dead letter.

Mr. Clarke again charged the Liberal formally proposed for honorary members of principal of formally proposed for honorary members of the Royal Academy of Must satisfactory. He had only one fault to columns of fire again charged the Liberal formally proposed for honorary members of the Royal Academy of Must satisfactory. He had only one fault to Canada and the Royal Academy of Must satisfactory. He had only one fault to Canada to conduct the intervence of the meeting of the Royal Academy of Must satisfactory. He had only one fault to Canada and a dead letter.

Mr. Clarke again charged the Liberal formally proposed for honorary members of the Royal Academy of Must satisfactory. He had only one fault to Canada and the Royal Academy of Must satisfactory. He had only one fault to Canada and the Royal Academy of Must satisfactory. He had only one fault to Canada and the Royal Academy of Must satisfactory. He had only one fault to Canada and the Royal Academy of Must satisfactory. He had only one fault to Canada and the Royal Academy of Must satisfactory. He had only one fault to Canada and the Royal Academy of Must satisfactory. He had only one fault to Canada and the Royal Academy of Must satisfactory. He had only one fault to Canada and the Royal Academy of Must satisfactory. He had only one fault to Canada and the Royal Academy of Must satisfactory. He had only one fault to Canada and the Royal Academy of Must satisfactory. He had only one fault to Canada and the Royal Academy of Must satisfactory. He had only one fault to Canada and the Royal Academy of Must satisfactory. He had only one fault to Ca

OPPORTUNITY nrements for the satisfactory improve For Getting a Beautiful Watch and Chain Free.—No Money Required. Every Man, Woman, Boy or Girl has the same Opportunity under our persons suffering from bad health we main connecting with Elk lake, and pointed out that if it was made larger the supply would be increased.

If you will send us your name and address and agree to sell for us twelve boxes of Dr. Arnold's English Toxin A. Henderson said that the best action to take would be to refer the question ABSOLUTELY FREE A BEAUTIto a competent hydraulic engineer. He didn't think the meter system would im-The Voters' League held its regular prove matters. Larger mains were reof Jewelry, Rings, Violins, Mandolins, F. Laughton moved that a committee Tea Sets, Sateen Skirts, Cameras, etc. interviewed the council on the matter.

The question was further discussed at length, and finally the resolutions and amendments were tabled and the meet Remember we DON'T WANT ANY MONEY until after you sell the Pills and you don't have to sell any more than 12 boxes to get the premiums. This is a bona fide offer from a reliable conis a bona fide offer from a reliable con-cern that has given thousands of dollars worth of premiums to agents all over the country. Remember also that Dr. Arnold's English Toxin Pills are a wellknown remedy for all diseases of the kidney and bladder, Bright's disease, diabetes, rheamatism, nervous troubles, and female complaints, and are for sale by all first-class druggists and dealers in medicines in all parts of the world. You have only to show them to sell them. You are not offering something that the people don't know. Our watches are the regular standard size for Ladies or The outlook for a first class exhibition Gentlemen in Nickel or Gun Metal Cases dress on as our authorized agent.

Chief of Police Endeavoring to Prevent Entrance of "Leaves of Healing" -Low Slander of King.

association was that the league should not lend its support to what was described as an absurd and ridiculous scheme.

Mr. Redfern held that there could be no possible harm in having copies of bills sent to the members of the league. A vote being taken, his motion was carried, the division being 7 to 6.

T. C. Sorby, on behalf of the Cowichan valley survey, had nothing to report and requested that the matter be laid over until next week.

Wr. Boggs is not aware how this laid over the grand mogul of Zionism, which is freely circulated in this city, has aroused so much interest the publication placed on the post office prohibition list. The article in question, bearing the signature of John A. Dowie, the grand mogul of Zionism, Mr. Boggs is not aware how this rumor got abroad.

Complimentary tickets have been re ous libel on His Majesty, the King, and vey would cost $1,000. The provincial government had promised two-thirds of this, which, together with Duncans's subscription would leave about $300 for Victoria to subscribe. Mr. Morley thought this sum could cost $1,000. The provincial public time the fair is open to the public the guards and specials must be dressed in dark clothes and wear a regulation would stilly the pages of any loyal time the fair is open to the public the guards and specials must be dressed in dark clothes and wear a regulation would stilly the pages of any loyal and true purveyor of news, but it is sufficient to say that the thing is in Dowie's

Victoria to subscribe. Mr. Morley thought this sum could easily be obtained. The board of trade, he thought, should take some action.

Mr. Lugrin moved as follows:

That, in the opinion of this meeting, it is desirable that a preliminary survey be made from the mouth of the Cowichan the control of the control of the series and attendants must be polite and report any irregularity at once to the subject, and the subject is subject, and the subject is subject to say that the thing is in Dowie's to subject to say that the thing is in Dowie's the subject to say that the thing is in Dowie's the subject at the thing is in Dowie's the subject at This carried unanimously.

On suggestion of Mr. Sorby a committee consisting of the chairman of the arable lands committee, the chairman of the Cowichan valley committee and the secretary were appointed to take the matter in hand.

The water supply question of the special prize list will be issued that once to the superintendent.

In case of fire or other disturbance it is the duty of all employees to protect the exhibits and property of the association directly in their care, and to remain at their posts as long as possible or until releved by the superintendent or secretary.

Guards will have their section swept and dusted by 10 o'clock each morning.

The water supply question. to Ottawa as a sample of the stuff that

> The list of printed matter prohibited from coming through the mails includes mmoral, slanderous and any seditious literature which is likely to exercise a detrimental influence on the community. The collector of customs, it is under stood, has certain powers in this respect, The China Mutual liner Ping Suey arand if so desirous may seize matter rived at quarantine at midnight and tied which comes under the aforementioned up at the ocean dock about ten this afhead. Should the efforts of the chief of ternoon. She is discharging about 170 police be successful "Leaves of Healing"

There is no place in the Empire more loyal to His Majesty than The Ping Suey will, after discharging the city which hears his revered mother's her freight, proceed to the Sound with name, and the circulation of such low She had an uneventful trip across the here, judging by the action of the chief ation from 7ion will not be tolerated Ex-Mayor Redfern expressed the opinPacific, having left Yokohama August and the sentiment of those into whose 27th. It was at Yokohama that the rehonds copies of the precious publication turned from England bringing with him throughout Canada on a scale never be-such as was heard at great festivals at Birmingham and elsewhere, In April Sir Alexander Mackenzie, principal of

MUSICAL FESTIVALS