act from a letter from Snowdon & Gibbs, Concordia, Kan., July 28th, 1873.—" We s f your Gargling Oil than of any liniment we keep." Merchant's Gargling Oil as a Family Liniment. We are now, and have been for some years, preparing the foll free from stain, to be used as common limiment for human fisch, extracting the coloring ingredient which has heretofore rendered, it objectionable. This Oil possesses all the medicinal properties of that prepared with the dark tings for horses and cattle, and will be found one of the best remedies for all purposes where a liminent is required that has ever been manufactured. From J. K. Fisher, Uniontown, Pat, Jan. 31, 1837.—"Your Gargling Oil is doing much bester here than formerly, since its virtues have become known; and the bottles put up for family use, without stain, are much sought for."

The Gargling Oil called "Family Oil," although prepared intentionally for human flesh, answers as well for human flesh, only it will stain and discolor the skin, but not permanently. Yellow wrapper for animal and white for human flesh, only it will stain and discolor the skin, but not permanently. Yellow wrapper for animal and
