LEON F. CZOLGOSZ

McKinley's Assassin Arraigned in Court Today.

Extraordinary Precautions to Guard Against any Popular Outburst Against Him.

BUFFALO, Sept. 22.—The trial of Leon F. Czolgosz, for the murder of President McKinley, began at 10 o'clock this morning. Long before that hour the streets near the city hall were the objective of many curious people.

No one outside the building saw the prisoner as he was taken from his cell to the court room. His guardians made use again of the "tunnel of soles" under the street from the jail to the city hall, and Czolgosz was brought into the court room only a few moments before the hour set for the opening of his trial.

The counsel for Czolgosz, former supreme court justice, Loren L. Lewis and Robert C. Titus, chosen by the Bar Association of Erie county, and Carlton E. Ladd, saw him again this morning before the time of opening of court, but he had no more to say to them than at each of the previous times when they visited him.

The counsel for Czolgosz, former supreme court justice, Loren L. Lewis and Robert C. Titus, chosen by the Bar Association of Erie county, and Carlton E. Ladd, saw him again this morning before the time of opening of court, but he had no more to say to them than at each of the previous times when they visited him.

COURT HOUSE, Buffalo, N. Y., Sept. 22.—From 10 o'clock Justice White took his place on the bench and court was convened. The clerk began calling the names of the first panel of jurors called.

COURT HOUSE, Buffalo, Sept. 22.—Part III of the supreme court of Erie County, wherein Leon F. Czolgosz today appeared to answer for the murder of the president, is a small room on the south side of the second floor of the city hall.

Czolgosz, with his counsel, occupied seats directly on the front of the judge's bench. The prisoner's chair rested just back of that of Judge Titus, and there were plenty of policemen near for the protection of the court and the officials from any untoward action on his part.

VENEZUELAN AFFAIRS.

Gen. Hernandez Said to be Chained and Tortured in a Foul Cell.

NEW YORK, Sept. 22.—According to the story told here by a Venezuelan who resided in New York a few days ago, General Hernandez, the head of the conservative party in Venezuela, and who is a political prisoner, is undergoing treatment even worse than that of Dreyfus on Devil's Island.

His political and military strength was recently shown, says the Tribune, in the organization of a revolutionary movement on the frontier under the leadership of General Rangel Gabilan. This uprising which President Castro called a "Columbian invasion," was in reality a Hernandez movement, it is said.

RAILWAY COLLISIONS.

COMO, Colo., Sept. 22.—A run-away freight train on Kenosha hill on the South Park railway, caused the death of Webster Hallinger, the engineer, and injured 18 employees of the railway.

Grand Rapids, Mich., Sept. 22.—A passenger and freight collided on the Grand Rapids and Indiana railroad at Bond's mills near Cadillac early today and several men are reported killed.

THANKSGIVING DAY.

OTTAWA, Sept. 21.—An order-in-council has been passed fixing Thursday, November 28th, as Thanksgiving day, not October 31st, as wrongly announced in some liberal papers.

USHERED LINCOLN OUT.

"Pop" Pendle Stood at the Door When Martyred President Last Left the White House.

There is a man at the White House today who stood at the front door the evening Abraham Lincoln went out to attend Ford's theatre, where he was assassinated by Booth. This veteran usher, Thomas F. Pendle, affectionately known to the White House force as "Pop," is proud of saying that he "let Mr. Lincoln out" the last time he left the executive mansion.

"Pop," who looks so much like Lincoln that he poses in one of the President's suits for one of the most famous Lincoln pictures, has seen three presidents leave that historic structure to be struck down.

EAGLES AS PASSENGERS.

When the steamer State of Maine, bound from St. John to Boston, was a few miles out of Eastport, Friday afternoon, two large eagles lighted on the ship. One took his perch on the forward flag staff and the other on the fore truck.

MOOSE HEADS FROM N. B.

Word was received in Bangor Saturday that two large moose heads, consigned to Charles Jackson, a guide, had been seized in Houlton. Jackson has been guiding in New Brunswick and while there killed two good sized bull moose.

AT OTTAWA.

The Royal Guests on the River Today.

An Exhilarating Slide and an Exciting Canoe Trip—General Notes.

OTTAWA, Sept. 22.—Again the royal party were favored with beautiful weather, necessary for the success of today's festivities, which have been looked forward to with more than ordinary interest.

At 12.30 their royal highnesses, with the governor general and Lady Minto boarded a magnificent palace car especially built by the Ottawa Electric Railway Co. for the occasion.

It had been intended to run out to Remoux Rapids and there board the cribs to run the slides, but owing to the lowness of the water it was deemed advisable to make a change and the cribs were brought down to the head of the slides on Oregon street.

The trip down the slides, with all the excitement and exhilaration accompanying it, was safely and greatly enjoyed. At the foot of the slide Commodore Colin Rankin, late senior and chief factor of the Hudson Bay Co., was awaiting the party with birch bark canoes, manned by Indians and Canadian half breeds, attired in most picturesque garb, red shirt and tunic, and wearing blue sashes.

Of today's event, described above, an Ottawa despatch of Saturday said: "The royal canoe which is solidly built and gay in color, is called the Duchess. It is thirty feet long and will accommodate nine passengers besides a crew of eight men.

The president of the Canadian Pacific railway is now Sir Thomas Shaughnessy. Principal Grant is critically ill at the public hospital, Kingston, and could not attend at Ottawa to be invested with the title conferred on him by the king.

NOTES.

The president of the Canadian Pacific railway is now Sir Thomas Shaughnessy. Principal Grant is critically ill at the public hospital, Kingston, and could not attend at Ottawa to be invested with the title conferred on him by the king.

Six thousand employees of the E. B. Eddy Co. gave the royal party an enthusiastic greeting as they passed through Hull on Friday.

It is said nothing more will be heard of the trouble between Gen. O'Grady, Italy and the men who persisted in wearing their khaki uniforms when receiving the medals. The duke is said to have intervened in their behalf.

The royal party witnessed the illuminations at Ottawa on Saturday night and were given a great reception by cheering thousands. Sunday was spent very quietly, the royal party attending divine service at Christ's church cathedral. They were attended by a crowned escort.
