Live Sporting News and Notes

MILITARY EVENING A SUCCESS

The first military sports to be held in the city of St. John took place last Saturday night, when, notwithstanding a blustering snow storm and the thermometer loading around zero, more than 1,500 people gathered in Victoria Rink to take part in the programme prepared by the sporting committee of the 115th Battalion.

After expenses have been deducted it is estimated that the battalion will realize about $500 for regimental needs.

The ladies of DeMonts Chapter I, O. D. E., under the leadership of the regent, Mrs. A. W. Adams, had charge of the refreshment booth, and did a rushing business. This chapter proposes to donate all monies over and above expenses to the band of the 115th Battalion for music.

The band of the 115th Battalion rendered ten numbers, which were greatly enjoyed by both spectators and skaters during the evening.

The half mile race, in which there were seven competitors was won by Bandman Semple, with Costello, B. company, 2nd, and Beckwith, A. company, third.

The team from C company consisting of Semple, Bowick, Jones and McNair, were successful in carrying off first place in the relay race, defeating teams from A, B and D companies.

Mrs. F. C. Jones presented the prizes after the races.

The judges were: Lieut.-Col. Wedderburn, Major Jones, Major Peters, and Major Kennedy.

Lieut. Ingston, acting adjutant, starter, and Lieut. Gilmore, timer.

THISTLES AND ST. ANDREWS CURLERS CLOSE SEASON

With all foreign matches cleaned up by the local curling club, the season was practically closed on Saturday afternoon, when at both the St. Andrew's and Thistle rinks bonspiels were successfully held. The members turned out in large numbers and the afternoon and evening proved most enjoyable.

The Thistle Rink.

Two sets of curling stone baskets presented by Alexander Macaulay were the prizes offered in the bonspiel held in the Thistle Rink, and R. M. Fowler proved the winner in the finals. The following was the makeup of the competing rinks:

TORONTOS PUT QUEBEC OUT OF THE RACE

Montreal, March 5.—Canadiens picked up a score of fifteen to Wanderers' five at the Montreal arena Saturday night, and in order to rain the N. H. A. championship has only 12 to win one of three games remaining to be played this season.

Toronto, March 5.—Toronto eliminated Quebec from the N. H. A. championship running by defeating the visitors at the arena Saturday night by 7 to 5.

MILITARY ATHLETIC EXHIBITION TONIGHT

Tonight at the Opera House the members of No. 4 Siege Battery hold a big military athletic exhibition, with two good wrestling matches, a tug of war between teams from the 115th Battalion and the Siege Battery, a 10 round match between Harry Harley of the North End and Gunner O'Leary of the Siege Battery, 6 round match between Bartlett and Naves of the North End, 6 rounds between Bombardier Price and Gunner Brand, and one other good lively match. D. Connolly will act as referee. Tickets on sale today at the box office. Net proceeds go to the fund for returned soldiers.
