

The St. John Standard

Dovember 9, 1918

The Shenanigan Kids

Service

nen up to June 30, 1918.

age gives the casualty state a total of 185, of which in killed in action or dice, 79 have been wound prisoners of war. Only a missing.

age devoted to the honors in members of the staff in vice five decorations are conferred upon fourteen of men. It is statement; you will find such a Roll of at typical of all newspaper his country, and it may a to see how the staffs of uper businesses of the glow answered the call of y."

center of the room and a st the wall, crowded with rawings and photographs. Sir Douglas married the ly Vivian, a twin daughter Lord Vivian. A daughter Lord Vivian. A daughter number of years his only everal months ago a sou him. It to be to be story goes—saw him er in a protected pocket weep his hand across his n, according to the observory, "came the grim loow action, and Haig rode for attle."

Navy League.

ladies, ever knitting

ladies, ever knitting ting, etill are sitting, things no fiving mortal or saw before; ingle word they utter tt and knit and mutter, task they softly flutter ir rockers to the door, ice comes from the shadow, evy cluster near the door, y next, at heft-past four."

—The Optimist.

RY GAGE.