Xmas Sermons In Catholic Churches

Large Congregations Yesterday Listened to Able Sermons Preached in Cathedral and St. John the Baptist—A Midnight Mass.

In all Catholic churches of the city yesterday morning, it being within a few days of Christmas very appropriate sermons were delivered on the coming of the Christ Child. In the Cathedral of the Immaculate Conception at the 10:30 o'clock mass Rev.
Father Duke, the rector, spoke briefly on the Gospel of the day and also made reference to how the Catholic young men of today should conduct themselves. He implored them to live up to their faith and study it thoroughly in such a manner that it should not be lost to them, through evil habits or companions. He also said that the should attend mass every Sunday and Holy day if possible, and asked them for the sake of their own salvation to receive the sacraments as often as they could. The reverend gentleman spoke with great feeling and reverence throughout the sermon, enlivening in the hearts of his congregation the great virtue the Catholic church and its members hold beyond compare—the virtue of Faith.
It was also announced by Father Duke as well as by the other priests at the different masses, that there would be a midnight mass on Christmas eve. The collection taken up at the doors of the church on Christmas day will be for the benefit of the orphans in the different Catholic institutions of the diocese.

At present in the Catholic institutions in the city and at St. Patrick's Silver Falls, there are about two hundred and forty orphans being cared for under the supervision of the Sisters of Charity. Last year a large collection was made for this purpose and it is hoped that this year donations will be as generous as on previous occasions.

In the St. John the Baptist church yesterday morning at the 10:30 mass the pastor, Rev. A. W. Meehan, D.D., announced to the congregation that there would be a midnight mass celebrated on Christmas Eve. Father Meehan preached a very powerful sermon on the Coming of the Christ Child and how his people should prepare for it by receiving the sacraments and attending holy mass.

He also spoke to his congregation of the Catholic faith and how it is rightly preserved. The reverend gentleman said that at the present time there was so much immorality that it was very hard to contend with, without perseverance and faith, the greatest of virtues. In the evening Father Meehan delivered a very inspiring sermon on "Catholic Faith and the Ten Commandments" to a large congregation. Being a very forcible speaker Father Meehan brought forth the facts and principles of the Catholic religion, and how they should be kept by the Catholics of the present day.
He also explained the different Books of both the Old and New Testaments and how they were written by the different prophets and evangelists up to the birth of the Infant Saviour.

There will also be a midnight mass celebrated in St. Peter's church, North End, on Christmas Eve, as was announced yesterday at the different masses.

SUNDAY EVENING SERVICE.

The pastor and choir of the Portland street Methodist church were in charge of the Sunday evening service at the Seamen's Institute last evening. Rev. Nell McLachlin gave an excellent talk on the "Christmas Message" to the men and the choir, beside leading the singing, sang an anthem. There were one hundred and seventy men present who joined heartily in the singing. Refreshments were served at the close of the service.

SLIGHT DAMAGE BY FIRE.

About 12:45 o'clock this morning an alarm was sent in from box 4 on the corner of Sewell and Garden streets for a slight fire in the boarding house at 78 Sewell street. When the firemen arrived on the scene all they found was an old coat and an oil stove burning. The blaze was extinguished in quick time by a chemical and no damage was caused.

"Live-rite Tonic" In Big Demand

Many Enquiries for New Remedy—Internal Troubles
Soon Cured for St. John People Who Tried it.

Many enquiries are being received concerning the "Live-rite Tonic" which has been placed on the market by the Maritime Drug Co., 108 Prince William street, makers of "Live-rite remedies." It is especially recommended to persons suffering from internal troubles, from stomach troubles or liver aliments—there are many cases about the city wherein a cure has been effected for people who have used this "Live-rite Tonic" after they had suffered for years and tried other remedies.

Reliable druggists have been supplied with this tonic, but if you cannot get it at the druggist with whom you deal, send a dollar to the Maritime Drug Co., 108 Prince William Street, and they will be pleased to return their remedy. It is not only a curative but a preventive as well, a splendid regulator for the system, to purify the blood, and to rid one of gassy and disordered stomachs. Much of what is thought to be stomach trouble is often due to the liver, and vice versa—the "Live-rite Tonic" is a cure for both. Leave your order today.

All our stores will be open evenings until Christmas to accommodate Christmas shoppers.
