Outbreak Began in Basement and Caused $20,000 Damage.

PAPER TO ISSUE AS USUAL TODAY

Three Story Building Flooded With Water But Presses Are Undamaged.

Moncton, N. B., Dec. 15.—Fire which broke out in the basement of the Daily Times office tonight about ten o'clock caused damage that will keep the newspaper from working in all departments for some days.

The flames were first noticed at 10:15 o'clock by Frank Water, Canadian Press operator, who saw smoke issuing through the floor. Investigation showed that the whole front basement was on fire. The fire department was summoned and after a fight of two hours and a half, the fire was extinguished.

Three Story Building.

The Times Printing Company, limited, occupied a three story brick building. In the basement were the presses and paper room, while on the first floor were the business offices, stock room and mail room. On the second floor the editorial and composing rooms were located, while on the third floor was the job printing department.

Water Does Damage.

Most of the damage was done in the basement though the presses were undamaged except by water. Water also caused most of the damage on the other floors. The paper is being issued as usual tomorrow morning. The loss is estimated at between $15,000 and $20,000, covered by insurance. The origin of the fire is unknown.

ST. STEPHEN FIRE CAUSED $65,000 LOSS

Dwelling, Barns and Warehouse of Henry Acker Are Entirely Consumed.

HUGE STOCK OF HIDES IS BURNED

Family Had Difficulty in Escaping from Smoke-Filled Residence.

Special to The Standard.

St. Stephen, N. B., Dec. 15.—With the wind a hurricane and rain falling in torrents at two o'clock Wednesday morning, the family of Henry Acker was awakened by flames and smoke that so held possession of their home that they barely escaped with their lives.

The fire is supposed to have started from a defective fire, and there was no controlling it, until almost every timber in the house, shed and barn had been consumed, together with all the contents.

Hay Made Great Blaze

A new full of hay made a spectacular blaze, and the whole fire, fanned by the great wind, illuminated the country for miles around. The property was the former homestead of the late Frederick L. Hamand, and was some of the highest points in the town. Mr. Acker had bought heavily of hides and skins a few months ago and great quantities of these and other goods were stored on the premises and destroyed.

Loss is Large

Much new, valuable furniture was also consumed. Mr. Acker is absent from town and not much can be learned of the loss or the insurance, though his son places the loss at from $50,000 to $65,000, largely, of course, on the hides and pelts. It is the only fire loss of any considerable amount occurring in St. Stephen this year.

Now Insured

The insurance was placed as follows:—Dwelling, $5,000, in the Standard; J. M. Fyfeville; furniture, $1,000, New York Underwriters, White and Calkin, St. John; warehouse, $1,000, Montreal; stock, $25,000, P. C. Murdoch, St. Stephen; insurance company of North America, $5,000; Yorkshire, $5,000; Acadia, $5,000; Fyfeville; British Empire, $3,500; C. E. L. Jarvis & Son, St. John; Aetna, $2,000; H. Murchie; Atlas, $1,500; White and Calkin.

Night of Terror for Ninety-Nine People on Whaler "Serina"

FORCED TO ANCHOR NEAR SUNKEN ROCKS

When Vessel Was Towed to Port Captain Led in Prayer of Thanksgiving.

New Bedford, Mass., Dec. 15.—Deliverance came today to the Fortinque packet "Serina," which had tangled at her anchors through the night almost on the Dumping Rocks, off the Dartmouth shore, while her crew pumped for their lives to keep out a rush of water, and sixty-four passengers huddled in the hold on their knees in prayer.

Her bowsprit was broken, the foremast split and her sails were torn to shreds by the gale before a tugboat poked past the rocks this morning and towed her here.

Saved by a Miracle

Captain Joaquim Duarte, the youthful skipper of the little craft, when he reached the rock, offered up thanks for the delivery of his passengers and crew, saying it was a miracle that they were saved after a night in which the roar of the gale and the boom of the sur on the "Serina" sides, and on the nearby rocks carried a constant threat. The "Serina," which was formerly the whaler Bertha D. Nickerson, was bound from Cape Verde Islands for New Bedford.

GRAZING LANDS OF IRELAND TO GO TO FARMERS

Such is the Plan of the Republicans if They Cut from Britain.

DIVIDE PROPERTY IN SMALL BLOCKS

Witness Before Self-Appointed Commission Presents Outline of Proposed Rule.

Washington, Dec. 15.—The system of government which Irish republicans leaders propose to set up in Ireland was described as "an ideal co-operative commonwealth" by Laurence Ginnell, former Irish member of the British Parliament in testimony today before the "Commission of the Committee of One Hundred" investigating the Irish question.

Mr. Ginnell, who declined to appear before the commission until he had been assured that it would not "attempt to go behind the present Irish Republic" in any of its recommendations, presented a rough draft of the governmental system proposed by the Irish Republicans.

Socialist Tendencies

The ancient Breton laws, from which many of the present-day Socialist doctrines are derived, Mr. Ginnell said, probably will form the basis for Ireland's form of government should the efforts of the Republican leaders to gain political independence from Great Britain prove successful. He told the committee he had written a book on Socialism, obtaining his material from these laws.

Land in Ireland apportioned under the British Land Act for tilling, he said, has been leased to "favored cattle raisers" necessitating migration at intervals of a large part of the population in some districts to England to find work.

Break Up Land Areas

The governmental system, which the Irish Republicans plan to put into effect, he said, contemplate "breaking up" of the large tracts of land in Ireland, now used for grazing, and distributing them in smaller parcels to suitable persons to be tilled. Mr. Ginnell, as well as Miss Ruth Russell, another witness who last year investigated conditions in Ireland for the Chicago Daily News, declared that the religious issue in Ireland has been "artificially stimulated" and exaggerated.
